Land Judges' Court.

5. From the Chancery Division, Land Judges' Court, were received 114 Copy Rentals for 1881 and 1882.

15th Report, s. 6.

6. The continuing operations of the Board of Works in the re-arrangement of offices, during the autumn, in the absence of the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, made it necessary to remove the Exchequer Records without warrant; but their transfer has since been duly validated as in former cases of the like kind.

Record Tower.

7. From the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, there have been received 8 bundles of miscellaneous documents connected with the Four Courts Marshalsea Prison, and 23 volumes of King's Letters, mainly on military affairs extending from 1714 to 1824. I beg to refer to the interesting Report of the Keeper of the State Papers in reference to the recent acquisition of additional historical material, the ultimate destination of which will be here.

Appendix 1.

Duke of Leinster

8. His Grace the Duke of Leinster has been good enough to present to this office the Records following, brought in under permit of the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, under 30 & 31 Vic. c. 70, s. 16.

Records.	Vols.	Bdls.	Dates.
Rolls of Oaths and Affirmations taken before the Commissioners of Array, Co. Kildare,	–	1	1756
Rolls of Oaths of Burgesses, &c., of Athy and Harristown, ...			1725–7, 1752–79
Returns of Members of Parliament, Athy and Harristown, ...			1753, 1775
List of 40 Shilling Freeholders, Co. Kildare, .			1749–1760

Intern.

Concreting. Fourteenth Report, s. 11.

9. The floors of six further Bays in the basement of the Record Treasury have been concreted, and it is expected that this necessary protection against damp will be completed during the current year.

Iron fittings.

10. The replacement of wooden by iron shelving and re-adjustment of fittings so as to secure the maximum of light have been continued through eight additional Bays of the upper Treasury; the usual diagram of which is annexed, showing in red ink the changes made in the deposits and the new work done during the year.

Re-arrangement of Records. Common Pleas.

11. The Records of the Court of Common Pleas in Bay 3 G which had remained in loose order from the time of their reception have been flattened, cleansed, paper covered, and re-deposited in their former order.

Hanaper Office.

12. The Records from the Hanaper Office, also in loose bundles as originally brought in, have been put through a like process.

Custodians' Returns.

31. The Returns from Custodians under Retention Orders show that the Parochial Records kept in safes under their charge have been to some extent affected by damp. Twenty-one Reports forwarded during 1883–4, refer to damp, and the necessity of airing the Records. The safes in all these cases, save three, are in the Vestry rooms of country Churches.

Continuing inconvenience of divided deposit.

32. Continuing inconvenience attends the necessary dispersion of these Records in various and fluctuating places of deposit. In Appendixes to my 12th, 13th, and 14th Reports, tables were given of their then three-fold distribution at each of these periods. In my 15th Report the table was not published in extenso, but an Appendix was given setting forth the changes caused by receipts on Incumbencies becoming vacant under 38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, s. 6, and by remittances on safes being provided in the country under 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58, s. 5, during the year 1882. A like table continued to the present is given in an Appendix to this Report, from which and the list published in the Appendix to my 14th Report, an inquirer may know in which of the three possible Repositories provided by the Acts the Parochial Record sought for may be found, subject to such further changes as may arise during the current year.

Appendix III.

Records return on safes provided.

33. During last year, safes were provided in seven parishes, the Records of which, previously placed here, were returned to their respective Incumbents under Retention Orders.

Records retained ditto.

34. Safes were provided in eleven parishes the Records of which had not yet become attachable owing to the continuance in their former duties of those who were Incumbents in 1870, and these Records remain in the country under other Retention Orders.

Records brought up.

35. Twenty-five parishes which became attachable, did not provide safes, and their Records have been brought up and lodged in this custody, subject to return on safes being provided. A summary of the present distribution of the collection is here given:—

37. The renewed thanks of this department are due to William F. Littledale, Esq., solicitor, a donor of former additions to our collections, who has lately made a further present to this office of a set of Dublin Almanacks and Directories from 1734 and 1760 respectively, in 123 volumes. The collection is perfect, and is believed to be unique. I had been unable to accept a former offer of Mr. Littledale to deposit it here subject to recall, but have willingly received it on the only terms Mr. Littledale now imposes, namely that it shall be accessible to the Public. Mr. Littledale has further presented this office with a Manuscript Index to Incumbered and Landed Estates Court Sales, 1850–1875. P. M'Kenna, Esq., Londonderry, has presented a manuscript volume Donations from private individuals, Mr. Littledale.

Mr. M'Kenna. Mr. Fuller.

of "Monthly Returns of the Army and Militia in Ireland," 1803 to 1806; and J. F. Fuller, Esq., has been the means of placing a volume of the Register of Drakestown Parish, which had been out of the proper custody, amongst the Parochial Records here.

Official donations.

38. Thanks are also offered for donations of 12 volumes of Record Publications sent to this office by the direction of the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls in England, and of 2 such volumes sent by direction of the Lord Clerk Register of Scotland.

Literary searches. Rule regulating Table of Fees.

39. The literary searches during the year have included an extended examination of the Records and documents illustrative of the Cromwellian period. Under the Rule regulating the table of fees, the Deputy Keeper is at liberty to dispense with fees on searches for exclusively literary subjects. In construing the Rule I have held it to apply only to cases of intended publication, or of compilations such as, if published, would be of some general interest or utility.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency.

Dated at the Public Record Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, this 12th
day of March, 1884.

SAMUEL FERGUSON,

Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the statute.

A. M. PORTER,

Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX.

Appendix I.

To the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls.—The Sixteenth Report of Sir Bernard Burke, C.B., Ulster, Keeper of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, dated 1st February, 1884.

Sir,—It is gratifying to me to be able, in my first report to your Honour, to inform you of the acquisition by this department of a valuable contribution to our Records. In the course of last summer, the Hon. Spencer Ponsonby-Fane, c.b., presented to the Irish Government the Correspondence of John, Earl of Westmorland, k.g., Lord Lieutenant of Ireland from 5th January, 1790, to 4th January, 1795. At the Earl's death, this series of documents passed to his daughter, the late Lady Georgiana Fane, and from that lady to Mr. Ponsonby-Fane her nephew, and Lord Westmorland's grandson, by whose liberality and public spirit it now forms part of the State Papers of Ireland, and will henceforth, in remembrance not only of Lord Westmorland but also of the donor, be known as "The Fane Collection." The gift was thus made:—

"Lord Chamberlain's Office,
"St. James's Palace, S.W.,
"2 July, 1883.

"My dear Sir Bernard,

"I came into possession, at the death of my aunt, Lady Georgiana Fane, of a bundle of letters, &c. of Lord Westmorland's when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. I lent them to Mr. Lecky with reference to the History which he is writing, and he tells me they are of great interest, and that there are many which are not to be found amongst your Records.

"I think I cannot do better than to send them to you to look over, and I shall have pleasure in placing at your disposal for the Record Office which you have so admirably arranged any you deem worthy preserving. Let me know if this will be agreeable to you and to the 'Authorities that be,' and I will at once forward them to you.

"Yours very sincerely,

"S. Ponsonby-Fane.

"To Sir Bernard Burke, c.b."

I communicated this offer to the Lord Lieutenant, and His Excellency, with a full sense of the importance of the documents, directed me to accept the gift in his name and to thank Mr. Ponsonby-Fane most cordially for his liberality.

On receipt of the papers, I went carefully through their contents and perceived at once how important they were and especially how interesting was the correspondence between Mr. Pitt and Lord Westmorland. Their letters, as well as those of Henry Dundas, enter confidentially and largely into the political questions of the time, the Catholic claims, and the state of Ireland generally, touching now and then on the aspect of events occurring in Europe. The period was one of much excitement in Ireland consequent on the French Revolution. One of Pitt's letters, dated 18th November, 1792, shows that the writer already, even at that date, contemplated a Legislative Union.

The collection includes, besides, letters from Grenville, FitzGibbon (afterwards Earl of Clare), Hobart, Mornington (afterwards Marquess Wellesley), Sir John Parnell, John Beresford, Edward Cooke, the Bishop of Cloyne, John Pollock, Arthur Wolfe (afterwards Viscount Kilwarden), John Toler (afterwards Earl of Norbury), the Archbishop of Cashel, Earl Fitzwilliam, Lord Kenmare, &c.

A good many of the letters describing the advent of Lord FitzWilliam as Westmorland's successor, exhibit in strong relief the consternation of the office-holders at the sudden change, and finally refer to His Lordship's recall after his brief Viceroyalty of not quite three months.

To explain the position of the various writers in the correspondence, I subjoin their names and offices :—

The Earl of Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant, 5 January, 1790, to 4 January, 1795.

The Earl Fitzwilliam, Lord Lieutenant from 4 January, 1795, to 25 March, 1795.

Right Hon. William Pitt, Prime Minister.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas, Home Secretary, 8 June, 1791, to 11 July, 1794 : afterwards Viscount Melville.

Lord FitzGibbon, Lord Chancellor of Ireland (afterwards Earl of Clare), 1789 to 1802.

Robert Hobart, Chief Secretary, 1789 to 1794 (afterwards Lord Hobart, and Earl of Buckinghamshire).

Lord Milton, Chief Secretary, 1795 (afterwards Earl of Dorchester).

Earl of Mornington, Chief Remembrancer of the Exchequer (afterwards Marquess Wellesley).

Sir John Parnell, Bart., Chancellor of the Exchequer in Ireland, 1785 to 1799.

The Bishop of Cloyne (Charles M. Warburton, D.D.)

Right Hon. John Beresford, Commissioner of the Revenue.

The Archbishop of Cashel (Charles Agar, D.D.)

John Pollock, Crown Solicitor.

Arthur Wolfe, Attorney-General (afterwards Chief Justice and Viscount Kilwarden).

John Toler, Solicitor-General (afterwards Earl of Norbury).

Edward Cooke, Under Secretary, 1796 to 1801.

&c., &c., &c.

This Fane collection is now deposited in the Record Tower. I have arranged it in strict chronological order, and have made a comprehensive calendar, as well as an Index Nominum, thus rendering a reference easy to each individual person mentioned in the letters. The correspondence concludes with the departure of Lord Fitzwilliam.

There is another collection formerly contained in two large boxes in a room in the Tower (opened in the year 1876), a collection of vast interest, continuing to some extent the Fane correspondence. The latter ends in 1795 ; the papers of the two boxes commence about that year and carry down the course of events to 1809. They comprise Letters from Lords Cornwallis, Camden, Castlereagh, and Sligo, Charles James Fox, Duke of Portland, Lord Auckland, Sir Jonah Barrington, Right Hon. Thomas Pelham, Earl of Donoughmore, Right Hon. Henry Dundas, Lord Edward FitzGerald, Earl of Hardwicke, Colonel Littlehales, Lord Norbury, Wolfe, John Pollock, Sir John Parnell, Right Hon. William Wickham, Edward Cooke, Lord Redesdale, Lord Longueville, Arthur O'Connor, and very many others.

The last two months I have devoted to the minute examination of these papers, and am preparing to make a comprehensive Calendar and Index of them.

The current business of the year 1882 to 1883 shows the progress made. References from the Chief Secretary's Office for the production of documents have been numerous, and have occupied considerable time. The classification in cartons, already effected, of the MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS of each year has infinitely facilitated these inquiries. This classification and indexing have extended to the year 1872 with the exception of the years 1844 to 1856 now in course of similar arrangement. I look forward to the speedy completion of this classification with anxiety, as it will, when once finished, lessen to a great extent the labour of the searches so constantly required to be made in this Department.

The following Summary will explain the work done and in progress:—

1. An INDEX NOMINUM to a vol. of EXCISE ACCOUNTS, 1 May, 1658, to 24 June, 1660, and 24 June, 1660, to 24 June, 1662. This book, marked $\frac{A}{18}$ is one of those belonging to the Council Office.

2. An INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS AND PORTS to a vol. of PASSES OF SHIPS, 1677 $\left(\frac{A}{75}\right)$. This also belonged to the Council Office.

3. An INDEX NOMINUM to a vol. containing AFFIDAVITS of SERVICE of ORDERS of COUNCIL, 1682–1688 $\left(\frac{A}{107}\right)$. This also belonged to the Council Office.

4. An INDEX to a vol. containing WOOL LICENCES, 1699.

5. An INDEX commenced to a book entitled "KILKENNY CONFEDERATES—ORDERS ON PROCESS, 1644–1649" $\left(\frac{A}{54}\right)$. This also belonged to the Council Office.

6. An INDEX to 23 volumes of KING'S LETTERS, MILITARY (original), 1714 to 1824. These books together with an index volume have, during the past year, been transferred to the Public Record Office.

7. An INDEX in Slips to the MISCELLANEOUS UNREGISTERED Papers of the years 1857, 1858, 1859, and 1860. The papers occupy 22 cartons.

8. The slips for the INDEX to the PETITIONS and other papers connected therewith proceeded with from 4635 to 5255.

9. The PAPERS of the years 1869, 1870, 1871, and 1872, received this year, arranged in 139 cartons and a carton catalogue made to hem.

10. A CATALOGUE of the BOOKS, PAPERS, &c., contained in the Record Tower made.

RECEPTION OF PAPERS.

1. The CURRENT PAPERS of the years 1869, 1870, 1871, and 1872, eceived 26 February, 1883, from the Chief Secretary's Office.

2. Twelve bundles of Papers belonging to the Constabulary Office received from the Chief Secretary's Office.

3. The Westmorland Correspondence, 1790 to 1795, already referred to, and now indexed under the name of "the Fane Collection."

Transfer of State Papers.

The following Documents with an Index prepared in this Department have been transferred to the Public Record Office during the past year.

5725 (4636.) Pardon to Kenedie m'Tirlagh O Brien and Peter Butler fitz Rich., of the Glan, co. Waterford. Provisions as in 5504, also excluding treason.—7 March, xxxiv.

5726 (4662.) Grant to Patr. Morgan, gent.; of the office of constable
English. or gaoler of the gaol at Enyshe, which is by this grant appointed as the common shire gaol of the co. Clare. To hold during pleasure. Recites that the county had since its formation been without a shire gaol; Morgan had offered to build one at Enishe, if made gaoler, without any charge to the crown, but only such ordinary allowances of prisoners as have been accustomed.—7 March, xxxiv.

5727 (4675.) License (under a letter from lord Burghley) to Geffraie English. Browne, of Galwaie, merchant; to erect on the river of Galwaie, two corn mills, and one tucking mill. One mill to be situated on the river without the walls of the town, between Garriglasse and the Friars mill; another between the mill of Wm. Martin, and the church of our lady without the said town, upon the lands called Ballymanaghe; and the third in a place near Martin's mill. It having been certified by sir Rich. Bingham, governor of Connaught, and Ulick Linch, mayor of Galwaie, that the mills may be erected with benefit to the country.—20 March, xxxiv.

5728 (5919.) Grant to Josias Belknapp, gent.; of the wardship and marriage of Henry, son and heir of Edmund Brickly, late of Ballykahan, co. Limerick, gent., and custody of his lands, during minority. Rent, £13 6*s.* 8*d.*, retaining £4 of the rent for support of the minor. Fine £20.—31 March, xxxiv.

5729 (4673.) Commission (under queen's letter, 20 Jan., 1590) to English. Wm. Bath, esq., second justice of the Common Pleas, Roger Wilbraham, solicitor general, Nich. Aylmer, and Gerald Flemmynge, gent.; to enquire what castles, lands, and hereditaments, Philip O Reylie, of Ballynecargie, co. Cavan, gent., hath of right in that county. He having offered to surrender his possessions, in order to receive them again by letters patent. Recites that in former times, by pretence of such surrenders, many subjects had been wrongfully put out of their inheritances, by the express insertion of their lands in the surrenders.—March, xxxiv. 1592.

5730 (5343.) Grant to Rob. Newcomen, esq.; of the office of surveyor general of the victuals for the army. To hold during good behaviour, with a fee of 10*s.* English a day. Not to be removed, as in 4976. Recites his surrender of his former patent, 5556.—13 April, xxxiv.

5731 (4684.) Grant (under queen's letter, 10 July, xxxiii.) to Dermot m'Morris Cavenagh, of Knockangarowe; the lands of Knockangarrowe, half of Clanhenrett or Clonhanry, a fourth part of Balleduf or Balleduf ne Killmor, Tully, Balleloskey, and Ballenattin; also half of Rahine Cormickmore, half of Tonne m'Tyre or Tonnemackdirye, half of Ballim'damore, and half of Knockglasmony or Knockglaswony. To hold for ever: the first six denominations by the service of a twentieth part of a knight's fee; rent 45*s.* 10*d.* English; the remaining four in free socage; rent 16*s.* 8*d.* The last four had belonged to Cryon Cavanaigh m'Donill, of Rahin Cormockmore, co. Wexford, gent., and are to be reconveyed to him by Dermot. Dermot is to send two horsemen and four footmen to all hostings. Recites the surrender of the premises by Dermot and Cryon, dated 8th Dec. last, to Nich. Maisterson, then sheriff of Wexford, Lodwic Briskett, esq., and Rob. Codd, gent., commissioners.—29 April, xxxiv.

5732 (4571.) Grant (under queen's letter, 29 Dec., xxxiv.) to Gerald Dillon, of Arbraccan, co. Meath, gent.; of all lands known as the termon of Killyvan, containing two tates. To hold for ever, in common socage. Rent 20*s.* English. Given free from the seal at the bishop of Meath's suit.—3 May, xxxiv.

5733 (4687.) Grant (under queen's letter, 3 Feb., xxx.) to Wm. Browne, of Malrankan, co. Wexford; of the lands of Croake, parcel of the preceptory of Croak, co. Waterford, a free rent of 20*s.* out of the ferry there, 12*d.* out of Dromynaghe, and 20*d.* out of Ferremolagh, with certain customs there valued at 2*s.* 11*d.*, in co. Waterford (recites 527) (rent 48*s.* 11*d.*); a house in Molingar called a Franke house, co. Westmeath (recites 3323) (3*s.* 4*d.*); seventeen tenements with their gardens and other appurtenances, in Trym, possessions of the monastery of the B. V. M. of Tryme (recites No. 1714) (58*s.* 6*d.*) (A ruined water mill in Esker, co. Dublin, of the queen's ancient inheritance, struck out). To hold for ever, in common socage. Rent as above.—5 May, xxxiv. (Cal. P. R., p. 218.)

5734 (6289.) Indenture between the crown and John Rauceter, of Rathemaknee, co. Wexford, infant. Recites that by an inquisition (Exch. Wexford, Eliz., No. 65) taken on the death of Thomas Rawceter, the queen's title had been found to the wardship of the lands of Rathmaknee, Walshestone, and others, which finding Rauceter traversed. A lease is made to him (pending the decision of the traverse) of the lands, excepting the dowers of Constance Stafford and Anstace Synnot, and leases of Knockanegall and [ ]. Signed John Rauceter.—Dated 7 May, xxxiv.

5735 (4633.) Pardon to Philip Lamport, of Ballehire, co. Wexford, esq., Donell O Murchoe m'Art ne Kille, of Kilgowne, Tho. 1593. FIANTS—ELIZABETH.

5834 (4788.) Commission to Adam, archbishop of Dublin, lord chancel-English. lor, John, archbishop of Armagh, Tho. earl of Ormond and Ossory, treasurer, Tho., bishop of Meath, sir H. Wallop, knt., vice treasurer, sir H. Bagenall, knt., marshal, chief justices Gardener and Weston, chief baron Napper, sir A. St. Leger, master of the rolls, sir G. Bourchier, master of the ordnance, sir R. Bingham, chief commissioner of the province of Connaught and Thomond, sir T. Norries, vice-president of Munster, sir R. Dillon, one of the privy council, sir G. Fenton, secretary of state, N. Walshe, second justice of the Chief Bench, the mayor of Dublin for the time being, Charles Calthroppe, attorney general, R. Wilbraham, solicitor general, Rob. Conway, doctor of laws, Henry Usher, archdeacon of S. Patrick's; to execute the acts of Supremacy and Uniformity, with power to enquire judicially of all offences against these acts, and also all heretical opinions, seditions books, conspiracies, false rumours, seditious libels, tales, evil education of children by schoolmasters, scandalous words and sayings against the laws or proceedings ecclesiastical; to visit and correct all heresies, schisms, and offences which by any ecclesiastical authority may be redressed; to correct all unlawful marriages, adulteries and fornications, usuries, sacrileges, simonies, and other ecclesiastical crimes; to use and devise all politic ways for trial, by confession of the parties, lawful witness, or by due means and conviction, and thereupon to order such punishment by all or any ways of correction as to their wisdoms appear meet; with power to summon and examine witnesses, and to punish those who disobey by imprisonment and fine; and to take recognizances from persons for their appearing and obedience to orders. As divers perverse persons refuse to acknowledge the queen's prerogative and preeminence, and the order of service as established by law, the commissioners are to administer the oath of Supremacy to all bishops, parsons, or other ecclesiastical ministers, to every judge, mayor, or other lay officer. They shall put in force as far as concerns the clergy the act of xxviii. Henry VIII., for the English order, habit and language. They may delegate their powers as to taking examinations and recognizances of persons in remote parts. They may proceed against persons who refuse to appear, after affixing their precept to the door of the offender's house, and proclamation at fair or market, or in church. Whereas merchants and others keep copes, vestments, chalices, idols, crosses, and other superstitious relics, to the maintenance of popery, and and daily bring over books and writings repugnant to the ecclesiastical laws, seditious to the crown, and pernicious to the subjects, whereby conspiracies and rebellious practices are raised and maintained, the commissioners are to search ships, shops, and houses, seize such articles, and ballads, songs, sonnets, or other writings, and punish the offenders by fine and imprisonment. Lists of names of persons to be proceeded against to be kept, and care taken that they are not tampered with by the officials. The commissioners shall oblige impropriators to repair the chancels of the churches and to find curates to serve in them, and also require incumbents to repair their chancels, and parishioners to maintain the churches, with power to sequester the benefices of those who do not comply.—[27 Nov., xxxvi.] (The latter part of this

5835 (5596.) License to Alexander Cosbie and Dorcas his wife; to English. demise to any faithful subjects, for one, two or three lives or 21 years, their lands in the Queen's co., held under several grants. Recites that the land is waste from the recent rebellions and the difficulty of obtaining occupiers.—28 Nov., xxxvi. (Cal. P. R. p. 281.)

5836 (4770.) Commission to Adam, archbishop of Dublin, and English. chancellor, chief justices Gardiner and Weston, chief baron Napper, and sir A. St. Leger, master of the rolls; to hear and determine a controversy long pending before the privy council in England, between John Itchingham, gent., and sir Nich. White, knt., and since his death, Andrew White, esq., his son and heir, for the recovery of the barony of Donbrodie and other lands. This commission is issued on the recommendation of sir John Popham, chief justice of England and the attorney and solicitor general there, to whom the matter had been referred by the council. —3 Dec., xxxvi.

5837 (6624.) Presentation of Meredius Hanmer, clerk, S. T. P.; to the treasurership of the cathedral of Waterford, vacant by the deprivation of Thomas Granger.—4 Dec., xxxvi.

THE SEVENTEENTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE JOHN POYNTZ
EARL SPENCER, K.G.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. The business of this Office during the year 1884 has consisted chiefly in the receipt of accruing Records, in the internal fitting and arrangement of the Collections, and in the supply of certified copies to the public.

2. One of the staff, Mr. Thomas P. Lefanu, B.A., was transferred from this branch of the service to the office of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, 14th February, 1884. The vacancy so caused was filled up by the appointment of Mr. Herbert Wood, B.A., who entered on duty 30th October, 1884.

3. The accruing Records comprise:—From the Record and Writ Office, Chancery Division. Record and Writ Office, Chancery.

8. From the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, there have been received 53 volumes, and 29 carton-boxes of papers relating to Irish political, military, and civil affairs, chiefly in the 17th and 18th centuries. I refer to the Report of the Keeper of the State Papers, who continues to point out additional material of this kind, and indicates its nature by characteristic extracts. Record Tower, Dublin Castle. Appendix III.

9. No increment has been received from the Probate Division, the Right Honorable the Judge having included all the Testamentary Records from 1858 in his certificate of Retainer. Probate.

Intern.

10. The concreting of the basement floor of the Record Treasury has been completed; and that part of the building is at length perfectly dry and fit for the reception of Records. Concreting. Sixteenth Report, s. 9.

11. The wooden shelving in six further bays has been removed and replaced with galvanized iron. This important precaution against fire is now nearly completed throughout the upper building. On the basement floor, where the bays are separated from one another by walls and arched over in masonry, it is not thought necessary to alter the arrangement of the wooden presses from the former Rolls Record Room now erected there. The usual diagram showing the present state of the bays, and indicating the last year's changes, in red, is annexed. Ibid., s. 10.

12. Finding it necessary to protect the "Incumbrance" Rolls, from dust, and unwilling to press for horse skin or parchment, I have had covers of linen-lined wrapping paper applied to them. Though at present little consulted, these Rolls, kept under the provisions of the Act 2 Anne, c. 6, s. 14, constitute, for the estates of the Roman Catholic proprietors of the early part of the 18th century, a Register of Deeds extending back for a long period before the general Deeds Registry established in the 8th of the same reign. Incumbrance Rolls.

Sorting and arrangement of Papers.

13. The Powers of Attorney (1773–1878) transferred from the Accountant-General's Office, Chancery, have been sorted under their years, flattened, and deposited in covered bundles. Accountant General's Offic

14. The Receivers and Guardians' Accounts of Chancery have been thrown into dictionary order under their respective years, and progress has been made in like treatment of the Consents. Receivers Accounts.

15. 1,085 bundles of Chancery Records, 222 bundles of Writs of Summons of the three Law Divisions, 70 bundles of Prerogative Records, 426 bundles of Queen's Bench Records, 253 bundles of County and City of Dublin Presentments, 568 bundles of Common Pleas Records, and 38 bundles of Draft

Indexes of the late Record Commission have been flattened, arranged, covered with wrapping paper, and made up in close parcels.

Sixteenth Report, s. 15.

16. The arrangement of the Prerogative Cause Papers has been completed from the letter P.

Fiants.

17. The Fiants of Charles I. and Charles II. have been cleaned, numbered in the sequence of their dates, and deposited in portfolios in continuation of the previous reigns.

Indexing and Calendaring.

18. The Index to the Prerogative Cause Papers has been completed, it comprises 1,320 pages and will form two volumes.

Sixteenth Report, s. 23 Dublin Grant Books.

19. The draft indexes to the Grant Books of the Dublin Consistorial Court, have been continued for the following volumes, 1782, 1789, 1789–1794, 1794–1800, 1800–1806, 1806–1810, 1810–1814, 1814–1819, and 1819–1823.

Sixteenth Report, s. 19. Fiants, Charles I.

20. The Index to the calendar of Fiants of Charles I., has been completed from page 73, making 381 pages in all.

Sixteenth Report, s. 21. Lunacy Office.

21. The books of Affidavits, 1843–1863 (20 volumes); Accounts, 1843–1850 (7 volumes); Reports and Accounts, 1850–1863 (13 volumes); Petitions and Reports, 1843–1850 (7 volumes); and Petitions, 1850–1863 (13 volumes), from the Lunacy Office, in all 60 volumes, have been indexed in the front of each book.

Sixteenth Report, s. 25.

22. The detailed index to miscellaneous small collections has been continued to page 260. A new detailed Index to the Chancery collection has been completed to page 458. In this, the Records which have been recast since their transfer to this department have been entered according to the new arrangement, such as the Bills and Answers, Affidavits, &c., and take up much less room than before.

Index, Patent Rolls.

23. An Index to the Patent Rolls of Chancery for the years 1860 to 1876 has been copied from that in use in the Record and Writ Office, Chancery.

Disentailing Deed Rolls. Sixteenth Report, s. 28.

24. The Calendar to the Disentailing Deed Rolls has been advanced from Deed No. 4530, enrolled 3 December, 1864, to Deed No. 4565, enrolled 1 March, 1865.

Fiants, Elizabeth. Sixteenth Report, s. 26. Appendix IV.

25. The calendar to the Fiants of the reign of Elizabeth has been advanced to Fiant No. 6564, and is printed in the Appendix. The remaining Fiants of this reign, and an Index thereto, will, it is hoped, be included in next year's Report.

Bookbinding.

26. In the Bookbinding and Repairing Department 40 volumes of Equity Exchequer Note or Rule Books, 14 volumes of Assignments and Licenses of Letters Patent of Inventions, 9 volumes of Parochial Registers, 5 volumes of Landed Estates Court Rentals, 3 volumes of Chancery Affidavits, and 31 miscellaneous volumes have been bound, and 32 Membranes of Fiants and 12 Wills, besides various other Records have been repaired.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Act, 38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, and 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58.

27. The yearly Reports made by Parochial Officers having the Custody of Records under Retention Orders are, with few exceptions, satisfactory. It has not been found necessary to recall any Parochial Records on account of structural insufficiency in the places of deposit; but in one case the power of recall given by the Act of 1876, s. 5, to the Master of the Rolls, "if satisfied that any Records permitted to be retained are kept in unfit or unsafe buildings, or that due provision is not made for their safe Custody," was put in force. Custodians' Reports.

28. I annex a table of the changes which, since the publication of my Fourteenth Report, have been occasioned in the places of deposit of the Parochial Records, by the present statutable provisions. Appendix V.

29. During the year 1884 the Records of seven Parishes, which had previously been in this custody, were returned to their respective places of local deposit, safes having been there provided, under Retention Orders. Records returned.

30. The Records of 19 Parishes which had become attachable, but for which safes had been provided, were allowed to remain in the local custody, under like Orders. Records retained.

31. And the Records of 21 Parishes having become attachable by cesser of the Incumbencies, and being unprovided with safes, were transferred to this office. Records brought up.

32. The Fees for the year show a noticeable improvement over 1883; although the amount is still far short of what might have been expected if the rate of increase to 1879 had been maintained. Fees.

Donations.

33. I beg to acknowledge donations of 10 volumes of Record Publications by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls in England, and 4 volumes by the Deputy Clerk Register of Scotland.

Literary Searches

34. The literary searches during the year included investigations into the History of Ireland under the Commonwealth, History of the Irish Confederation, Diocesan History of Kildare and Leighlin, Family History of Clare, Louth, Meath, and Cavan, and the Histories of the York and Lancaster Regiment, and of the Wicklow Militia.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency.

Dated at the Public Record Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, this 10th
day of March, 1885.

SAMUEL FERGUSON,

Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the statute.

A. M. PORTER,

Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX.

Appendix I.

Report on contents of Iron Chest, Queen's Bench.

By the Assistant Deputy Keeper.

The Iron Chest of the Court of King's Bench has long been in use as the repository of the Records of Outlawry for High Treason. It was formerly in the custody of the Clerk of the Crown of the King's Bench, but in pursuance of an Order of the Irish House of Lords, it was removed thence and lodged with the Prothonotary. Chief Justice Lord Kilwarden afterwards made an order retransferring it to the Crown Office; and of late years it has been in the custody of the Master of the Queen's Bench. The contents almost entirely relate to the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688. For the period of 1641 they consist of Writs of Exigent with the Returns thereon, and Writs of Capias, with Entry and Index Books relating thereto, and to the enrolments of the same class of documents amongst the Inrolled Pleas of the Crown. For the period of 1688, they consist of Bills of Indictment, Writs of Exigent and the Returns thereon, and of Commissions under the Act 28th Henry VIII., dated 24th February, 1695–6, and 2nd July, 1696, issued to inquire what persons were in Rebellion in parts beyond the sea, on the 13th February, 1688, and at the date of the Commissions, together with the Returns thereto, with an Index Book referring to these three classes of documents by numbers. There are besides some few Writs and Papers which are not sufficient in number or importance to be made into a class. I have had all the above Records cleaned, flattened, and arranged, and subjoin lists of them with such observations as may render access to them easy.

Writs of Exigent and Returns thereto in relation to the Rebellion of 1641

These are numbered, and, on comparison with the entries in Vol. 3 of the Books undermentioned, would appear to be complete for the Counties of Cork, Dublin, Kildare, Meath, Queen's County, and Wicklow; but, for the Counties of Down, Louth, Monaghan, Westmeath, and Wexford, the preliminary Writs of Capias only are forthcoming, and five of these are wanting in the case of Wexford.

The Books of Entry or Indexes consist of—

VOLUME I.—A volume bound in parchment in good preservation containing an alphabetical list of persons indicted of treason in the King's Bench from Hilary Term, 17th Charles I., 1641, to Easter Term, 19th Charles I., 1643, and of persons indicted at the Sessions held at Killaleagh, county Down, on the 1st July, 1642; at Cappoquin, county Waterford, on the 10th August, 1642; and at Youghal, county Cork, on the 2nd August, 1642. This volume would appear to be an alphabetical arrangement of the entries in Volume 3, but it has no reference numbers nor anything specific to show or to lead up to what book or documents it refers to. In many cases the names are noted as Outlawed, Waived, not Outlawed, Bailed, Acquitted, in Prison, or Hung. The counties referred to in this volume, are, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, Down, Dublin, Fermanagh, Kildare, King's County, Longford, Louth, Meath, Monaghan, Queen's County, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow, being the same counties included in Volume 3.

VOLUME 2.—Is a modern copy of portion of the above as far as regards outlawries, and would seem to be a draft of a return made by the late Master Bushe, then Prothonotary of the Court of Queen's Bench, in obedience to an Order of the House of Lords, circa 1833, for a return of outlawries and the places where they were proclaimed, with the dates of the proclamations. The names are in a similar arrangement to those in Volume I. save as regards those who do not appear to have been actually outlawed, with the addition of the dates and places of outlawry taken from the Writs of Exigent. It only concerns the counties of Cork, Dublin, Kildare, Meath, and Wicklow.

Volume 3.—Is an Entry Book in good condition, bound in parchment, of persons indicted of treason in the King's Bench and of persons brought there under Certiorari, from Hilary, 1641, to Easter, 1643, arranged under counties. It includes the counties of Carlow, Cavan, Cork, Down, Dublin, Fermanagh, Kildare, King's County, Longford, Louth, Meath, Monaghan, Queen's County, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow. It is generally stated in the margin whether the persons are indicted upon evidence or upon knowledge of the Grand Jury. There are numbers in the margin which refer to a roll or rolls which I have been unable to trace, and there are other numbers, generally preceded by the letter E., which refer to the Writs of Exigent, and, in the case of the counties Down, Louth, Monaghan, Westmeath, and Wexford, where I find only files of Writs of Capias, to the Writs of Capias for those counties. The names in this book appear in the same order in which they are in the Writs of Exigent or Capias.

Volume 4.—This book is entitled "An Alphabet to the Indictments and Outlawries in the Counties of Dublin, Meath, and Kildare." It contains outlawries exclusively and gives a reference to the Writs of Exigent of Charles I., by their numbers. The first two pages of the letter B., for Dublin are wanting, but otherwise it is in good condition, covered in parchment.

Volume 5.—An Index Nominum, headed "Per contrarotulum de Hillario anno XVII., Caroli Regis," and "de Pascha anno XVIII., Caroli Regis." The names of the place and county to which the persons belong are given with a reference to the Roll of the Pleas of the Crown from the Crown Office, Queen's Bench, for the corresponding term and year. I have checked it with the Rolls of the two terms, and I find it relates to the enrolment of Writs of Capias. It is well preserved in a parchment back.

Volume 6.—This volume is entitled, "Liber primus Alphabetae Examinationum," and, though not dated, it relates, I think, to the time of Charles I. It is an alphabet of persons, giving the place of abode and sometimes the designation; and after each name there is a reference number, and sometimes more than one, which run to 528; but I have not been able to verify what they refer to. It is merely a cut of long paper with a thin parchment back in good condition.

Rebellion of 1688.

(1) Bills of Indictment of the Grand Juries for the following counties, viz.:—Antrim, Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, City of Cork, Down, Drogheda town, Dublin, City of Dublin, Fermanagh, Kerry, Kilkenny, City of Kilkenny, Kildare, Londonderry, City of Londonderry, Louth, Meath, Queen's, Tyrone, Waterford, City of Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow. These bear a running number down to 66. Numbers 24, 26, 51 and 55, are wanting. They are not in very good preservation, many of them being much rubbed.

(2) Commissions of Inquiry to ascertain what persons were in rebellion n parts beyond the sea on the 13th February, 1688, and at the date of the Commission, and the Inquisitions taken thereunder. These Commissions, under the statute 28 Henry VIII., c. 7, s. 3, include every county and county of a city or town in Ireland, save Tipperary. They are six in number, five for groups of counties, and a sixth for Dublin. There are attached to them 37 Inquisitions, each one for a separate county or city, and the numbers on them correspond with those in the Writs of Exigent proclaimed in 1696.

There are two volumes of indexes to the above. The first volume is entitled "An Alphabetical Book of the Indictments of Treason, beginning Michaelmas Term, 3rd William and Mary, Anno Domini, 1690." It covers indictments to 1696, and is, in fact, an index to the three series mentioned above of Indictments, Inquisitions on Commissions of Inquiry, and Exigents with returns, referring to the documents by their numbers. Two series of numbers are employed, one referring to the Bills of Indictment and the Exigents thereunder, and the other, which follows the first, referring to the Inquisitions under the Commissions and the Exigents of 1696.

In many instances the entries are noted in the margin as Reversed Outlawed, Bailed, Returned, or Dead.

The second volume appears to be the draft of the above-mentioned Return to the House of Lords made by Master Bushe when Prothonotary, circa 1833, of those outlawed; and the places where they were proclaimed.

Appendix III.

To the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls.—The Seventeenth Report of Sir Bernard Burke, C.B., Ulster King of Arms, Keeper of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, dated 1st February, 1885.

Sir,—In bringing to your notice the progress of this Department during the year, 1884, I would direct your Honor's attention to the near completion of the classification and indexing of "The Miscellaneous Papers" of Government.

Heretofore these papers, which had accumulated to a very considerable extent, were in chaotic confusion, the consequence being that when an important document was required to be produced, and could not be found in the classified collections, a search had to be made, bundle by bundle, letter by letter, for the missing record. This toilsome search, as I have already stated in my previous reports, caused the greatest delay and trouble, particularly when a reference was made by the Lord

Lieutenant, Chief Secretary, or House of Commons for some particular information. To overcome this difficulty I have devoted many years to the proper arrangement of "The Miscellaneous Papers," and I have now the satisfaction to report that the whole series, filling 539 cartons, from 1821 to 1872 inclusive, is now completed with the exception of four years 1844, 1845, 1846, and 1847, which will be perfected during the current year by a comprehensive index. When this is finished, the whole of the large series of unarranged miscellaneous papers from 1821 to 1872 inclusive—half a century of Governmental documents—hitherto in confusion and unindexed, will be so classified as to be readily accessible for the public service.

Another important work of the year has been the INDEX TO THE PETITIONS and other papers connected therewith, being a calendar or short abstract of the several papers annexed to the Petitions.

These Petitions are addressed to the Lord Lieutenant or to the Lords Justices in Council, and range over many years. I have placed them in alphabetical order from the extreme difficulty of fixing the date of most of them, as it has generally been the custom in Petitions to the King or the King's representative, to omit the dates. Some dates may be ascertained through the orders made upon them, but where there is no such order or where the order is not discoverable the only means of ascertaining the date is from internal evidence, sometimes not easily obtainable.

The portion of this collection from A to J, containing 5,256 Petitions has just been transferred in 30 cartons to the Public Record Office, together with a very comprehensive index. The great variety of the subjects of these Petitions may be understood from the following enumeration of some of the contents; 1 Protection against Outrages; 2, Heads of Bills for Private Acts of Parliament to Charge Estates, &c., and petitions against the Heads of Bills; 3, Appointments, Civil or Military; 4, Leave for Military Officers to sell their commissions; 5, Promotions in the Church; 6, Leaves of absence for Military Officers; 7, Licences to Roman Catholic gentlemen to have arms, as being within the articles of Limerick or Galway; 8, Relief by way of charity; 9, Pensions, civil and military; for the aid of the military to assist the civil power; 10, Renewals of patents; 11, Rewards for killing or capturing tories; 12, The issuing of proclamations for rewards for discovery of criminals; 13, Arrest of parties charged with abductions and for pardons of the offence; 14, Relief from quarantine; 15, Licences to export provisions and other prohibited goods, such as butter to Newfoundland; 16, Payments for every kind of service; 17, Removals of sites of parish churches; 18, Changes of places for holding assizes; 19, Payment of the "plates" run for on the Curragh of Kildare; 20, Proclamations concerning houghing of cattle; 21, Assistance to French Huguenots for building churches for them in Dublin, Waterford, Portarlington, Kilkenny, &c.; 22, Charitable relief for individual Huguenots; 23, French Protestant pensioners; 24, Collections to be made in churches in specified districts on the report and with the sanction of the Lord Primate; 25, Apprehending Irishmen engaged in enlisting men for the French service; 26, Pardons after sentence; 27, Liberty to be heard by counsel against elections and returns of mayors and municipal officers; 28, Reward for discovery of the title of the Crown to lands; 29, Relief or reward of some engaged in the siege of Derry, Limerick, and other places during the wars of 1690– 1692; 30, Relief of insolvent debtors in the Marshalsea, to be included in some pending heads of bills for relief of insolvent debtors; 31, Grants to individuals for building piers and improving harbours.

To give an idea of the nature of the petitions, annexed are a few abstracts:—

One of the Petitions to the Duke of Ormonde recalls the time when the Phœnix Park was a hunting ground for the Lord Lieutenant:—

To His Grace James [Second] Duke of Ormonde.

The Humble Petition of the Inhabitants of Arbour Hill and places adjacent to the Phœnix Park.

Sheweth: That most of the Petitioners do pay great rents for their several holdings, great part whereof they did hope to raise by accommodating sickly persons who desire to lodge out of the citty for the benefit of the air; but your Petitioners are not only deprived of that advantage, but find themselves very uneasy in their habitations from the troublesome noise and infectious smell which they are too often sensible cometh from the Dog Kennell near the Park gate, especially in the summer, which is the principal time they can propose to make profit by their Lodgings."

Fourteen signatures are subscribed, none of any note.

Then follows the certificate of Thomas Burgh, Engineer and Surveyor-General, that, according to His Grace's directions, he had viewed the Dog Kennell, and that it must be offensive to the Inhabitants of Arbour Hill by reason of the noise and smell, and that the Kennell might be removed into the Park, and placed by the pond near Scully's, where it would be much more commodiously situated.

Dated, Dublin Castle, 16th May, 1705.

A reference to the Lake of Killarney is contained in the following:—

Mr. John Asgill, a purchaser from the Trustees for the Sale of Forfeited Lands at Chichester House, in 1703, of the Lake of Killarney, then called Lough Lean, and other parts of Lord Kenmare's Estate, undertook, according to his Petition, to demise Ross Castle for the use of His Majesty during Lord Kenmare's life, or until he should build a Barrack for two foot companies in Ross island, and then the demise of Ross Castle to be void. The Surveyor-General having made a plan far beyond what Mr. Asgill intended, and Captain Cronelly, who was to choose the site for the Barrack, deeming the Castle the only fit place, Mr. Asgill offered to execute the demise. He then complains of Captain Payton, Governor of Ross Castle, hindering any boats upon the Lake: but Mr. Asgill claims the right of the Lake and all the Islands and the fishery there, as conveyed by the Trustees for Sale of Forfeited Estates, to him.

The following Petition gives some interesting particulars concerning the lamentable fire of 15th April, 1711, which destroyed such a vast quantity of the public historic records of Ireland:—

To their Ex^cies.^ the Lords Justices and hon^ble.^ Privy Council.

The humble pet^n.^ of William Benson dep^ty.^ Usher Council Chamber.

Sheweth: That your Pet^r.^ haveing Lodgeings att the Council Chamber was on Sunday morning the 15th instant Aprill about three of the Clocke suddenly called up by Sargent Brian Troy who then had the Comand of the Treary. guard and Samuel Westbrooke & told that the Council Chamber was on fire. Your pet^r.^ Imediately went down into the hall with them & see thro the Key hole of the Council Office that the same was on Fire. Your pet^r.^ causd 2 soldiers to force the Door Open and then did see the office all in flames from whence there issued soe violent smoake and heat that y^r.^ pet^r.^ had ꝑished If the Sarg^t^ with other help had not drawn y^r.^ Pet^r.^ from thence into the Hall. And after y^r.^ pet^r.^ came to himselfe, & found it not possible to quench the fire tho he had caused severall Pailes of water to be thrown upon it, your Pet^r.^ went up into his own Lodgeings togeather with the said Sar^t. and Westbrooke & one Goughagan to take care of his wife and children & to endeavour to save some of y^r. pet^rs. goods, there then being neither fire or smoake to be seen in y^r. pet^rs. Roomes. But after they had 2 trunke Males down & returning to fetch more goods By the fury and violence of the fire from below y^r. pe^trs. Lodgeings were in flames and the said Goughagan & y^r. pet^rs. maid to saue their Lives were for'ed to throw themselves out att a window into the Treary Yard.

When the Roofe of the whole house was on fire your pet^r. thro great difficulty gott himselfe & 3 men into the Council Chamber & before the fire entred the same did secure the Clocke Statute Bookes Hangings in all these 3 Roomes with Kings Arms & all the Council Books of Orders in the Comittee and al other things therein under y^r. pet^r. Care.

That y^r. pet^r. by this dreadfull fire has saved little of his goods they being all Consumed in these merceiless flames the truth of all these pliculars by severall affidavits before this hon^ble. Board appears.

That y^r. pet^r. to add to his great loss is dificulte of Lodgeings wch. was the greatest advantage y^r. pet^r. had from thence save £10 a yeare this hon^ble Board were pleasd to allow him out of the Queens Bounty out of Compassion to y^r. pet^rs. great family & his services & frugallity in every thing under his care of wch. there is now 2 yeares in arrear.

Your poor pet^r. humbly prays y^r. Ex^cies. & good L^pp. out of y^r. wonted goodness & charity to take his condition in y^r. Consideration & grant him such help as in y^r. wisdome shall seem meet and y^r. pet^r. will ever pray.

[17 April, 1711.—Carton 214. No. 568.]

Colonel Henry Luttrell's murder is thus mentioned—

In 1718 Joseph Austin one of the Sheriffs of the City of Cork claims some allowance for the cost of apprehending and bringing up to Dublin Richard Wilson for the murder of Colonel Henry Luttrell. On receiving Chief Justice Whitshed's warrant he by private information was enabled to apprehend the said Wilson at the break of day and committed him to the City Jail. Sometime after he received a Habeas Corpus to remove him to Dublin, and was ordered the guard of a serjeant and ten men to attend him on the journey to Dublin, and the cost of maintaining four horses, the prisoner, two servants and himself, upon the journey, as well as providing meat and drink for the soldiers was very great. He prays reimbursement.

[Carton 212. No. 233.]

From the Petition of Robert Baillie there is the following history of the two pieces of Tapestry still to be seen on the walls of the House of Lords. Robert Baillie, as appears by one of his petitions in the year 1716, was appointed Upholsterer to the Government by the Earl of Sunderland when he was Lord Lieutenant (Carton 213, No 283), and there are various accounts of his for goods and furniture for the new buildings (Eastern and Western Buildings) of the Castle of Dublin, between 1714 and 1720. But in 1728 when the present Parliament House (now the Bank of Ireland) was erecting he was employed to furnish Tapestry for the walls of the House of Lords, and on the 31 July, 1728, entered into a Bond to their Excellencies the Lords Justices for the making of six pieces of Tapestry at the rate of Three pounds per ell. By this proposal he offered to represent the following great actions :—

1st Piece.—The defence of Londonderry from the opening of the trenches to the raising of the Siege by the arrival of the English Fleet.

2nd Piece.—The Landing of King William and his Army at Carrickfergus.

3rd Piece.—To represent the Battle at the Boyne with the rout of the Irish Army.

4th Piece.—To represent the entry of King William into Dublin.

5th Piece.—To represent the Battle of Aughrim.

6th Piece.—The taking of Cork and Kinsale by the late victorious Duke of Marlborough.

Scenes which their Lordships would, he hoped, deem as suitable for their House, as the defeat of the Spanish Armada for that of Great Britain.

He undertook to give lifelike portraits of the late King William, of Marlborough, Schomberg, and de Ginkle, and any other Lords instrumental in the Revolution who should furnish their pictures. He engaged to make the hangings equal in goodness with Alexander's battles or those of the late Duke of Marlborough, which were never sold for less then three guineas the English ell, but he would only charge three pounds and furnish the Drawings, a considerable part of the expense, and to finish them in less then four years. And as the whole was to be of the produce and manufacture of Ireland he had been already at considerable expense in bringing over artists.

Eventually only two pieces were ordered, being the Relief of Derry and the Victory at the Boyne, and the contents of the Tapestry being on 22 May, 1735, certified by J. P. Lingen to contain 145 square ells, Flemish, of three fourths a yard per ell, amounting to £436 6*s.* 3*d.*, which was then paid to him.

But Mr. Baillie complained of great hardship. Being under the persuasion that the six pieces would be adopted he employed Mr. Van der Hagin to take prospects of the places indicated, but after waiting for two years for the dimensions of the six pieces of Tapestry, and sending over to England and to Flanders for drawings and workmen, and particularly for famous face makers, only two pieces were ordered in the year 1730, leaving him no profit.

The work of this Department during the past year comprised, as already stated :—

I.

The Classification in Cartons, and the indexing of the unregistered "Miscellaneous Papers" of the years 1848 to 1856 inclusive. Papers occupying 81 Cartons.

II.

Index of Petitions, and other papers connected therewith, from Nos. 5256 to 5691. The Index A to J has been transcribed into one large volume, just transferred with the collection to the Public Record Office.

III.

References from the Chief Secretary's Office for the production of documents have been numerous and have occupied considerable time.

IV.

The transcription of the Indexes made to the Volumes of Entries has been completed. These volumes embrace the Excise Accounts, 1658 to 1662 $\frac{A}{18}$; Wool Licences, 1699; Passes of Ships, 1677 $\frac{A}{75}$: Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council, 1682–1688 $\frac{A}{107}$; Domestic Letters, Lord Lieutenant and Council, 1667 to 1689 $\frac{A}{104}$ and $\frac{A}{105}$; Addresses to the King, 1682–1685 $\frac{A}{106}$.

A few notes will explain some of these headings :—

Excise Accounts.
1st May, 1658–24th June, 1660, and 24th June, 1660–24th June, 1662.

By the title-page or table of contents, it would seem that these accounts of Excise on brandy, salt, tobacco, French and Spanish wines imported, with the Customs of goods exported, were made for the purpose of comparing the amounts, "Before the farm," in the time of the farm, and since the farm of these Revenues. The amounts collected at the several seaports is given.

Addresses to the King.

1682–1685.

These are loyal addresses from cities, counties, and boroughs, Grand Juries, and other bodies. The names of the subscribers being preserved these addresses have some historic interest.

Domestic Correspondence.

1st, Two volumes, A.D., 1667–1678.
2nd, „ A.D., 1678–1689.

The correspondence is, for the most part, formal, consisting of letters from the Lord Lieutenant and Council forwarding Proclamations to the Sheriffs of counties and Mayors of towns, with orders for posting them throughout the counties and towns. Orders from the same for distributing arms out of the stores for the Militia, or corn and meal to the garrisons, addressed to the Presidents of Munster and Connaught, and other storekeepers. There are occasionally orders concerning matters of greater interest.

On the 8th October, 1669, the Lord Lieutenant and Council issued the following order concerning records taken from Bermingham Tower, addressed to the several Sheriffs and Mayors.

After Our hearty commendations: We have caused a Proclamation to be lately imprinted dated 1st Octr. 1669 concerning the bringing in and delivering to his Majesty's Attorney General such Records as have been embezzled and taken out of the Tower called Bermingham Tower in H. M's. Castle of Dublin of which Proclamation we send you herewith a certain number to post at the Markets and other Public Places. Dated from the Council Chamber in Dublin the 8th Octr. 1669 (signed) J. Roberts, Ja: Armachanus, Michael Dublin, Canc.; Roscommon, Donegall, Arran, Shannon, Fitzharding, Charlemont, Fran: Aungier, A. Corke, Santey, Rich. Jones, To: Bysse, Jo: Temple, G. Lane.

There is another order concerning the preservation of the Records of the Presidency Court of Munster, and it is much to be regretted that it was either without effect, or more probably these records, so valuable for historical and genealogical purposes, were duly removed to Dublin and perished in the destructive fire of the 15th April, 1711, when such a vast body of records of the highest value perished. The following is the order addressed to the Earl of Orrery, President for life of Munster, dated 23rd June, 1673.

Whereas His Majesty hath been pleased that the Provincial Court of Munster and all officers of the same be ceased and determined. And we receiving information that it is of great concernment to many of His Majesty's subjects that the pleadings and proceedings formerly had in that court, and which came into the hands of the late Clerk of the Council there, or other officers of the said court, should be carefully preserved. We have thought fit at this Board that for the security and advantage of H. M's subjects in that particular, the said pleadings and proceedings of the said court, and all writings relating thereto, be removed to some desirable place in Dublin, that such of H. M's subjects as shall have occasion to make use thereof may have access thereto.

From the Council Chamber in Dublin, the 23rd of June, 1673 (signed)—Essex–Ja: Armagh, Michael Dublin, Chan. Barrgmore, Conway and Killata, Massareene, Hen. Miders, Fran. Aungier, Hugh Glenawly, Ro. Booth, J. Bysshe, J. Temple, Hen. Ingoldsby, Hans. Hamilton, Geo. Rawden, Theo. Jones, Chas. Meredyth.

The following letter brings to view the state of the Quakers: "On the 30th of May, 1670, the Lord Lieutenant and Council are informed that John Hall, Thos. Wight, John Workman, and several other persons, commonly called Quakers, are committed close prisoners at the Jail of Cork, and not admitted to go out with keepers, and that divers of them, by the directions of the Mayor of Cork, denied the use of their working tools, whereby, though in prison, they might work for their living. The Council Board accordingly directs that they be admitted to bail on condition of appearing at the next Assizes." In 1673 the Custom House stood on the south side of the river just below Essex Bridge. On 6th June, 1673, the Earl of Essex being Lord Lieutenant, and he and the Council considering that a highway should be made from the Custom House through Alderman Lovett's garden, informed the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and citizens, that on consultation with Alderman Lovett and others interested in the garden, they are willing to grant the ground for the purpose, but that the reversion is in the Corporation. They accordingly urge the Corporation to open the project with all diligence. On 1st June, 1670, Lord Berkeley (Lord Lieutenant) and the Council having received letters from Viscount Charlemont suggesting that we be allowed to accept the undertaking of Captain Ferlagh, M'Shane oge O'Neill to clear both Ulster and Connaught of all the Tories, and to kill, take, or drive them out of the country, provided we have the aid of his three sons, Neil, Con, and Owen, and if his two nephews, Brian O'Cahan and Shane O'Neil, be recalled from banishment for his aid, the Council decline to recall his sons and nephews, as they conceive that Captain O'Neil and his relations might, if they pleased, without their aid, effect that work, but promise if he effects it before the 1st August next following, he shall receive the rewards held forth in the Proclamation of the 29th of April last, and they will then give order for licensing the said Neil O'Neile, Con O'Neile, Owen O'Neile, his sons, and Brian O'Cahon and Shane O'Neile, his nephews, to return into this kingdom; and if after their return the Lord Lieutenant and Council should find that they performed good services against such of the Tories as should remain, that they should receive the King's pardon for all former offences.

On 29th March, 1670, Viscount Charlemont is authorized to parley with Rory M'Donnell, Fardorough M'Donnell, and Shane Magrath, and to signify to them that if they shall give security to depart the kingdom within three months, and not to return without special licence, the Lord Charlemont may give them protection during those three months.

In connection with this subject there is the following letter, 22nd December, 1669, of the Lord Lieutenant, Justices, and Council, to the Lord Viscount Dungannon, Governor of Ulster: It requires him to ascertain and certify to the Board whether the walls of Castledoe Castle, in the county of Donegal, are of sufficient strength to resist the Tories, and whether the placing of Captain William Dutton as commander of Castledoe, with the pay of a lieutenant, with a sergeant, corporal, drummer, and 24 men, to be inserted in the establishment, might be a means to prevent the spoils of the British in those parts.

On the 8th March, 1674–5, the Earl of Essex, Lord Lieutenant, and the Council address the Archbishops of Armagh and Dublin, of Tuam and Cashel, urging them to promote a collection within the dioceses of their several provinces for the relief of the miserable condition of several of His Majesty's subjects of the Kingdom of Ireland in captivity and slavery under the Turks in Tunis, Gallee, and Fez. The Lord Lieutenant and Council have subscribed several sums for their redemption.

THE EIGHTEENTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS IN IRELAND,

TO THE RIGHT HON. JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. The principal proceeding varying the usual routine of this Office, during the year 1885, has been the partial application by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of the powers conferred by section 5 of the "Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867," to Records hitherto in the charge and custody of Clerks of the Crown and of the Peace.

Proceedings under s. 5 of the Act.

2. By an order of the Lord Lieutenant with the consent of the Privy Council, dated 5th January, 1885, all the Records which had been deposited for more than twenty years in the respective offices of the Clerks of the Crown and of the Peace for the County and City of Dublin at the Sessions House, Green-street, were put under the charge of the Master of the Rolls, and directed to be transferred to this Office.

Attaching Records of Clerks of Crown and Peace, County and City of Dublin.

Appendix I.

3. This proceeding was moved by the recently appointed Clerk of the Crown, who had found a great and inconvenient accumulation of Records as well in his own offices as in those of the Clerk of the Peace. These collections had already, 7th March, 1883, been inspected in anticipation of the then proposed structural changes at the Sessions House. On that occasion twelve very large locked boxes in the basement, supposed to contain Records, had been noticed, but the inspection being only permissive, and the custody of the keys unknown, the nature of the contents was not ascertained.

Collections at Green-street Court House.

Inspected 7th March, 1883.

4. Between the date of the order and the issue of the warrants for removal early in April, 1885, the above-mentioned boxes were forced open, and a large quantity of paper and parchment Records was stolen from them, and disposed of to dealers in Dublin and Glasgow. Owing to the effective exertions of the Detective Department of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, the whole of the abstracted property, exceeding 40 cwts., has been recovered, and is found to consist almost wholly of the records of the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs' Court of the City of Dublin, formerly held at the Tholsel. At the time of the Report grounding the Municipal Corporations (Ireland) Act, 1840, this was the popular court for civil proceedings in the City of Dublin, and in its forms and course of pleading observed to a certain extent the practice of the superior courts. A large proportion of the parchment instruments recovered is in Latin, engrossed in court hand, and the early jury panels are interesting, as preserving the names, occupations, and addresses of citizens of Dublin in the 17th, and perhaps the 16th, centuries; but the process of separating the parchments from the accompanying paper writings on the same files, for manufacturing purposes, had proceeded too far, before the recovery of the property, to admit of any complete series being now formed.

Their recovery.

The Green-street collections.

Office of Clerk of the Crown.

5. Besides these records of the City Court, not yet reduced to order, the entire collection as now removed from Green-street consists of (1) from the offices of the Clerk of the Crown.

General collections of Clerks of the Crown and Peace.

11. The above-mentioned proceedings in reference to the local records in the custody of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for Dublin, induced attention to the collections of a like nature throughout the country. Returns had been made to the former Record Commissioners for Ireland, showing the state of the several collections in 1812. With the approval of the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, a set of queries was prepared, founded on these returns, and a circular requesting answers to the queries was forwarded to the several Clerks of the Crown and Peace throughout Ireland. The queries were framed (1) to ascertain how far the Records up to 1812 are now forthcoming; (2) like Testamentary Records. Prerogative.

20. Thirty-nine bundles of Administration Bonds, 1832–1846, and 96 bundles of Commissions, 1847–1857, under which are preserved the Bonds for those dates, all of the Prerogative Court, have been flattened and put into dictionary order under their years; and 95 bundles of Miscellaneous Records of the same Court, have been flattened. Administration Bonds of the Consistorial Court of Dublin, 1792–1858, 94 bundles, have been put into dictionary order under their years. Thirty-three bundles of Records of the Diocese of Armagh, 6 bundles of Cloyne, 12 of Clogher, 20 of Down, 6 of Drogheda, and 79 bundles of Records from the Hanaper Office, have been flattened. The Equity Exchequer Cause Papers have been placed in 206 zinc boxes, and 60 Incumbrance Rolls have been covered with dust covers.

Indexing and Calendaring.

Seventeenth Report, s. 19. Dublin Grant Books.

21. The Draft Indexes to the Grant Books of the Dublin Consistorial Court have been continued for the following volumes: 1710–1749, 1823–1827, 1828–1835, 1835–1845, 1845–1852, and 1852–1858.

Receivers' Accounts.

22. An Index has been formed to the unbound Receivers' and Guardians' Accounts of Chancery, filed prior to April, 1843, under their initial letters in each year. This contains 486 pages. Many of the Accounts have more titles than one, so that it has been deemed necessary to form, also, a Cross Index to the second or other titles besides the first. This is in dictionary order, and refers to the whole series, irrespective of the dates of the Accounts. It contains 182 pages.

Sixteenth Report, s. 22. Chancery Petitions.

23. The Index to the unbound Chancery Petitions previous to April, 1843, has been continued and completed. It contains in all five volumes, and 2,690 pages, and covers the period from 1667 to 12th April, 1843. A cross reference Index, similar to that mentioned in the preceding paragraph, is in process of formation.

Prerogative Wills.

24. An Index in dictionary order has been made to the Wills of the Prerogative Court for the period from 1810 to 11th January, 1858. This comprises two volumes and 1,300 pages; and, with that made by the late Record Commissioners of Prerogative Wills from 1536–1810, forms a complete Index down to the 11th January, 1858, when the Probate Act of 20 and 21 Victoria, chapter 79, came into force. This Department has now completed Indexes in dictionary order to all the Wills proved in Ireland, under the former Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, down to the year 1858.

Administration Bonds.

25. The Administration Bonds have been put together in one series under their respective dioceses. They have been all gone over, carefully checked as to their being in dictionary order under their years, and divided into convenient bundles, with the object of having them placed in portfolios. This arrangement will preserve them from dust and permit of easy reference. It is intended to index them, as they form a valuable source of information in cases where Grant Books have not been kept or are not in existence. With this object Draft Indexes have been made to those of Clogher, Clonfert, Derry, Dromore, Down, and Connor.

26. A general Index has been formed to the Lunacy Cause Papers to April, 1843, and continued from that date to the Petitions in Lunacy, to 14th April, 1863, the latest date up to which they have been deposited. Seventeenth Report, s. 21. Lunacy Cause Papers.

27. An Index has been formed to a volume of Statements made by French Military Pensioners in 1702, and to certain Declarations made by them in 1713. These were transferred amongst the Custom House Records in a parcel entitled "Military and Civil Establishments Books" (6 G–8–14). I have placed a Memorandum relating to them, made by Mr. LaTouche, in the Appendix. French Military Pensioners. Appendix V.

28. The Calendar to the Fiants of the reign of Elizabeth has been completed at Fiant 6792. Nineteen Fiants of the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., and Philip and Mary, which had been found during the arrangement of those of Elizabeth have been added. An Index to this important Calendar is in process of formation. Seventeenth Report, s. 25. Fiants. Appendix VI.

29. In the Bookbinding and Repairing Department, 6 volumes of Parochial Registers have been rebound, and 12 miscellaneous volumes bound, 15 membranes of Fiants, 178 Bonds, 9 Wills, and 43 Rolls have been repaired. Seventeenth Report, s. 26 Bookbinding.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts, 38 and 39 Vic., cap. 59, and 39 and 40 Vic., cap. 58.

30. During the year 1885, the Records of one parish, which had previously been in this custody, were returned to their place of local deposit, a safe having been there provided, under Retention Order. Records returned.

31. The Records of nine parishes which had become attachable, but for which safes had been provided, were allowed to remain in the local custody, under like Orders. Records retained.

32. And the Records of nine parishes, having become attachable by cesser of the Incumbencies, and being unprovided with safes, were transferred to this office. Records brought up.

33. In my Fourteenth Report (Appendix III.), was published a General Table, showing the then distribution of the Parochial Records, viz., those still in local custodies, as not yet attachable, or as retained or returned by virtue of Retention Orders, and those deposited in this office. Since then, numerous changes have taken place by cesser of Incumbencies, and removal of accruing Records, as well as by return of Records to the former custody, where safes have been provided, subsequently to removal. General Table, Fourteenth Report.

34. In my Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Reports, the materials have been supplied for correcting the General Table up to the respective dates. The changes are now so considerable that the correction of the Table, by adding and expunging the respective items, is a work of some difficulty to the inquirer, who would know whether he should look for a particular entry in this office or in the country. I have, therefore, thought it better to reprint the General List corrected up to date in the Appendix. I beg leave to state, as I have often had occasion to Reprinted. Appendix VII.

Inconveniences of present arrangement. Sixteenth Report, s. 32.

state in former Reports, that this divided and fluctuating custody is attended with public inconvenience; somewhat more than one-half of the Parochial Records being deposited here, while the remainder have to be sought for throughout scattered parishes in every part of the country, without any assurance of their distribution remaining settled for any given time.

Application for Copy of Parochial Register.

35. An application by an Incumbent, who had not procured a safe, for liberty to copy an entire Parochial Register in this custody, having been made to the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, His Honor was pleased to decline giving permission, on the ground of the inconvenience of a precedent which, if generally followed, might lead hereafter to confusion in the sources of evidence.

36. The Fees during the last year again exhibit a slight falling off. The Remissions noted are in respect of certified copies furnished to Public Departments.

Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX.

Appendix I.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland.

PENCER.

Whereas, by section 5 of "The Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867," is provided that it should be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with ıe advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to order that Records elonging to Her Majesty, deposited in any office, court, place, or ıstody in Ireland, other than is thereinbefore mentioned, should be ıenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the olls; and thereupon, the provisions of that Act should extend to all ıch Records, and to the persons then having the charge or custody of ıe same, as fully as if such office, court, place, or custody, had been amed and included in that Act.

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by the Clerk of the rown for the County and City of Dublin, that there are at present eposited in his office, in the Sessions House, Green-street, in the county the city of Dublin, Records belonging to Her Majesty, which have ccumulated for nearly a century; and that the said office does not afford ıe accommodation for the same, or for their proper arrangement and fe preservation, and that, consequently, the said Records are liable to ffer damage and loss.

And whereas it appears to Us necessary and desirable to provide for ıe safe custody and proper arrangement of the aforesaid Records, as so of Records deposited in the office of the respective Clerks of the eace for the County and City of Dublin; and of other similar ecords which may be from time to time deposited in the said respective fices of the said clerks, or of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the ounty, or for the City, or for the County and City of Dublin.

Now We, John Poyntz Earl Spencer, the Lord Lieutenant-General ıd General Governor of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy ouncil in Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us as afore-ıid, do hereby order that all Records, as defined by section 3 of the oresaid Act, belonging to Her Majesty, and which have been for over venty years deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Crown for the ounty and City of Dublin, or in the respective offices of the Clerks of ıe Peace for the County or for the City of Dublin, shall be henceforth ıder the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls. And e do hereby further, by and with the advice aforesaid, order that all ecords defined as aforesaid, which have been deposited in any of the ıid offices within the last twenty years, or which shall hereafter be eposited therein, or in the respective offices of the Clerk of the Crown ıd Peace for the County, or for the City, or for the County and City Dublin, shall, so soon as same shall have been deposited for over twenty years, be from thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX II.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS.—THE EIGHTEENTH REPORT OF SIR BERNARD BURKE, C.B., Ulster King of Arms, Keeper of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, dated 1st February, 1886.

SIR,—Since my last Report the arrangement and classification of the "Miscellaneous Papers," 1821–1872, have been perfected, and the documents of the outstanding years, 1844, 1845, 1846, and 1847, indexed.

During the progress of this classification a vast number of misplaced documents were discovered—documents which year by year had been taken out of their proper order, for Governmental or Parliamentary purposes, but had not been replaced. Thus arose an accumulation of unsorted papers which had to be gone through, document by document, whenever an exhaustive search was required. The want of an index to these unregistered documents, which are oftimes of great value, caused constant difficulties in answering demands for information. This replacement has been very tedious and laborious. One hundred and eleven cartons' full of these documents have been indexed during the past year. For instance, the result of one year's (1848) collection of misplaced and unregistered papers shows a mass of papers now filling twenty-four cartons, each carton, be it remembered, containing about 150 separate documents. By careful sorting of each year these documents are now brought together for ready reference. The period to which these papers refer is a very interesting one. The series includes all subjects with which the Executive Government was engaged, affording a great deal of public and private information on appointments, Public Accounts, Board of Works, Circuits, Concordatum, Constabulary, Assizes, Quarter and Petty Sessions, Bills before Parliament, Distress, Crown Prosecutions, Cattle Plague, Crime, Education, Queen's Colleges, Ecclesiastical affairs, Convicts, Schools, Navigation, Harbours, and, in fact, on all subjects with which the Government had any concern or correspondence about.

The index to the Petitions—from which collection I have given some extracts in my last Report, has been continued from No. 5,692 to 6076. This brings the index down to Le.

There is next, a series of books, five in number, viz.:—A 36, A 54, A 55, A 98, and A 99, entitled "Kilkenny Confederates Records." This series concerns the period embraced between 23rd August, 1644, and 29th August, 1649, and forms part of the Records of the Kilkenny Confederates' Government. Some of the books were discovered at Waterford—others in the City of Kilkenny, by Colonel Solomon Richards, one of Cromwell's officers, in the month of January, 1654. The series comprised the Roll of Association, with the names and signatures of the members of the General Assembly. The books of the Supreme Council, with all the entries of appointments to office, and other entries. They were all carefully catalogued and indexed by the order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Ireland, and were then sent to Athlone, and there used at the Court of Transplantation to "discriminate" the conduct of the various proprietors who were compelled to appear before the Court to receive, according to their demerits in Connaught, equivalents for their former confiscated estates. They were called the Books of Discrimination. These books were afterward used at the Court of Claims, set up at Kings Inns at the Restoration lasting from 1662 to 1669, to check the claims of the Irish to Innocence for an Innocent was entitled to immediate restoration of his estate From having been used at Athlone, the Books got the names familiarly of "the Black Books," or "the Black Books of Athlone." The five volumes in question do not comprise the Roll of Association, or the other more important entry books. They contain the original signatures of some of the Judges and Ministers of the Civil Courts for Administration of Justice, especially the volume conventionally marked "A 54," with a panel or leather label entitling the volume, "Kilkenny Confederates—Orders on Process 1644–1649." The entries in all five volumes concern principally the Revenue. But there are a few Decrees in A 54, of a more general nature. The following is historical concerning the Castle-Comer district, in the barony of Idoagh or Odough, in the County of Kilkenny, once the property and abode of the Brennans; but afterwards found by Inquisition of 21 May, 1635, to be vested in the Crown, and granted by patent of Charles I., to Christopher Wandesford, the friend and follower of the Earl of Strafford, whose beheading at Tower Hill, in May, 1641, caused Wandesford's death through grief the October following. Wandesford had been previously appointed Deputy. It appears by the Report of Sir Richard Levinge, Attorney-General in 1694, made on the petition of Sir Christopher Wandesford, Bart., grandson of the Deputy, that his grandfather, by his will, dated 24th September, 1640, left his estate in Ireland to John (Bramhall), Bishop of Derry, and others trustees, out of the rents, to provide for all such of the Brennans as should by Inquiry out of Chancery be found to have been possessed of any interest in the lands. The war of 1641 breaking out, however, the year after the date of the will, nothing was done. But in 1674, twenty of the Brennans filed a Bill in Chancery, claiming under the trusts of Deputy Wandesford's will against the petitioner's father, Sir Christopher, and they got a Decree to account in 1686; but the war of the Revolution intervening in 1690, nothing effectual was done by or for the Brennans. And the Brennans of Idough being indicted of High Treason in 1690, and outlawed, it was suggested that they had lost all claim—and it was so ruled.

The following is the entry referred to :—

Ellen Purcell, Plaintiff; Richard Butler, Captain Edward Brenan, and others, Defendants.	15 July, 1644. Upon full hearing of this cause in presence of both parties, Pltff. and Defts., and their Learned Counsel, it appeared unto us, by general proofs and witnesses and evidences, that the lands in the petition mentioned was in the possession of Pltff. before the King was entitled thereinto upon pretence of an use for life, limited unto her thereof by her husband, William Purcell, and that she was in possession thereof until dispossessed by Christopher Wandesforde, late Lo. Deputy of the Kingdom, and that soon after the beginning of this present warre she hath entered thereinto, and continued thereof possessed until dispossessed by the Defts., and that she had contributed towards the gaining of the fort in the Bill mentioned from the garrison of the adverse party therein, notwithstanding all which, and that the Defendants made good no right thereunto, only alledged that Pltff. received satisfaction for the same from the said Lord Deputie. Yet we, conceiving the same to belong unto the publique, being the late possession of the late Lord Deputie (who was supposed to be of the adverse partie), we would make no order therein until some generall course were prescribed therein by the Generall Assembly or Supreme Councell, which we thought fitt to certify.

(Signed), PETER ROTHE.
GEORGE GREENE.

It will be observed that there was a suggestion made by the Defendants that the plaintiff, Ellen Purcell, had received satisfaction for her lands from the Lord Deputie, evidently showing, even before his death, he had satisfied some of the dispossessed Brennans, as indeed may be implied from the terms of his will. It adds to the interest of these books to find memoranda on pieces of loose paper pinned to the pages or attached by wafers.

A 54 contains Orders on Process to compel the appearance and answer of the parties Defendants to suits commenced at law by bill. Much of the business concerned the regulating of Assessments.

The other four volumes, marked respectively A 36, A 55, A 98, and A 99, concern the assessment, applotment, and levy of taxes and arrears. In volume A 55, entitled "Kilkenny Confederates—Assessments and Assignments, 1648–1649," at p. 28 the following entry occurs.

The Humble Petition of the Poore Tenants of the Abbey of Kells and Black Rathe.

To the Right Worshipful the Resident Commissioners of the County of Kilkenny.

Humbly Showeth unto your worships that your poore Petitioners are tenants unto James Butler of Dangin, from yeare to yeare at the fouth sheafe and other casualties, and that they have paide their last yeare's rent thereout, and that now they are charged with the fourth part which they humbly conceive is due of the said James who utterly refuseth to pay the same, by means whereof the collectors of the fourth part have cessed troopers on your petitioners as delinquents to their utter undoeing, if not by your wisdome soon relieved: the premises considered, and forasmuch as they are lyable to all the cesse and presse without any contribution from their said landlord, That your worships may be pleased to compel their said Landlord to pay the same, or if you thinke (fit) to direct your warrant unto the said collectors to cesse the said troopers on him whereby your petitioners may not be further molested. And they shall ever pray.

By the Commissioners for the Army of the Countie of Kilkenny.

Kilkenny, 17th July, 1645.

Wee require the abovenamed James Butler to appear personally before us to-morrow morning, and to make answere to this Petition.

(Signed), He. CANTWELL,
C. BRYAN.

MOUNTGARRETT.

A 98 is entitled "Kilkenny Confederates Arrears of Assessments, 1645–1649."

A 99 is endorsed (on a panel), "Kilkenny Confederates Arrears of Assessments, 1645–1647," but seems to be accounts between the Treasury and the different Collectors of Revenue.

This book is full of loose slips of paper between several of the pages attached by wafers containing notes of accounts.

At p. 44 of this volume, A 99, there are other accounts thus :—

See Richd. Netterville's Certificate. The officers to be paid and have quarter from 9th Nov., by order of Provinciall Assembly of 25th, 1645, to be allowed out of the publique dues.	1645, Dec. Col. And for himself, the Ensign and two Serjeants, two Corporals, and a Drummer, for their entertainment for a weeke ended 27th Decemb., ...	15 15 6

There are six more entries of the like nature on the same page.

At page 71 of this volume, A 99, are the accounts of Corporations thus :—

1645, March 18th.—Corporation of Callan,

Edwd. Neales, Suffraine, of Callen, oweth per order of this date out of the said Corporation the summe of, . . .	£14 15 4

He is to have 4d. in the pound for as much as he shall bring in on or before the 1st of April, 1646.

Corporation of Gowran.

RECEPTION OF STATE PAPERS.

The current Papers of the years 1873 and 1874 were transmitted from the Chief Secretary's Office to this Department, 31st March, 1885. They are contained in eighty-eight tin boxes, and are numbered, the year 1873, from 1 to 17364; and the year 1874 from 1 to 18090. They are accompanied by two Index books and four Registers. I will have these papers placed in cartons during the present year.

The inquiries and searches from Government have been numerous, and have occupied much time during the past year.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your very obedient servant,

J. BERNARD BURKE, Ulster,
Keeper of the State Papers.

Record Tower, Dublin Castle,
1st February, 1886.

APPENDIX III.

30 & 31 VIC., c. 70.

Public Record Office of Ireland, of 188

SIR,—By direction of the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls, I transmit the enclosed Queries for the information of His Honor respecting the Records of the office of Clerk of the for the of .

These Queries are sent in duplicate, one Form for return to this office, with your answers, the other for retention.

As an assistance in referring to the earlier Records in your custody, I also enclose a Schedule showing the several classes of such Records which were in the custody of your predecessor in office in 1812. I annex copies of such sections of the Act as have a more immediate bearing on the present business. You will observe from these (sec. 5) that all the Records of your office may, by order of the Lord Lieutenant, with the advice of the Privy Council, be placed under His Honor's charge and superintendence, and dealt with as the other Records enumerated in sec. 4 of the Act.

Having regard to these provisions, and with a view to determining on the expediency of bringing the matter under the consideration of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant and the Privy Council, His Honor will be obliged by your affording the information sought for by the Queries, and I have to request that at your earliest convenience, and so far as in your power, you will be good enough to afford it.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

(Signed), SAMUEL FERGUSON.

To the Clerk of the for .

QUERIES.

1. To what extent are the Records which appear by the accompanying Schedule to have been in the custody of your predecessor in office in 1812 now forthcoming?

2. What Records belonging to your office of date subsequent to 1812 are now in your custody?

3. Where are said Records kept, and in what state of arrangement are they?

4. Is there any Index to said Records?

5. State the approximate bulk of said Records by number of cubic feet and their approximate weight.

30 & 31. VIC., c. 70.

S. 4. [Enumerates the several Record collections thereby put under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls for transfer to the Public Record Office.]

S. 5.—It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to order that Records belonging to Her Majesty deposited in any office, court, or place, or custody in Ireland, other than is hereinbefore mentioned, shall be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall extend to all such Records, and to the persons then having the charge or custody of the same, as fully as if such office, court, place or custody had been named and included in this Act.

S. 7.—All Keepers of Records and persons deriving emolument from any office to which the custody of Records is attached, or from fees for searching or copying Records, by virtue of any office holden by them or any of them before or at the passing of this Act, whose office, profits, or emoluments shall in anywise be affected by the passing of this Act, may deliver to the Master of the Rolls a statement in writing of any losses they may thereby sustain, or of the manner in which they may be thereby affected, and the Master of the Rolls shall have power thereupon to examine the parties and such other persons as he may think fit, and shall report such statements and the result of such examinations, with his opinion thereon, to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, who may award such compensation to the said Record Keepers and officers as they may think fit, and the payment of any such compensation shall be taken to be an expense incurred for the purposes of this Act. Provided always that account shall be taken of such compensation in any salary or emolument to which any person to whom the same shall be awarded may become entitled in virtue of any appointment in the Public Record Office or elsewhere in Her Majesty's service: Provided also that every person of less than forty years' service, who shall receive any compensation under this Act, shall, if appointed, take upon himself the office of Deputy Keeper or any other office of not less emolument than he has already received, without prejudice nevertheless to his right to compensation under this Act, if afterwards removed from the said office for any cause other than for misbehaviour.

S. 14.—After the passing of this Act the Records of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, and of every court or public office in Ireland shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Master of the Rolls, under the authority of this Act, and subject to the Regulations hereby authorized to be made; and the Master of the Rolls shall, by warrant under his hand, from time to time appoint a fit person or fit persons to attend all public courts and offices in Ireland, and in his name to receive and take charge of all other Records of which the charge and superintendence are hereby vested in him; and the Chief Judge of the court, or principal officer of the office to which the same shall belong, upon sight of the warrant of the person thereby appointed to take charge of the Records then to be delivered from that court or office into the custody of the Master of the Rolls, shall give the necessary orders to the proper officer or officers of his court or office for the delivery thereof; and as soon as the said Records shall have been so delivered to the person so appointed to receive the same, in pursuance of such warrant, the same shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Master of the Rolls, and shall forthwith be removed to and deposited in the Public Record Office, and shall be subject to the Regulations hereby authorized to be made, &c.

Appendix IV.

Summary of Returns made by Twenty-seven Clerks of the Crown in Ireland in Answer to the Queries addressed to them.

1. With regard to the first query, out of twenty-seven returns, seven only mention that all the Records which were in their respective offices previous to 1812 are now forthcoming, while in two cases none are to be found. The remaining eighteen answers state that these Records are extant to a certain extent, but not complete. In one case the writer mentions that they are crumbling from decay.

2. The Records of date subsequent to 1812 appear to correspond in their main features with those of earlier date. In the twenty-seven returns under notice, "Crown Books" are mentioned by all; "Indictments, Inquests, Informations, and Recognizances," by all but one, and "Presentments, Quere Books, &c.," by all but two; twenty custodians have "Precepts for holding Assizes, Panels of Jurors, and Findings," while "Capias Books" are in the possession of ten only; eleven mention "Affidavits relative to Crown business," and seven "Treasurer's Accounts." The foregoing are the principal classes, but in one or two instances, many more are catalogued, among which may be mentioned Civil Bill Books, Militia Returns, Maps and Leases, Register of Roman Catholics, Appointment of Officers, Chief Remembrancer's Accounts, Local Government Board Audits, Circular Letters, Freeholders' Returns, Orders for Witnesses' Expenses, Grand Jury Awards, Certificates of Payment, Applications for Contracts, Auditors' Accounts, Notices for Special Juries, License Books, Register of Voters, Register of Trees, Coroners' Papers, Acts of Parliament, Returns of Members of Parliament, and other such documents. In seven cases Records are mentioned as being unarranged, and their titles unascertained. In all the principal classes the dates appear to be consecutive from 1812 to the present time, or very nearly so.

3. In every case the Records appear to be stored in the offices of the Clerk of the Crown. In a few instances a portion of the documents have been preserved elsewhere; in one case in a room in the gaol (co. Donegal), in another (co. Meath), in a room "not adjoining office." Only one report (co. Down) mentions a fire-proof room. A majority of the collections are kept in wooden presses; and one report refers to the danger of destruction by fire.

In sixteen offices there appears to have been a certain amount of arrangement, though not perfect. The classification appears to be generally according to date, year by year. In six cases there is no order preserved, and in the other five cases the query is ignored.

4. In no case do the Records appear to be completely indexed. The Crown Books for the counties of Galway and Monaghan are mentioned as having been indexed, and the reply from co. Kerry states that there are a "few small indexes." In the remaining twenty-four replies it is intimated that there are absolutely no indexes.

5. The replies which have been received from twenty-five Clerks of the Crown estimate the weight of their Records to be 39 tons 17 cwt. 2 stone. Striking an average by which to gauge the weight of the Records in those offices from which no return has been received, the total weight of the Records appears to be over 57 tons.

The total bulk of the Records in twenty repositories is 4,865 cubic feet. Pursuing the same plan as before, the entire bulk of the Records amounts to 8,757 cubic feet.

Summary of Returns made by Twenty-seven Clerks of the Peace in Ireland, in Answer to the Queries addressed to them.

1. Nine returns only give their Records as complete, while in fifteen cases they are incomplete, and in the remaining three are not forthcoming. Complaints are made that the documents cannot be checked owing to confused arrangement, and one return states that a former Clerk of the Peace never surrendered the Records in his charge to his successor. In three cases, documents were wholly or partially destroyed by fire, and one return mentions that many of the older worthless Records were sold as waste paper.

2. In six cases the answers to this query are too vague for analysis. The annexed list will show the principal classes of Records which are in the custody of the remaining twenty-one Clerks of the Peace :—

		Mentioned
1.	Crown Books,	21 times.
2.	Informations, Recognizances, Indictments, and Issues; and Books of Entry of the above,	20 "
3.	Civil Bill Books, Renewal Books, and Affidavits for Renewal of Decrees, and Recognizances on Appeals,	18 "
4.	Freeholders' Names, Registry of Freeholders under Election Acts, and Affidavits relating thereto,	18 "
5.	The Poll Books of Elections for Members of Parliament,	5 "
6.	Names of persons to be ballotted for in Militia, Militia Commissions, and Militia Certificates of Qualification; and the Oaths relating thereto,	3 "
7.	Registry of Trees and Planting, Affidavits relating thereto, and Entries thereof,	16 "
8.	Spirit Licences and Bonds thereon, Certificates relating thereto, and Convictions under Spirit Licence Acts,	16 "
9.	Affidavits of persons requiring Licences to keep Arms, and Registry of such Licences,	10 "
10.	Bakers' Registry,	— "
11.	Registry of Smiths' Forges and Manufactories,	1 "
12.	Certificates to sell Gunpowder,	— "
13.	Grants of Manors and Manor Courts,	2 "
14.	Commissions of Justices of the Peace,	6 "
15.	Names and Certificates of Qualification of Deputy Governors of Counties, and their Commissions,	4 "
16.	Qualifications for Offices and Employments, and Certificates of having received the Sacrament,	4 "
17.	Rolls of Catholic Qualifications, and Entries thereof,	2 "
18.	Lists of Sessions, Grand Juries, Presentments by them, and Affidavits for Presentments,	11 "
19.	Panels and Verdicts of Petit Juries,	8 "
20.	Affidavits relating to Turnpike Roads, Accounts of their Treasurers, and Contracts respecting them,	— "

		Mentioned.
21.	Plans, Maps, Leases, Registry of Leases, and Indentures of Apprenticeship,	14 times.
22.	Affidavits and Papers relating to Insolvent Debtors who have been discharged at Sessions,	3 ,,
23.	Pawnbrokers' Bonds, and Writs of Supersedeas,	3 ,,
24.	Enrolments of Judgments of Prisoners under Sentence, and Pardons,	1 ,,
25.	List of persons sworn into Office of Constable, and sums paid by them,	2 ,,
	Papers relating to Canals, Railways, &c.,	10 ,,
	Ejectment Books,	9 ,,
	Books and Papers relating to Elections,	12 ,,
	Papers relating to Fisheries,	2 ,,

There are also a number of other Records such as—

Census Books, Legacy and Replevin Books, Land Claim Books, Books and Documents re Tithe Composition, Commissions for holding Assizes, Griffith's Valuation Books, Sheepstealing Returns, Transportation Returns, Contracts, Acts of Parliament, Certificates of Payment, Appeal Books, Rules and Accounts of various societies (e.g., Savings Bank, Loan Fund, &c.).

Recent legislation has caused the following Records to appear in the returns :—

Equity Civil Bill Books, Equity Minute Books, Claims and Disputes under Land Act, 1870, Civil Bill Case Book (Land Act, 1880), Abstracts of Bills of Sale.

3. In every case the Records appear to be stored in the Peace Office. In two instances a portion of the more recent ones are kept in the private office of the Clerk of the Peace, away from the Courthouse. One return mentions that some of the documents are preserved in a "room in the gaol," and another in a "room not adjoining office."

In nine cases the arrangement seems good, in twelve indifferent, and in two distinctly bad. Four returns make no allusion to it.

4. In only one case (co. Kildare) is there an Index to the Records. In the other twenty-six returns no perfect Indexes are referred to, though in three instances some of the documents appear to be indexed, and in a fourth there is a sort of catalogue of the contents of the several presses. Certain returns mention that the papers are so endorsed and arranged as to be very easily referred to.

5. The total weight of the Records in those offices of Clerks of the Peace from which returns have been received, as estimated in the returns, is 46 tons 1 cwt. 6 stone. Allowing for those offices from which returns have not been received at the average of those returned for, the total weight of the Peace Records, may be estimated at over 76 tons.

The bulk of Records, as stated in returns, is 5,620 cubic feet.

Total bulk estimated on same principle as above is 10,678 cubic feet.

Appendix V.

Memorandum by the Assistant Deputy Keeper on Huguenot Statements and Declarations.

In examining the Records of the late Landed Estates Office, removed from the Custom House, I found in a large parcel labelled "Military and Civil Establishment Books," (6G–8–14), one bound folio volume, together with a considerable mass of documents, relating to French Huguenots in the service of the Crown in Ireland.

The volume, of 641 pages, contains the statements of 590 French pensioners on the Civil List, signed with their own hands, specifying their names, the amount of their pensions, why they were granted them, the dates of their commissions, what private property they had, and what families or persons they had dependent upon them for support. They would appear to have been taken about the month of June, 1702, and have a note at foot of each, made and signed by Charles Deering, the Auditor-General, stating what documents he had seen in relation to the matter. They appear to be all written in the one hand, as if taken down from oral dictation.

At the end of the volume are the following tabular lists entitled in French, as follows :—

I. General list of French pensioners who are on the Civil List of Ireland, with the amount of their pensions, why they were granted them, and the dates when they entered the service of England. The whole taken from their statements, signed with their own hands (pp. 593–608).

II. List of French pensioners who have served without commissions, because they were officers incorporated or re-formed by the late King in the four regiments of French Cavalry and Infantry, and the names of those who have been put on pension by particular warrants of Her Majesty because they have not served in the Army (pp. 609–610).

III. List of French pensioners who have some property besides their pension, and of the number of persons dependent on them, according to their statements, signed under their hands (pp. 613–18).

IV. List of French pensioners who are in a position to serve Her Majesty in the Army, the rank they held at the time they were disbanded, the date of their last commission, and when they disbanded (pp. 621–28).

V. List of particular cases of the French pensioners who are on the Civil List of Ireland, on which they pray most humbly His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to accord them the honour of his protection to lay their reasons before Her Majesty (pp. 629–35).

VI. A list of the names contained in the book (p. 637 to end).

These lists not being in alphabetical sequence, I have thought it well to compile an index to the book in dictionary order for the use of inquirers, and have had the book rebound and the index bound in with it. I subjoin a copy of one of the statements, which will exemplify the spelling and the general nature of the contents of the book :—

I have seen a certificate signd by the L^t^. Co^ll^. and Cop^t^. of the regiment of my Ld. Gallway, certifying that the above was a Q^r^. M^r^. when the Regiment was broke but never had a Commission.

CHA. DERING.

Besides the above volume there were in the same parcel, 281 Original Declarations made by French Pensioners ranging in date from the 14 January 1713–4 to the 13 May, 1714, but for the most part made early in February, 1713–4. They give information as to the pension, services, wounds, and means of living of the Declarants and would appear to have been made for the information of the Auditor-General to enable him to supply the requirements of the following letter of record in Vol. 9, page 514 of "King's and Queen's letters," Custom House Collection (1C—7c—86).

"By the Lord Leiv^t^. Gen^ll^. and Gen^ll^. Govr. of Ireland.

SHREWSBURY,

To the end We may be informed what pen$\widetilde{\text{cons}}$ are contained within the Civil List of the present Estab^t^. and to whom the same are granted, We hereby pray and require you to lay before us a particular acc^t^. of the names of the severall persons to whom such pen$\widetilde{\text{cons}}$ are granted, the time when granted, and upon what consider$\widetilde{\text{acon}}$ the same were given, and for what time they are directed to be continued. Given at her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 26th of Decr. 1713.

By his Grace's Comand,

J. STANLEY.

To her Majesty's Aud^r^. Gen^ll^. of this Kingdom, or his Deputy."

These Declarations to some extent repeat the matter in the Statements contained in the volume before mentioned; the same person in many instances having made a Declaration as well as a Statement. For their better preservation, I have had these Declarations bound in one volume, and have put an Index in dictionary order in the front. I subjoin a copy of one.

En obeissance á Lordre du Gouvernement du 25 Decembre dernier —— declare qu'il a servi pendant quinze années en France ou il a été Capitaine d'Infanterie, qu'il se Refugia en Holande pour la Cause de la Religion Protestante laquelle il professe, qu'il passa en Angleterre avec plusieurs autres officiers franscois par les ordres du feu Roy Guillaume alors Prince d'orange, qu'il fut fait Capitaine dans le Regiment d'Infanterie du Colonel Ducambon ou il servit pendant la gerre d'Irlande; laquelle étant finie et le dit Vignoles se trouvant frequemment incommodé de violentes douleurs de la goute et menacé d'une fluxion sur la poitrine: Il pleut au feu Roy de lui accorder sur l'etablissement d'irlande une pention de Trois shillings six sols par Jour qui feut reduite á Deux shillings six sols aprés la Paix de Reswick, et de laquelle par la bonté de S. M. á present regnante il a joiiy jusques á ce jour.

Il est agé de 69 ans et tres souvent tourmenté de la goute et de la colique, Il a une femme et huit enfans vivans, auxquels, avec la pention qu'il a de S. M. et Trois cents Livres sterling qui luy restent aprés ses dettes payées, Il peut á grande peine fournir ce qui leur est necessaire pour leur vie et leur vétement. Il na d'ailleur ny terre ny maison ny ferme ny aucun negoce.

Et comme pendant qu'il a été dans l'armée, Il a volontiers et de bon cœur exposé sa vie pour le service de S. M. et de cette nation, Il espere de la bonté de la Reyne quelle voudra bien (comme il l'en supplie tres humblement), lui continuer la dite pention pendant le reste de sa vie qui apparament ne scauroit étre longe pour qu'il puisse faire subsister sa nombreuse famille et élever quatre ou cinq jeunes enfans qu'il a á present.

Et Il continuera ses prieres pour la Longue vie, la santé et la Prosperite de S. M. et de ses Royaumes.

6620 (5361.) Grant (under queen's letter, 12 Oct., 1594) to the English. mayor, sheriffs, burgesses, and commonalty of the county of the town of Carrickfergus; one parcel of land called Edengrene, Marshalstoune, a hill called Houghneskeage, another hill called Houghmarowecaple, Loughmorne, Duncrowe, little Duncrowe, the Tonge, two hills called little and great Knockagh, Cloghloghortie alias the Old Stoane, containing by estimation 10 ploughlands arable, more or less, besides wastes and commons, and all other the lands and commons of pasture anciently belonging to the town, the bounds of which were found by an inquisition taken in S. Nicholas' church in the town, 6 Oct. last, to be as follows: from the north east of the town along the seaside to a stream called Copland water which divides the town lands from the bishop's lands; then N.N.W. along the stream to a ford called Annagulmyn alias Clubbes ford; thence W.S.W. along the mearing ditch to the south end of Loghmorne, and so in the same direction to a mark called Carnehushocke alias Larckes hill, and to a hill called Carnesolloghe; thence, still dividing the arable, meadow, and pasture, from the commons, S.W. to the little Duncrowe, and over the ford of Larbrick to the ford of Turnegrawen, along the back of the Knockagh to a mark called Faseris neey alias the Deares Layne; thence S. to a stream called Lysnashemer running S. into the sea, and dividing the town land from the Earl's meadow; thence by the seaside N.E. to the town. The commons for grazing turbary, heath, and other fuel, reach from the said ford of Annagullmyne N.N.W. over boggy hills to a ford called Avalley Shione alias Johnstowne ford, thence S.W. to an old stone wall called Ralowe, W.S.W. to a hill called Browsley, thence S. to Faseris Neeye alias the Deares Layne. Within these bounds are the ruined abbey called Goodborne, and S. Brides hospital called the Spittle house, which belong to the queen. Reserving to the constable and garrison grazing and provision for their horses. To hold for ever, subject to such rents as are reserved by their charter. Saving the right of the crown to six acres belonging to the Palace, known by the name of S. Francis abbey in said town. In consideration of the loyalty of the town far exceeding other towns and cities in Ireland, "especially by the ecclesiastical obedience of all the inhabitants there by their usual repairing to the church and embracing God's true religion and service, a matter very acceptable unto us."—8 May, xliv. (Cal. P. R., p. 607.)

NOTE.—The dates of the Records not in the Public Record Office have been taken from Inventories returned by the Parochial Officers, chiefly in 1875–6; and it has been presumed that the entry of Marriages in the ordinary Registers ceased on the coming into operation of the Act 7 & 8 Vict., c. 81, unless the contrary is stated in the Inventory.

THE NINETEENTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

IN IRELAND.

TO THE MOST NOBLE THE MARQUIS OF LONDONDERRY,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. In accordance with the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, I have the honour, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, to submit my report of the proceedings in the Public Record Office, Ireland, for the year 1886, being my first annual report, and the Nineteenth Annual Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records of Ireland.

2. It is my painful duty, in the first instance, to report the loss which the public service has sustained by the death of Sir Samuel Ferguson, Knt., Q.C., LL.D., the late Deputy Keeper, on the 9th day of August last. Death of Sir Samuel Ferguson.

3. Though an able writer, a distinguished poet, a learned lawyer, and an accomplished antiquarian, I need only allude here to his claim upon the Civil Service of his country, from the ability and method displayed by him in organising this Department from its inception. Appointed the first Deputy Keeper under the Public Records Act of 1867, he at once took in hand the arduous task of transferring the legal Records of this country to the building provided for them, and of rendering them as they came in accessible to the public. How efficiently and thoroughly this work was performed by him it is not for me—lately his chief officer—to speak of, but I can and may say that neither labour nor time was spared by him in the discharge of this great undertaking.

4. Your Excellency, with the consent of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury, was pleased, by warrant dated the 10th November, 1886, to appoint me, under section 8 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, to the important post of Deputy Keeper. Appointments.

5. Your Excellency was further pleased to appoint Mr. William Maunsell Hennessy, the eminent Celtic scholar, and Senior First Class Clerk in this Department, to be Assistant Deputy Keeper in my stead, and Mr. Henry FitzPatrick Berry, A.M., Senior Clerk in the Rolls Chambers, and formerly attached to this department, to be a First Class Clerk.

6. I regret further to have to report the retirement, from ill-health, of Mr. Thomas M'Ghee, one of the junior clerks, on the 3rd day of April, 1886, and his subsequent death on the 6th day of December last. He was a gentleman of exceptional learning, industry, and ability. The vacancy thereby created has not yet been filled up.

Record and Writ Office, Chancery.

7. There have been transferred to this department, during the past year, from the Record and Writ Office of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, the following:—

Land Judges, Chancery.

11. From the Land Judges—Chancery Division, formerly known as the Landed Estates Court, the largest and most important transfer of the year has been effected, exclusively under the 14th section of the Public Records Act. In addition to the Records now referred to, the schedule to the warrant for their removal comprises some 4,500 deeds boxes, containing Deeds more or less the private property of the suitors of the Division, for the recall of which to the Court and re-delivery here, if necessary, a special clause has been inserted in the warrant, giving facilities for their being dealt with in accordance with the regulations in force for the similar deeds boxes of Chancery and Equity Exchequer, under the direction of the Chief Clerk to the Lord Chancellor. It was not possible to transfer these boxes prior to the end of 1886, as fittings had to be made for them in the basement of the Record Treasury; but they have been labelled, arranged, and entered for removal, which is proposed to be accomplished during the current year as fast as arrangements can be made to receive them. During the process of transfer it became apparent that, regard being had to the practice of the Division, it would be necessary, for the current business of the Court, from time to time, temporarily to recall certain of its Records, such as Final Schedules, Rentals, &c., to the offices, and to meet this, His Honor the Master of the Rolls, made an order dated the 17th December last, extending the clause regarding the recall and re-delivery of deeds boxes to the other Records. I have given in the Appendix, with Mr. Overend's assistance, a memorandum which will afford more information than could be conveniently given in the following schedule.

Record Tower, Dublin Castle.

14. From the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, have been transferred the nine MS. volumes of State Papers relating to the Acts of Settlement and Explanation, lettered A, B, C, D, E, F, H, L, M, being those reported on at pp. 648–694 of the Fifteenth Annual Report (1825) of the late Record Commission for Ireland. For further information with respect to these interesting books, I beg to refer to the report thereon of the Keeper of the State Papers appended hereto.

Appendix V.

Rentals, Landed Estates Court.

15. The Land Commission, finding that they required a complete set of the Incumbered and Landed Estates Court Rentals, made application to His Honor the Master of the Rolls, for a loan of the set of Rentals presented to this Department by the late Mr. Octavius O'Brien, and after some correspondence, an order dated the 20th December, 1886, was made by His Honor, directing that the Rentals in question should be handed over to the Land Commission upon certain conditions, in pursuance of which they were transferred, for a limited period, to the Land Commission Record Room in Upper Merrion-street, upon the 23rd February, 1887.

18 Report, s. 21.

29. The draft Indexes to the Grant Books of the Dublin Consistorial Court have been supplemented by forming draft Indexes to the following volumes of Will Books:—1712–1715, 1715–1718, 1719–1720, and 1727–1730, and to the volumes of Will and Grant Books 1661–1665, 1672–1678, 1678–1683, 1683–1687, 1687–1692, 1692–1702, 1700–1704, and 1704–1708, which contain grants of probates and a few administrations not included in the regular Grant Books.

30. These Indexes have been further supplemented by forming a draft Index to the Marriage Licence Bonds for the years 1711 to 1746, which are not entered in any of the Grant Books now extant here.

Chancery Petitions.
18 Report, s. 22.

31. The cross reference Index to the second and other titles of the Chancery Petitions prior to April, 1843, comprising 193 pages has been completed.

32. An Index has also been formed to 169 volumes of Chancery Petitions from 19th April, 1843 to 31st December, 1859, which extends to 1,040 pages, and comprises over 21,000 entries of names; and a like Index is in progress as regards the Chancery Receivers' and Guardians' Accounts. These Indexes are most desirable, as previously these Records were only indexed for each volume, which necessitated, in case of extended searches, members of the public examining them in their place of deposit in the Record Treasury, a practice which it is desirable to obviate as far as possible, as it causes great inconvenience, and imposes much additional work.

Administration Bonds Index.
18 Report, s. 25.

33. The Draft Indexes to the Administration Bonds have been completed for the Dioceses of Ardagh, Ardfert, Cloyne, Cork, Elphin, Ferns, Killala, Killaloe, Kilmore, Leighlin, Limerick, Lismore, Meath, Ossory, Raphoe, Tuam, and Waterford.

Prerogative Grant Book.

34. The Index to the Prerogative Grant Book, 1692–1697, which was omitted by the late Record Commissioners from the Index compiled by them to the series of Prerogative Grant Books, has been added thereto.

Sundry Indexes.

35. An Index has been made to the Will and Grant Book of the Diocese of Kilmore for the years 1853–57; to the Enrolled Chancery Decrees, vol. 14, Nos. 401–500; and to a volume of Sheriffs' Constats from the Revenue Exchequer, 1639-1647.

36. The Assistant Deputy Keeper, Mr. Wm. Maunsell Hennessy, has taken in hands the final collation of the draft Index to the printed Calendar of the Patent Rolls of James I. Calendar, James I.

37. Progress has been made with the Index to the Calendar of the Fiants of Elizabeth, printed in appendices to the 11th, 12th, 13th, 15th, 16th, 17th, and 18th Reports, and, if possible to do so, it will be completed in time to be included in the Report of next year. Fiants, Elizabeth.

38. The Calendar to the Disentailing Deed Rolls has been continued from Deed No. 4,565, enrolled 1st March, 1865, to Deed No. 4,754, enrolled, 7th August, 1866. Disentailing Deeds Roll, 17 Report, s. 24.

39. In the Bookbinding and Repairing department, 49 volumes of Parochial Registers, and 8 Miscellaneous volumes have been bound, and 538 sheets of Administration Bonds, 120 of Marriage Licence Bonds, 72 membranes of Rolls, and 11 Wills have been repaired, besides the ordinary general work. 40. The Reports for the year 1886 on the state and condition of the Parish Registers, made by Parochial Officers having the custody of their Records under Retention Orders, have been very satisfactorily returned to this Department. Out of 444 Reports that of only one parish is, up to the time of going to press, outstanding. These Reports show that, in general, the Records are well and safely preserved, though there are ten complaints of damp affecting them. In these instances the local custodian has been communicated with, as to the best measures to be taken with a view to abate the evil. In some cases there would appear to have been some laxity, arising through inadvertence, about keeping the Records in their proper receptacles and in every instance the attention of the local custodian has been directed to any irregularity that may have been reported. On the whole these Reports are very creditable to the Local Custodians from the regularity with which they have been returned, and the frank and careful way in which they have been made out. Reports of Custodians

41. In three instances during the year it proved necessary to recall Parochial Records under Retention Orders to this Department, as the Master of the Rolls was not satisfied that due provision was made for their safe custody. Records recalled.

42. In the Appendix to the Eighteenth Report was published a table exhibiting the then distribution of the Records of the parishes in Ireland. I now annex a return, showing the alterations that have been made in it by the Records that have been removed to this Department, and by those that Appendix VII.

remain in, or have been returned to, their parish under Retention Orders.

Parishes attachable.

43. Thirty-one parishes became attachable under his Honor's annual Warrant. Of these twenty-one have been removed here, six remain in their parishes under Retention Order, and four are awaiting final arrangements to be made for their proper local custody.

Fees.

44. The amount of Fees received during the past year amounted to £585 10*s.* 6*d.*, a marked falling off from those of the previous year.

Dated at the Public Record Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, this 29th
day of April, 1887.

J. J. DIGGES LA TOUCHE,

Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

A. M. PORTER,

Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX.

Appendix I.

Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867.

I, the Right Honorable Robert Richard Warren, Judge of the Court of Probate in Ireland, hereby certify to the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, that, in my opinion, it will be conducive to the due performance of the business of said Court that the Records belonging to said Court, in the Schedule annexed specified, shall not be delivered into the custody of the Master of the Rolls at the end of twenty years from the making thereof.

(Signed), Robert R. Warren.

Dated this 25th of March, 1886.

I have considered the subject of the removal of the Records of the Probate Court to the Public Record Office, and have consulted the Chief and Assistant Registrars of the Court. In my opinion the removal of the Records mentioned in the Schedule hereto would increase the expense of Grants, delay the making of Grants, and in the case of Grants de bonis non be attended with inconvenience to applicants for Grants.

I am therefore obliged to certify against the removal of the Records mentioned in the Schedule hereto, which does not include notarial papers if any, and all completed books and papers, relating to the contentious business of the Court down to the 1st January, 1866.

(Signed), Robert R. Warren.

Appendix II.

Warrant for the removal to the Public Record Office of Ireland of the Records of the Land Judge, Chancery Division, High Court of Justice.

Whereas the Records, Books, and Documents specified and described in the Schedule hereto, being Records of the Chancery Division (Land Judge) of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, and being such as are described in the 14th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, are now deposited in the Muniment Rooms and Offices of the Land Judge of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, under the care and charge of James M'Donnell, Esquire, Registrar to the said Judge, or other officers of the said Division. And whereas it appears to me to be to the public advantage that the said Records should be removed to the Public Record Office. Now, I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland by and with the approval of the Right Honorable John Naish, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, testified by his countersignature of these presents, do hereby under and by virtue of the provisions of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, appoint Sir Samuel Ferguson, Knight, the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, or in his stead some or one of the officers of the said Public Record Office to attend said Chancery Division Land Judges Offices and in my name to receive and take charge of the said Records, Books, and Documents, and do hereby order and direct the said James M'Donnell, Esquire, and every other person having, or claiming to have, such care and charge to allow all and every the said Records, Books, and Documents, and also all Calendars, Indexes, and Repertories thereof, to be removed by the said Sir Samuel Ferguson and his assistants from their present place of custody, and deposited in the said Public Record Office, there to remain under the charge of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland for the time being until further order. Provided that like powers of recall and redelivery as by the order of the then Master of the Rolls of the 15th November, 1875, are granted to the Chief Clerk of the Court of Chancery from time to time, in respect of the Records and Documents in said order mentioned shall be exercisable by the Registrar for the time being of the Land Judge, Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, and his Deputy nominated as in said order mentioned in respect of the Deeds Boxes mentioned in the Schedule hereto, as amongst the several Records, Books, and Documents in this Warrant comprised.

Dated at the Rolls Chamber, Dublin, this seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(Signed), A. M. Porter,
Master of the Rolls.

Countersigned,
John Naish, C.

Appendix III.

In the matter of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, 30 & 31 Vic., cap. 70.

By the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls.

17th December, 1886.

Whereas Records which may, from time to time, be necessary for the current business of the Land Judges, Chancery Division, High Court of Justice, Ireland, have been removed to the Public Record Office of Ireland from the Courts and Offices of the said Land Judges, under warrant dated the 17th day of July, 1886. And, whereas, it is expedient that the powers of recall and redelivery exercisable under the said Warrant in respect of the deeds boxes of the said Court, by the Registrar for the time being of the said Land Judges and his Deputy, nominated as therein, shall be exercised in regard to the other Records mentioned in the Schedule to the said Warrant annexed:

Let the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records deliver out and receive back all Records so removed, as above, from the Courts and Offices of the said Land Judges, and so required for the current business of the said Land Judges (Chancery Division), on the orders of the Registrar of the Land Judges, for the time being, and his Deputy.

(Signed), A. M. Porter, M.R.

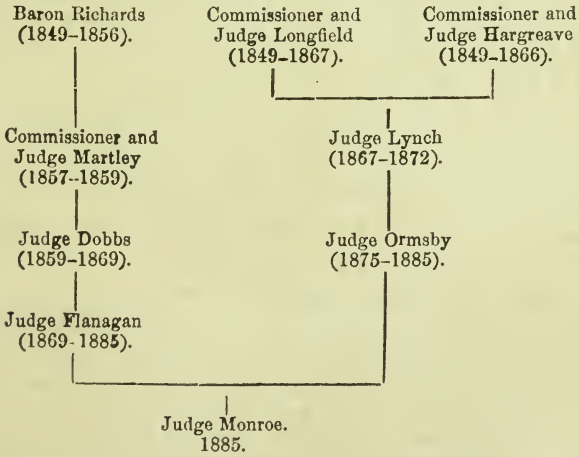
Appendix IV.

Memorandum on the Records from the Offices of the Land Judge, Chancery.

This collection, unless otherwise stated, has been removed down to the end of 1866. It comprises the Records of the Incumbered Estates Court, instituted in the year 1849 by the 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. 77, and of the Landed Estates Court, which succeeded it in November, 1858, under the 21st and 22nd Victoria, cap. 72. The collection naturally divides itself into four minor ones; viz., those of the Registrar's or General office and of the three Judges, existent in 1866—namely, Dobbs, Longfield, and Hargreave; but Judge Dobbs having been succeeded in 1869 by Judge Flanagan, his collection is better known by the name of the latter.

Under the Incumbered Estates Act, the persons to execute the Act were styled Commissioners, which title was changed to that of Judge by the Landed Estates Court Act in November, 1858. When a Commissioner or Judge died or resigned or had his patent revoked, the next appointed usually took over his duties. The following table will show the changes and succession from 1849 up to the present time, and may be explanatory of some little difficulties in the devolution of the collections:—



The original documents filed were of record in the Registrar's or General office, but with certain classes of them copies or duplicates were lodged in the offices of the several Commissioners or Judges to whom the cases were attached: thus, the same class of record is often common to the four collections, but the original, it must always be remembered, remained in the Registrar's or General office. The chief classes in this department comprise Abstracts of Title, Affidavits, Claims, Consents, Objections to Reports of Master, Objections to Schedules, Tenants' Objections, Petitions, and Draft Final Schedules of Incumbrances. In addition to the Records filed, the Registrar's office also contained those that appertained to the Court generally, such as Appearance Books, Copies of Conveyances, Declaration of Title, Court Order Books, Records of Proceedings, and Court Sale Books. The Records of chief importance from the Judges' offices are Abstracts of Title, Draft Conveyances, Fiat Books, Rentals, and Final Schedules of Incumbrances. There has not been transferred any general Index to the Registrar's collection, but there are Indices more or less perfect for the different classes, as the notes under their respective heads below will show; and for each of the collections in the offices of the three Judges there are Indices, more or less full. In addition to the above, the Records of the Notice Office of the Court have been transferred here from the Record and Writ Office of the Chancery Division, with which it was united under the provisions of the Judicature Act (40 and 41 Vic., cap. 57, s. 72).

A warrant for the transfer of the Deeds Boxes in the custody of the Keeper of the Deeds was signed, but the delay in preparing fittings prevented their being transferred during the year included in the present Report.

An explanatory note on each class of Records removed is appended, giving its name, dates inclusive, and the collection with which it was transferred.

Absolute Orders.—See Orders.

Abstract Books.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1849–1858

These volumes contain the Examiner's notes on the abstracts of title (the pages being numbered consecutively throughout the series from 1 to 3238) and are indexed in the index to the records of Judge Longfield's Examiner's Office.

Abstracts and Statements of Title.—Registrar, . . 1850–1858

Do. do. —Judge Longfield, . 1850–1858

These are the abstracts lodged setting out the titles to the several estates for sale. The later and more general practice would appear to be to preserve these amongst the title deeds of the cause in the Deeds Boxes.

Abstracts of Title.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1859–1868

One bundle containing a few between the above dates.

Abstracts of Title lodged.—Registrar, . . . 1857–1859

One volume containing entries of the abstracts of title lodged in the Registrar's Office giving the title, date of lodgment, when sent to a Judge, what Judge it was sent to, and solicitor's name. Indexed at back.

Abstracts of Title lodged.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1862–1866

One volume containing entries of the abstracts of title lodged for approval by Judge Hargreave giving the dates of lodgment, the name of the estate, and the solicitor.

Abstracts of Title Books.—Judge Flanagan, . . 1850–1871
Do. —Judge Hargreave, . . 1853–1858
Contain receipts given by solicitors for abstracts of titles lodged or temporarily taken out from the office. Indexed in volumes.

Account Books or Ledgers.—Judge Flanagan, . . 1851–1865
These show the amount of money received and paid, and the monies invested to the credit of cases. Indexed in each volume.

Account Books.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1850–1873
These give the particulars of payments of money received from the sale of estates. They are indexed in the general index books. Two volumes, from 1850 to 1873, are for Incumbered Estates Court matters, whilst the third volume, 1859–1865, is for the Landed Estates Court. At the end of this book are the particulars of the duty on sales for each of the years ending 31st July, 1860, to 31st July, 1869.

Accountants' Returns and Balance Sheets.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1852–1865
These are paper books showing under each cause, arranged alphabetically, the balance, whether of cash, consols, or stock, standing to credit thereof on the 31st August in each year, except 1860, certified by the Chief Accountant.

Advertisements, Certificates of.—Judge Hargreave, . 1852–1853
See bundle of Orders (Absolute) and Appearances, Certificates of.

Affidavits.—Registrar, ... 1849–1866
From 1849 to 1854 these are unbound, arranged under the initial letters of their titles according to their years. From 1855 to 1864 they are bound, and arranged in months under their letters, but there would appear to be several volumes missing. From 1864 to 1866 they are bound in chronological order with a running number for each year. From 1st November, 1864 to 1866 they are indexed in three volumes, and there are eight volumes of numerical lists for the same dates, giving the title of the cause and name of deponent.

Appearance Books.—Registrar, ... 1849–1866
Contain the record of appearances. They are indexed in each volume.

Appearances, Certificates of.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1850–1858
Under this head are comprised the certificates to be produced before the settlement of the final schedules, viz., the certificates of appearances and of claims, of final notice with services marked and dates of services, of purchasers from auction clerk (in fold of certificate of claims), of liens claimed (from Deed Keeper), of objections filed, of advertisements inserted, and of the funds in court from the Accountant. These certificates are numbered from 8 to 960.

Balance Sheets, Accountants'.—See Accountants' Returns.

Cases in Court.—Judge Hargreave.
An incomplete reference to cases in court, giving sometimes a reference to the petition book and sometimes the number of the case only.

Cases, Register of.—See Register of Cases.

Cash Receipt Books.—Registrar, . . . 1849–1866
These are office account books showing amounts of cash received for copies. In the fly leaf of the first volume are memoranda showing dates of sundry officials entering on their duties.

Certificates.—See Miscellaneous Certificates.

Certificates of Appearances.—See Appearances.

Claims.—Registrar, ... 1850–1869
Contain the particulars of claims upon estates ordered to be sold, and down to 1858 are arranged under letters and years and are indexed in six volumes. From 4th November, 1858, to 15th July, 1859, they are numbered consecutively according to their dates of filing from 1 to 1171, and include objections to claims as well. From the 16th July, 1859, the series comprises claims alone, and a fresh numerical arrangement commenced and was continued to 1869 (the last removed) running from 1 to 1503. These two latter series are indexed in two volumes, the first comprising from 4th November, 1858–1859; the second, 1859 to October, 1869.

Claims and Objections, An Entry Book of.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1858–1859
This volume is only partially filled and runs from November, 1858, to July, 1859, and is indexed at end.

Conditional Orders.—See Orders.

Consents.—Registrar, ... 1849–1858
There is no index to these documents.

Consents and Miscellaneous Documents.—Registrar, . . 1858–1871
These have a numerical sequence in chronological order from 1 to 3495. The miscellaneous documents comprise the following:—Accounts, attornments, charges, commissions and returns thereto, discharges, maps of partition and of exchange, objections to accounts, claims, partition orders, reports and surveys, partitions, MS. rentals, reports, reports of surveyors, requisitions to transfer stock, statements of facts, and surcharges. They are indexed in one book from the 2nd November, 1858, to 6th May, 1871.

Conveyances, Copies of.—Registrar, . . . 1850–1867

These are copies of the conveyances made by the Commissioners or Judges of the court to purchasers. From 1850–1857 they are arranged under their years and letters, and appear to be imperfect, and for the years 1858 and 1859, there are only two bundles each for the letter C extant. From 1859 to 1867 they are numbered in chronological sequence from 1 to 4745. These copy conveyances are indexed in seven volumes for the Incumbered Estates Court portion 1850–1858, and in three for the Landed Estates Court 1858–1867. For the first series the indices give the title of the cause, name of purchaser, date of conveyance, amount of purchase money, and the lands conveyed, and for the second the number and date of conveyance, title of cause, name of purchaser, solicitor, amount of purchase money, and number of lot sold.

Conveyances, Draft.—Registrar, . . . 1856–1858
Do. do. Judge Flanagan . . 1856–1886
Do. do. Judge Longfield . . . 1850–1866
Do. do. Judge Hargreave . . . 1852–1865

These have the approval of the solicitors endorsed thereon and in many cases are accompanied by a proof of the printed conveyance.

Conveyances, Entry Book of draft, Judge Flanagan, . 1858–1862

This is a book containing a list of draft conveyances issued, giving the name of owner, purchaser, number of lot conveyed, date of receipt from the Master or Examiner, and date of sending to general office as printed. From July 1858 to June 1862 they are numbered from 1 to 768.

Conveyances, Entry Books of, Judge Hargreave, . 1852–1870

Contain the entries of conveyances, giving the dates of approval, when sent down to Registrar's office and when examined for execution or when copied, engrossed, and sent to printer, together with the name of case and purchaser and the receipts of solicitors therefor. They were somewhat irregularly kept, the entries varying in form, one volume 1852–3 is endorsed "Draft Deeds Book." The practice in regard to conveyances would appear to be regulated by an order of the 27th November, 1854, "That every engrossment of conveyances to be executed by the Commissioners when compared in the Examiner's office be sent by one of the porters directly to the Registrar's office to have it sealed, &c., and that no such engrossment be delivered to the solicitor until it shall have been executed."

Declarations of Title, Registrar, . . . 1859–1866

These are the judicial declarations of title under the seal of the court, signed by a Judge, made under section 51 of the 21 and 22 Vic., cap. 72. The Index has not been removed as it runs to 1874.

Deeds Book, Draft.—See Conveyances, Entry Books of.

Diaries and Sale Books.—Judge Longfield, . . 1851–1866
Daily lists of the matters to come before the Judge, and in many cases, the Examiner. These are referred to as sale books in Judge Longfield's general index.

Diaries.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1857–1867
Same as above.

Diary of Chief Commissioner.—Judge Hargreave, . 1854–1856
A daily list of the matters to come before the Judge.

Dilatory Book.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1854
Contains solicitors' explanations of delay in certain cases.

Examiners' Notes on Rentals.—See Proof Books.

Fiat Books.—Judge Flanagan, ... 1850–1866
Do. do. Longfield, ... 1851–1866
Do. do. Hargreave, ... 1850–1879
Are the blocks or counterfoils of the orders made by the Judges for payments whether in stock or cash. They are indexed in the general index, and the numbers in the blocks correspond with the payment number therein.

Fiat Book, Petition.—See Petition Fiat Book.

Fiats for Investment Books.—Judge Flanagan, . . 1859–1869
Do. do. do. Hargreave, . . 1856–1866
Are the blocks or counterfoils of orders made by the Judge for the investment of funds.

Fiats for Sale of Consols or Stock.—Judge Flanagan, . 1855–1866
Do. do. do. Hargreave, . 1855–1871
Are the blocks or counterfoils of books of orders for sales of stock or consols initialed by Commissioner or Examiner.

Final Notices to Tenants.—See Notices to Tenants (Final).

Incumbrances, Schedules of.—See Schedules of Incumbrances.

Indices to Affidavits.—Registrar, . . . 1864–1866
There are three volumes from 1st November, 1864, to 1st November, 1866, in which the affidavits are entered alphabetically, each entry giving the number of the affidavit, the title of the matter, the name of the deponent, and the date of filing, and eight volumes for the like period, in which they are entered chronologically.

Indices to Claims.—Registrar, ... 1850–1869
These are in two sets. The first, for the Incumbered Estates Court, runs from March, 1850, to October, 1858, and consists of six volumes of entries, giving the date of filing, the title of the matter, on whose behalf the claim was filed, and the solicitor; each volume has an alphabetical index at the end. The second, for the Landed Estates Court, runs from November, 1858, to October, 1869, in two volumes containing the like entries, with the numbers of the claims, indexed at back.

Index to Consents and Miscellaneous Documents.—Registrar, ... 1858–1871

An entry book giving the date of filing, the number and title of the document, the nature of the document, and the name of the solicitor filing it. It is indexed alphabetically at the end.

Indices to Conveyances.—Registrar, . . . 1850–1867

In two series, the first, for the Incumbered Estates Court, April, 1850–October, 1858, consists of seven volumes, in which are entered the title of the matter, the name of the purchaser, amount of purchase money, the date of the conveyance, whether a memorial was executed or not, and the name and acreage of the lands. Indexed at end of volumes in the title of the matter. The second series, for the Landed Estates Court, runs from December, 1858, to July, 1867, and consists of three volumes containing entries of the number and date of the conveyance, the title of the matter, the names of purchaser and solicitor, the consideration, and the number of the lot. Indexed at back in name of purchaser.

Index, General.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1849–1862

An alphabetical index in name of owner to the rentals and schedules; the latter extend into 1863.

Indices, General.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1849–1867

In two volumes. The first for the Incumbered Estates Court, is an alphabetical index in the owner's name, giving a reference, by numbers, to the petition, the petition book, the abstract book, the search, the sale book, the rental, the schedule, and the account book. The second for the Landed Estates Court is similar. There are, besides the above, three volumes from which, apparently, these were formed, one of which is cancelled; the two others are almost duplicates of the above for the same period, but not so full. Another cancelled book gives list of petitions (1–1005), schedules (1–997), searches (1–1070), rentals (1–1138), abstracts (1–524), and other imperfect lists.

Indices (General).—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1849–1866

These consist of two volumes, the first, for the Incumbered Estates Court period, is an alphabetical index, in the name of the owner, to the volume and page of the petition book in which the case is entered, to the office number of the case, and to the number of the fiat directing a payment. When a cause was transferred to Commissioner or Judge Hargreave the practice was to give it a new number other than the original number of the petition, which new number was common to the rental and the final schedule of incumbrances. The second volume, for the Landed Estates Court period, November 1858–1866, was similar to the first save giving the original number of the petition. The petition books referred to from these indices were nine in number, five for the Incumbered and four for the Landed Estates Court, and some confusion is caused by their being bound in four volumes, the last volume containing three books, the others two each. On Judge Hargreave's death in April, 1866, the Court directed that the Petition matters allotted to him should be divided amongst the other Judges, the even numbers to Judge Longfield, the odd to Judge Dobbs, and that cases in which the title had been approved of by Judge Hargreave should be wound up in his chambers by the officers attached thereto.

Indices to Objections to Schedules.—Registrar, . . 1850–1868
Five volumes of entry books giving the date, title of matter, name of party lodging objection, and solicitor. Alphabetical index at end of volumes to titles of matter.

Indices to Objections (Tenant's).—Registrar, . . 1850–1866
Four entry books giving the date, the title, the name of party objecting, and the solicitor. The fourth volume commencing November, 1858, gives also the number of the objection. Alphabet at end of volumes.

Index to Orders.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1853
This volume purports to have been commenced 28th October, 1853, and to be a Commissioner's Index to orders, referring to volumes from 1 to 14, but to what series it refers or for what period has not been ascertained.

Indices to Petitions.—Registrar, ... 1849–1866
Consist of two volumes of entries for the Incumbered Estates Court period, October 1849–October 1858, giving the number, title, date of filing, name of petitioner and solicitor, with address, and two volumes for the Landed Estates Court, November 1858–May 1866, giving the date of filing, the number, the judge, title of matter, name of petitioner and solicitor, with address. To each of the volumes is an alphabetical index at the end.

Indices to Schedules of Incumbrances (Draft Final).—Registrar, ... 1850–1869
One volume for Incumbered Estates Court, February 1850–October 1858, gives the date of filing, the title, last day for objections, name of petitioner and solicitor, with address. The second volume, for the Landed Estates Court, gives number of schedule, the owner, day for hearing, the last day for objections, name of petitioner and solicitor, with address. Alphabet at end of volumes to names of owners.

Judge's Returns.—See Returns, Judge's.

Ledgers.—See Account Books.

Maps.—Judge Hargreave.
A bundle of detached maps. Some relating to partitions, and others to sales, in most cases entitled in name of matter.

Minute Books, Rough.—See Note at Minute Books.

Miscellaneous Certificates.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1858–1866
These consist of certificates of funds and dividends from the Accountant's Office, of the court and certificates of no lodgment of purchase money.

Miscellaneous Documents.—Registrar, . . . 1850–1858
These consist chiefly of copies of original documents such as deeds, wills, and proceedings in other courts, which would seem to have been used for the elucidation of title as well as the same class of miscellaneous records that, for the later period, 1858–1866, were filed with the consents, which see.

Miscellaneous Papers.—Judge Longfield.
Contain chiefly draft rentals, conveyances, abstracts of title and copies.

Do. —Judge Hargreave.
Include abstracts of title, affidavits, auction biddings, certificates, certificates of advertisements, funds and dividends, lis pendens, and of taxed costs, copy conveyances and orders, counsels' opinions, declarations of trust, directions for searches and on title, explanations, letters, lists of tenants, memoranda, maps, memoranda of interest, notices, original deeds, draft partitions, partition orders, reports on partition, petition of appeal, postings, powers of attorney, requisitions for searches, MS. rentals, schedules of deeds lodged, statements of fact, notes on title, surveyor's report and valuation. It is intended to arrange all these miscellaneous documents, as far as possible, under the titles of their causes, in dictionary order, so as to render them all accessible.

Note or Minute Books, Rough.—Judge Hargreave, . 1850–1866
Rough notes or minutes made by the Judge on the hearing of motions, they consist of fifty-five volumes imperfectly indexed.

Notes on Rentals.—See Proof Books.

Notes on Title (Judge's).—Judge Longfield, . . 1849–1861
Consist of three volumes, 1849–1853, 1859, and 1859–1861, without an index.

Notes on Title (Judges).—Judge Hargreave, . . 1850–1865
Nineteen volumes containing Judge's notes on titles to land with, in many instances, queries and directions in relation thereto. There is an index to these in one volume. The paging of the first two volumes is complete for each book but from the 3rd volume the pagination is continuous from 1 to 4740, vol. 15, pp. 3187–3425 is wanting. There is also one bundle of directions on titles by the examiner, on separate sheets, on which there is a memorandum that it is to be kept with these title books.

Notes, Judge's or Court Book.—Judge Hargreave, . 1863–1866
One volume of Judge's notes on motions, not indexed.

Notices, Bound.—Record and Writ Office, Chancery, . 1850–1865
Comprise general notices, such as of filing documents, of appearance, of sale, of taxation of costs, of lodging deeds, and of the making of orders, &c.

Notices of Motions, Bound.—Record and Writ Office, . 1850–1865
Are the notices of motions to be made in Court.

Notices of Motions, &c.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1850–1867
Arranged in bundles according to months and years. To November, 1859, many of these had the rulings of the Judge appended. From 1861 they consist chiefly of notices to tenants and to Incumbrancers. They are unindexed.

Notices—Registry of Service of Orders and—Record and Writ Office, ... 1849–1865
They give the date of lodgment of notice or order, title of matter, nature of document, whether notice or order, lodged for service, name of attorney or party by whom same is lodged for service, name and address of party on whom such order or notice is required to be served, and initials of the officer posting same, to certify that same is so posted before post hour in General Post Office.

Notices to Tenants (Final).—Registrar, . . . 1866
Are arranged in bundles under their initial letters according to their dates. Bundles for E., N., S., and Y. are wanting.

Objections to Master's Reports.—Registrar, . . 1855–1858
Objections made to the Reports of Stephen Woulfe Flanagan, Master of the Incumbered Estates Court. They do not seem to be indexed.

Objections to Schedules.—Registrar, . . . 1850–1868
Are the objections filed to the draft final schedules of incumbrances, arranged to 1858 in bundles under their years and letters. From 1859–1868 they are preserved in chronological order in a numerical series from 1 to 1905. They are indexed in five volumes.

Objections (Tenants').—Registrar, . . . 1850–1866
Are the objections of tenants to the notices served upon them and to the draft schedules. From 1850–1857 there is a bundle for each year, whilst from 1858 to 1866 they are bound in order of the date of filing in a numerical series from 1–2686. They are indexed, under name of owner, in four volumes.

Order Books, Absolute.—Registrar, ... 1850–1867
They contain the absolute or final orders for sale and are indexed in each volume. The first volume contains also miscellaneous orders. The last 49 pages of Vol. V. are sometimes referred to as Vol. VI.

Orders, Absolute.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1852–1853
One bundle consisting chiefly of certificates of advertisements, with a few copy orders.

Order Books, Conditional.—Registrar, . . . 1849–1867
In these were entered the conditional orders for sale. The first volume also contains absolute and miscellaneous orders. Indexed in each volume.

Order Books, Miscellaneous.—Registrar, . . 1849–1867
These books contain all the orders made by the Incumbered and Landed Estates Court other than the absolute and conditional orders, save volume one, in which the distinction is not observed. The volumes are indexed at back.

Order Books (Court).—Judge Hargreave, . . 1858–1866
These are described inside as "Judge Hargreave's Chamber Rule Books." They were kept by the chief clerk and would appear to be the court notes of the orders made, and as some are marked "chamber" it may be assumed that most of the entries are ordinary orders made by the Court. Each entry is marked, "entered," and initialled, and as a matter of fact, was entered in the general order books of the Court. Each volume has an index.

Order Books (Judge's).—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1858–1859
Two volumes, each covering the like period, containing entries of the court orders made by the Judges and endorsed "Judges Martley and Dobbs' Order Books." These orders are copied into the general order books of the court. Both books are indexed at the end.

Order Books (Judges' Chamber).—Judge Flanagan, . 1858–1859
Two volumes, each covering the like period, of entries of court orders made by the Judges. They are endorsed "Judges Martley and Dobbs' Order Books." Volume I. is indexed, the other not. The orders in these books are as a rule entered in the general order books of the court.

Orders to deliver Documents.—Judge Flanagan, . . 1850–1858
These are six books of blocks or counterfoils of orders addressed to the Keeper of the Records to deliver up documents. Not indexed.

Paymaster's Certificates.—Registrar, . . . 1861–1866
These are the certificates from the Secretary to the Board of Works, based on a requisition to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, as to any or what charges are existing on lands petitioned for sale through the court, for land improvement, arterial drainage, Labouchere drainage, and piers and harbours. They are entered and indexed in the two books below.

Paymaster's Certificates, Entry Books of, . . . 1850–1874
Two volumes, containing the entries of the certificates of the Paymasters of the Civil Services or Secretary to the Board of Works. The first volume ending in October, 1858, gives the date of the certificate and its nature. The second volume gives the date of the issue of the requisition and the date of receipt of the return, and is labelled also "Certificates of Secretary of Board of Works." Both volumes are indexed at back.

Petitions.—Registrar, ... 1849–1866
Are bound in volumes according to date, 50 in each volume and numbered in two series. The first, 1 to 4441, ending October, 1858. The second, 1 to 3380, ending in May, 1866. These are the originals of those lodged in the Judges' offices and are indexed in four volumes.

Petitions (Copy).—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1849–1867
Do. —Judge Hargreave, . . . 1849–1866
Do. —Judge Longfield, . . . 1849–1866
These are the copies of the original petitions filed in the General or Registrar's office and were lodged in the offices of the Judges to whom they were allotted. Judge Flanagan's collection is unbound and is only indexed from 1855 to 1867 in two volumes, one from 5th February, 1855, to 8th January, 1859; the other from 23rd November, 1858, to 8th May, 1867, in which latter volume the numbers of some of the schedules of incumbrance are pencilled in. Judge Hargreave's are unbound to November, 1858, but are bound in volumes from thence and are indexed in the general index. Judge Longfield's are bound in volumes, containing fifty each in chronological order in two numerical series, one ending October, 1858, from 1 to 1558, and the other ending in 1866, from 1 to 1500. They are indexed in the general index to Judge Longfield's Records. Each petition has a verifying affidavit and schedule attached.

Petition Books.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1850–1866
Contain the nature and history of the proceedings in petitions. Indexed in general index books.

Petition Books.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1849–1866
These were originally kept as nine books, but are now bound together in four volumes, and are of the same character as the preceding series. They are indexed at back of volumes as well as in the general index books. They are also called "Index of Cases."

Petition Books.—Judge Flanagan.
Styled and entered as "Records of Proceedings," which see.

Petition Entry Book.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1855–1858
Gives the date of filing the petition, the number, name of owner and petitioner, and name of solicitor, with address, from 5th February, 1855, to 30th October, 1858. Alphabetical index in front.

Petition Entry Book.—Registrar, . . . 1851–1853
Contains date of filing, number, title of petition, name of petitioner, and name and address of attorney. Indexed at back.

Petition Fiat Book.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1850–1855
This is the Chief Commissioner's Fiat Book. Indexed in front of volume.

Petition Fiat Book.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1858–1867
Gives the date of filing, the number, names of owner, petitioner, and solicitor, and date of fiat, the numbers of the schedules of incumbrances are given in pencil under the petition number. The book is alphabetically indexed at back in name of owner, and is endorsed "Judge Martley's Chamber Petition Book."

Petition Fiat Book.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1850–1852
This contains petitions fiated by Baron Richards, and gives the title of the matter, the date of filing the petition, and the date of the fiat (i.e. the conditional order for sale) was made. Indexed at back.

Private Sales—See Sales, Private.

Proof Books.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1858–1874
Are examiners' notes and directions given on settling rentals. In two volumes, with index at back.

Proposal Books.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1851–1867
These contain the proposals made for the purchase of property for sale under the Court, and have the note of the Judge accepting or rejecting them at foot. They contain an index.

Proposal Books (Donegall Estate).—Judge Longfield, circa 1850–1855
These are three volumes containing the proposals made in connexion with Lord Donegall's Estate, numbered from 1 to 1018. A fourth volume contains an index to the persons making the proposals.

Provincial Sales—See Sales, Provincial.

Receipt Books.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1855–1866
These are five volumes of receipt books for documents received, and give the date of receipt, from whom received, and when and to what department they were sent.

Receipt Book for Petitions and Schedules.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1865–1886
One volume irregularly kept.

Receipt Books for Rentals.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1855–1859
Two volumes, blocks of receipts.

Receipt Books for Schedules.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1867–1872
One volume, blocks of receipts.

Records of Proceedings.—Registrar, . . . 1849–1868
These books correspond somewhat to the Bill Books in an Equity Court, but contain more information. These afford a chronological list of the documents filed or proceedings taken under each petition filed, comprising the petition itself, conditional and absolute orders for sale, and miscellaneous orders, notices to claimants and tenants, Master's reports, postings, sales, schedules of incumbrances, certificates, final notices, requisitions to tax costs, consents, &c. The later volumes give the initial of the Judge to whose Court the petition was sent. There is an index to each volume.

Records of Proceedings.—Judge Flanagan, . . 1858–1863
This is similar to the former, but applies only to petitions in Judge Martley's or Dobbs' office. Indexed at back.

Register of Cases.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1856–1862
One volume giving the dates of reference to settle rentals, the name of the cause, the solicitor and the date of lodging abstract of title.

Register of Cases.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1850–1866
One volume kept by the Judge's Examiner, which gives a new case number to each matter coming into the office, under which the schedules and rentals were kept; it also gives references to the Judge's notes on title and other references, but not throughout the whole period.

Rentals.—Judge Flanagan, ... 1850–1866
These are bound, and form a very imperfect collection, many rentals being absent. They are indexed to 1862 in one volume, which also contains the references to the schedules of incumbrances. The later index has not been transferred.

Rentals.—Judge Longfield, ... 1850–1866
These are bound and in good order, those for the Incumbered Estates Court ending with number 1,138, and for the Landed Estates Court with 650. Both series are indexed in the general index book. There is a separate volume of rentals for the Belfast Estate of Lord Donegall, and a bundle of duplicates.

Rentals.—Judge Hargreave, ... 1850–1868
These are bound, with a running number according to their date. There is one volume, No. 50b, for Connolly's estate alone. They are indexed in the general index book, and appear to be perfect in their sequence.

Rentals, Duplicate.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1858–1865
These are duplicates of some of the above between the numbers 1,000 and 1,655.

Reports of Master, Objections to.—See Objections to Master's Reports.

Returns, Accountants'.—See Accountants' Returns.

Returns, Judge's.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1860–1865
Drafts of the returns made by the Judge to the Home Secretary under 21 and 22 Vic., cap. 72, sec. 25, and pursuant to the General Order of the Court, dated 18th February, 1861. They are yearly from the 1st November, 1860, and give the number and titles of matters brought into Chamber during the year, and of all matters then pending, distinguishing original applications from those referred to the Court from the Chancery, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency Courts.

Rulings Bespoken.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1854
A bespeak book for copies of rulings.

Ruling Books.—Judge Longfield, ... 1850–1867
Rulings made by the Judge and kept by the chief Clerk. Indexed at back.

Rulings in Chamber.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1851–1858
Rulings made by Mr. Commissioner Hargreave in chamber. Indexed in the volumes.

Sales, List of.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1850–1858
An alphabetical list of estates sold by the Commissioners. It refers to the Provincial Sales Book by the affix of the letter B, and to the Private Sale Book by the affix of the letter C, and gives the number of the petition and of the rental, the title of the matter, the solicitor, and the Commissioner.

Sales, List of Provincial.—Judge Hargreave, . . 1850–1858
An alphabetical list of estates sold by order of the Commissioners giving the number of petition and rental, the title of the matter, name and address of solicitor, and the Commissioner to whose court it belonged.

Sales, Proposals for Private.—Registrar, . . . 1857–1866
Are the original proposals made for the purchase of estates or lots thereof by private offer. The acceptance of the Judge, or a copy of his ruling, accompanies each offer.

Sales, Provincial.—Registrar, ... 1857–1866
Are rentals of lands directed to be sold in the provinces. Each rental is generally accompanied by an affidavit of the Auctioneer or Commissioner appointed to carry out the sale, stating the circumstances attending each auction.

Sale Books.—Judge Flanagan, ... 1850–1859
Contain particulars of when and where sales are to be held, whether in Dublin or the country, with the title of the cause and number of lots. In some instances the amount of the purchase money and other details are added. Each volume is indexed.

Sale Books.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1851–1852
Two rough books with dates for sales, name of matter, solicitor, number of lots, and where sale held.

Sale Books, Court.—Registrar, ... 1850–1867
These record the sales in court with the amounts of the biddings made and the declaration of the purchaser who generally signs the book. Indexed at end, in name of owner, where the number of the rental is generally prefixed.

Sale Books, General.—Registrar, . . . 1857–1865
Give owner, petitioner, date of sale, number of the lot sold, name and address of purchaser, amount of the purchase money, the amount lodged, and the date of issuing certificate. The private and provincial sales are also entered in these volumes, which are indexed at the end of each volume, in name of owner.

Sale Book, Private.—Registrar, ... 1850–1857
Gives the title of matter, date of acceptance of proposal, denomination or number of lot sold, county, name of purchaser, and amount of purchase money. Indexed at back, in name of owner.

Sale Books, Provincial.—Registrar, . . . 1851–1857
Give the title of the cause, date of the confirmation of sale, number of the lot sold, the county, the purchaser, and amount of the purchase money. Indexed at end in names of causes.

Sale Book, Provincial.—Judge Flanagan, . . . 1859–1876
Contains entries of sales, held in the provinces under the court, with the title of the matter, where and when the sale was held, the amount of the biddings, and the ruling of the Judge on the result submitted to him. This volume is indexed.

Schedules of Incumbrances, Draft Final.—Registrar, . 1850–1869
These are the original draft schedules filed in the Registrar's department, duplicates of which are lodged in the several Judges' offices where they are noted and adjudicated on, and become the final schedules. From 1850 to 1858 they are in yearly bundles under their letters according to the date of filing or lodgment marked on them. From 1858–1869 they are numbered in succession according to their dates of filing, and are bound in numerical sequence from No. 1 to 2701. They are indexed in two volumes, vol. 1 from February, 1850—December, 1858, and vol. 2, December, 1858 to 1869.

Schedules of Incumbrances, Final.—Judge Flanagan, . 1850–1867
" " " —Judge Hargreave, . 1850–1875
" " " —Judge Longfield, . 1850–1867
These are duplicates of those filed in the General or Registrar's office. The first series is numbered in chronological order, according to the date that they were approved of for judgment, from 1 to 1179. To No. 332 they are unbound. They are indexed in the index with the rentals to 1862, from that date the index has not been transferred. The second series is bound and numbered from 1 to 1,840, and indexed in the general index books. The third series has two enumerations from 1 to 1,000, for the period from 1850 to 1858, and from 1 to 550 from 1858 to 1867. It is indexed in the general index book. These three series are noted by the Examiners and Judges and are generally signed by the Judge as settled, which renders them of more practical importance than the series from the Registrar's office.

Schedule Book.—Judge Hargreave, . . . 1851–1856
This is an entry book of schedules of incumbrances lodged, and only includes those from A to K and is indexed. It gives the date of the lodgment and whether the matter was closed or not, and where not closed gives further references.

Schedule Book.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1851–1856
Is a book of rulings and directions upon final schedules from Commissioner Longfield's chamber. Indexed in general index.

Searches.—Judge Longfield, . . . 1850–1868
Directions for negative searches, numbered from 1 to 1,000, to 1858, and from thence from 1 to 956. Indexed in general index.

Statements of Title.—See Abstracts of Title.

Appendix V.

To the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls—The Nineteenth Report of Sir Bernard Burke, C.B., Ulster King of Arms, Keeper of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, dated 2nd February, 1887.

Sir,—I have transferred a series of nine volumes, folio size, marked on the back with letters of the alphabet, running in regular sequence to the twelfth letter, M, with the exception of three missing, viz., G, I, K. These nine volumes contain, as mentioned by the Record Commissioners of 1810, transcripts and other documents, chiefly relating to the Acts of Settlement and Explanation, and to proceedings under those Acts.

It would be difficult to over-estimate the value of these volumes with reference to a proper understanding of the Acts of Settlement. In them will be found copies of the Transmisses of various Bills as sent over to England by the Council of Ireland, showing the alterations made by the Privy Council, when they were returned under the Great Seal of England to be enacted in the Parliament of Ireland. They include petitions of various persons seeking provisoes in the Acts of Settlement and Explanation, to be restored to their lands. The petitions, indeed, form the greater bulk of the papers in these volumes, and contain a vast amount of interesting personal details to be met with nowhere else. There are besides, the papers containing the arguments of the various classes whose interests would suffer from the restoration of the petitioners, such as the adventurers and soldiers, the "'Forty Nine" officers. Here are a few instances of these entries, viz.:—

The petition of the 'Forty Nine officers to be heard as to the clause of the Act of Settlement introduced in favour of the Earl of Strafford and Thomas Radcliffe, Esq., concerning the estate of O'Connor Sligo—p. 277, Liber C.

Petition of Francis Lord Berminghame, of Athenry, that a proviso in his favour be introduced into the Act of Settlement—p. 280, Ibid. Clause to to be inserted in the Act of Settlement, in the favour of Lord Berminghame, that he may have the benefit of the King's Declaration of 30th November, 1660, and of the King's Letter of 2nd May, 1663, granting him possession of the town and liberties of Athenry, and such parts of the barony of Dunmore as his grandfather had enjoyed—p. 281, Ibid.

Petition of Colonel Lewis O'Ferrall in behalf of the officers and soldiers of his regiment who served the King abroad, and were not mentioned in the King's Declaration of 30th November, 1660. That the names of certain officers (named) which were omitted in a former list given in, be inserted in the new Act—p. 300, Ibid.

Case of Edward Walsh, late of Clonmayning, Wicklow Co., and son of Edmund Walsh, now living. The father was servant to Thomas, Earl of Ormonde, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and married Eliza Booth, sister to old Sir George Booth, father to Sir George Booth, now Lord Delamar; and purchased lands in Clonmayning, containing 825A. besides bog, and his title being disputed by Sir William Parsons, he re-purchased under him, and held it till the rebellion, when he was eighty years old, blind and bed-ridden, and lived in the house of Lord Esmond, a Protestant, one of the Privy Council in Limerick [Co. Wexford]. Being indicted as a rebel he could not plead on account of his age. His son, though living within the line, was endeavoured to be transplanted, but refused to go, and was not proceeded against, though Dr. Yarner was one of the Court of Justice. His property was granted to said Yarner on an unjust claim of services in the army, and he (Edmond Walsh) remains dispossessed. though recommended to the Lords Justices by the King's Letter of 30th November, 1660, and 7th June, 1661. Then follows a certificate in his favor. Order of Council, 15th January, 1658, to put Dr. Yarner in possession of the lands of Clonmayning, &c. Also a protection to Edmond Walsh and his family—p. 367, Ibid.

Act of Explanation. This copy is different from the printed Act in many points, and has many additions to the copy transmitted out of Ireland, see p. 227, with which it has been collated, and the causes of the alterations noted in the margin—p. 83, Liber E.

Petition of the Commissioners for executing the Act of Settlement, that an inquiry be made as to the authors of advisers of a Petition from the adventurers and soldiers styled here scandalous and seditious and tending to prevent the settlement of Ireland and praying for their punishment. Read 26th July, 1664, p. 121, Ibid.

Petition of Sir John Skeffington, Colonel John Brett, Captain Jno. Nicholas, Mr. Myles Cook, Mr. Nathan Dunbavan, and Mr. Peter Beaghane intrusted for the soldiers, that none of them have been as yet settled in the forfeited lands, but on the contrary many hundred of them dispossessed of lands to the amount of 923,000 acres. And that on perusal of the draft of the Bill now prepared (Bill of Explanation) they find themselves in a worse situation than by the Act of Settlement (then follows twelve grounds of their complaint.) Read 7th July, 1665, and laid aside. Liber F, p. 134.

A notice of this collection is to be found in the 15th Annual Report of the Record Commissioners in the year 1825, by which it appears that it was transferred in the year 1811 to the Record Commissioners by Lord Maryborough, then Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, who in his letter to the Board on the subject states that it had been the property of the late Viscount Mountjoy. The volumes are marked, as the Commissioners observe, by letters of the alphabet in regular series to the letter M, with the exception, as stated above, of three gaps, G, J, and K. But the Commissioners having discovered that some at least of the three missing volumes were in the collection of Earl Annesley, the Secretary and two of the Sub-Commissioners, on examining the collection, found two of the missing volumes of the series marked G and K; consequently there is only one of the volumes, that marked I, unaccounted for.

The Rev. Edward Groves, one of the Sub-Commissioners, observes that the contents of the volumes relate, with few exceptions, and those of a trivial nature, wholly to the affairs of Ireland, and more particularly to the proceedings under the Acts of Settlement and Explanation during the reign of King Charles II.

From the handwriting and other internal evidence, these volumes, he remarks, appeared to have been compiled during the period to which they relate. But the Record Commissioners offer no suggestion as to the origin of the compilation.

The greater portion of the papers in these volumes concern the several periods when the Act of Settlement and the Act of Explanation were before the King and Council at Whitehall. Under Poyning's Law, the Parliament of Ireland could only pass such Bills as were sent over to them by the Council at Whitehall under the Great Seal of England. And though the Privy Council usually framed the Bills without hearing any of the parties, yet, in framing the Acts of Settlement and Explanation, the different contending parties were allowed by the King, considering how great were the interests involved, to appear by their counsel or agents.

The Debates concerning the Act of Settlement commenced on the 19th of July, 1661, and were continued till the 11th of April, 1662, as appears by the journal or minutes kept by Sir George Lane as Clerk of the Council, entitled "Abstract of Proceedings concerning the Rebels in Ireland from the 23rd of October, 1641," Liber M, p. 383. The proceedings concerning the Act of Explanation began before the Privy Council at Whitehall on the 9th November, 1663, and were continued until 14th of August, 1665. (Ibid.)

This record of the proceedings before the Council is due to a virulent attack made in the year 1671 upon the conduct of Sir George Lane.

Colonel Richard Talbot complained before the King and Council, in behalf of a great number of persons left without lands by the Acts of Settlement, that as regarded the Instructions to the Commissioners for executing the King's Declaration there had been unauthorized amendments or alterations, and that there were clauses and provisos omitted and others introduced into the Acts of Settlement without warrant. Thereupon Sir George Lane produced these Minutes to justify his action. (See Carte's Life of Ormonde, II., p. 429.)

It is quite impossible to classify the information comprised in these volumes; for the matters are not given in the order of time; very many are undated, nor is there any grouping of subjects.

All that can be said is that these volumes seem to contain all that was in the Council Chamber relating to the Acts of Settlement up to the latest date given in the work, which is 26th of October, 1674. (See Liber A, Papers concerning Free Ports.) It is enough for the present to say that the papers embrace the period between the King's Declaration for the Settlement of Ireland of 30th November, 1660, and the latest date, the 26th October, 1674.

In searching for the origin of these books there is the following passage in the Earl of Essex's State Letters. On the 26th of May, 1675, he writes to the Secretary of State:—"By His Majesty's command all the records of the Kingdom which relate to the distribution of the lands by the Act of Settlement have been searched and extracts made out of them in order to the discovery of concealed lands. This work is contained in twelve or fourteen volumes now ready to be sent over." (State Papers, 8vo, Dublin, 1772, p. 234).

The date accords very well with the concluding date in these volumes. But there is a considerable portion of matter that could not by any possibility help to the discovery of concealed lands which was the object of the Earl of Essex. For instance the explanation of the instructions signed by the Earl of Essex on 26th October, 1674, concerns Free Ports, and cannot be referred in any way to concealed lands.

Turning then in search of some other origin, it is known that in 1671 by the influence of Colonel Richard Talbot, aided, as Carte supposes, in his Life of the Duke of Ormond, by the Duke of Buckingham and the Earl of Anglesey, an attempt was made to upset the Settlement of Ireland as fixed under the Acts of Settlement and Explanation.

It was alleged that various unauthorized differences were to be found between the King's Declaration of 30th November, 1660, and the Acts of Settlement, and there was an Order in Council (the King, Duke of Buckingham, Earl of Anglesey, and others being present), that the Duke of Buckingham, the Earl of Anglesey, the Lord Holles, the Lord Ashly, and Mr. Secretary Trevor, or any three of them were appointed a Committee to peruse all the papers, orders, and writings concerning the Settlement of Ireland from first to last, and to take an abstract thereof in writing, whereby his Majesty might have before him at one view His Majesty's Declaration (which was the first foundation of the said Settlement), the Instructions and Acts of Parliament relating to that affair as they were transmitted from Ireland and amended there, with all orders of Council and Warrants for Grants, Clauses, and Provisos, what alterations had been made and how the whole Settlement then stood.

It would be difficult to give a better description of the contents of these nine volumes, only that there is comprised in them some matters not relating to the Settlement of Ireland, as for instance the papers relating to Trade and Revenue.

What further supports the view that these books were commenced in consequence of the Commission of Inspection is that the certificate of the copy of the Act of Periods, there and often elsewhere called the Act of Explanation, is signed Robert Hamilton, and is dated 6th October, 1672 (Liber B, p. 17.)

It is also to be observed that two of the missing volumes, Liber G and Liber K, were inspected by the Secretary and Sub-Commissioners of the Record Commission amongst the collections of Earl Annesley representative of the Earl of Anglesey, one of the Committee of Inspection into the Settlement. The Government obtained the nine volumes, now transferred to the Public Record Office, from Viscount Mountjoy's representative. By what means they got out of the hands of the Earl of Anglesey's representative does not appear.

The Commission of Inspection was superseded, because of its unpopularity with powerful interests, and it is not improbable that the Earl of Anglesey may have been desirous to efface the memorials of it and had influence enough to obtain possession of these volumes, and have lent them to friends, and have forgotten to get them back. In this way they may have been purchased by Lord Mountjoy.

I have appended to my report a paper of considerable historical interest. It is a Synoptical Table, or Abstract of the Decrees pronounced by the Commissioners of the Court of Claims, on claims of Innocence, and is entitled—"Abstract of the Decrees of the Court of Claims for the trial of Innocents commencing 13th January, 1662." (Liber M, p. 274.) It contains in the first column the pedigree of the claimant, how he derives from the proprietor in possession in anno 1641, the next column the qualifications of Innocent or Nocent, then the counties, where the estates decreed are situated, and the number of profitable Irish acres decreed.

The table commences 13 January, 1663 (1662) old style and ends on the 21 August, in the same year, a period of only seven months. The Commissioners, in accounting for the short time during which the Court sat for hearing Claims of Innocence, presented two papers to the Lord Lieutenant on the 30th November, 1663, entitled "Reasons presented in writing to the Lord Lieutenant by H. M. Commissioners why they conceived it not fit for them to proceed in the execution of the Act of Settlement after the 21 August last, until the obstructions they mentioned should be removed by a new Act." They state that they were confined to the limit of one year for hearing Claims of Innocence, and that by the Act of Settlement the Commissioners were to restore in the first place, such Innocents as took no decrees for lands in Connaught; and secondly, those who took such decrees. The time for restoring all Innocents and making reprisals was limited to 22nd August, 1663, and they spent the time, they say, in restoring Innocents who took out no decrees in Connaught, but those who took out decrees had as yet no opportunity of being heard, and many of them, as the Commissioners suggest, might prove innocent, some having been, as appears by the King's Declaration of 30th November, 1660, transplanted into Connaught merely for their religion. Liber M, p. 1.

In order to account for the short time actually given by the Commissioners to the hearing of Claims of Innocence, which was only seven months, that is to say from the 13th of January to 21st of August, 1663, they say they were delayed after their arrival in Ireland, two months before the Act of Settlement was printed. Ibid, p. 22.

Further delay probably took place in preparing the rules of their proceedings. For they opened their Court, as they report, by reading their Commission on the 20th of September, 1662, and twelve months of four weeks, ended the 21st August, 1663. And then their power for hearing Claims of Innocence determined. (Liber C, 59.)

In this table are contained an abstract of all their Decrees. For when the second Court of Claims was opened on 4th January, 1666, to execute the Act of Explanation, the Court of Innocents was abolished, and though the Decrees of Innocence already given were confirmed, no further claims of Innocence were to be heard.

The foregoing MS. volumes form the interesting transfer of the past year.

The ordinary work of the department has been as follows:—One hundred and thirty-eight Cartons, full of Unregistered Papers, embracing the years 1821 to 1876 inclusive, have been classified and indexed in slips. These Miscellaneous Papers, the arrangement of which is now completed, are the documents of the various years intervening between 1821 and 1876, which being supplemental to the regular series of Governmental Papers, had accumulated to a very great extent, and rendered official references extremely difficult. Every year this work has progressed, and I have now to report that it is completed, so far as the arrangement in Cartons is concerned. A slip Index has been provided, which it will now be my task to have sorted and transcribed for use. Tedious as this work has been, the result will, I have no doubt, prove of important value to the ready production of the State Papers of the period they cover.

A Carton Catalogue has been made to the Papers of 1821 to 1876 inclusive. This catalogue enables the searcher to turn at once to the exact number of the document required, and the number of the Carton in which it is contained.

The index to $\frac{A}{54}$ KILKENNY CONFEDERATES, ORDERS on PROCESS, 1644–1649, referred to in my last report, p. 17, has been duly transcribed into the volume.

The Current Papers of the years 1875 and 1876, were, on the 18th May last, transmitted from the Chief Secretary's Office to this Department. They have been arranged and placed in Cartons 2275–2342.

The Searches, required by the Chief Secretary's Office during the past year, have been very frequent, and have occupied a considerable portion of time. In order to facilitate these searches I have proceeded without cessation, in the completion of the arrangement and indexing of the UNREGISTERED MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your very faithful servant,

J. BERNARD BURKE, Ulster,

Keeper of the State Papers.

Appendix VI.

The Irish Land Commissioners accept the loan of the Landed Estates Court Rentals, now in the Public Record Office, with the following conditions attached to the loan:—

1. The public shall have as free access to these Rentals, when in the custody of the Land Commission, as they enjoy at present.

2. The Index to the Rentals shall remain in the Public Record Office.

3. The Rentals shall be returned in six years from the date of this paper.

4. Whilst the Rentals are in the hands of the Land Commission they shall continue to be under the control and direction of the Master of the Rolls, precisely as if they had remained in the Public Record Office.

5. The volumes of Rentals shall not be torn asunder, and rebound according to parishes.

(Signed), Denis Godley.

24, Upper Merrion-street, Dublin,
11th December, 1886.

I hereby direct the Deputy Keeper to hand over to the Irish Land Commission the Landed Estates Court Rentals now in the Public Record Office, subject to the several conditions specified above.

(Signed), A. M. Porter, M.R.

Rolls Chamber,
20th December, 1886.

THE TWENTIETH REPORT

OF THE

IN IRELAND.

TO THE MOST NOBLE THE MARQUIS OF LONDONDERRY, K.G.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. The Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Justice, Ireland, having become amalgamated under the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench Division, in accordance with the Act 50 and 51 Victoria, chapter 6, the Lord Chief Justice addressed a request to the Master of the Rolls, pursuant to the 14th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, that the records of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Justice in Ireland for the years 1866–1876, inclusive, should be transferred to this Department. A Warrant in accordance therewith was signed, and the records removed here at the same time as the ordinary accruing increment. Queen's Bench. Appendix I. Appendix II.

2. On the application of Mr. Jeremiah Mara, Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the County of Kildare, pointing out the inadequacy of the space at his disposal for the keeping of the records of his office, and the great convenience it would be to the public were the older ones transferred to this Department, application was made to the Lord Lieutenant and Council for an order under the 5th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, with a view to bringing the records in question under its operation, and subsequently an order was made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council on the 2nd of January, 1888, bringing the records in question under the Act, with the intention of their being ultimately transferred to this Office. Kildare, Clerk of the Crown, &c. Appendix III

13. And from the Offices of the Land Judges, Chancery Division, there have been transferred 2,000 Deeds Boxes of the late Landed Estates Court, portion of some 4,500 included in His Honor's warrant of last year. The necessity for putting up fittings to receive them has been the sole cause of the delay in completing this large transfer, but it is expected it will be concluded in the course of the current year.

19 Report, Appendix II.

Blue Coat School, Dublin.

14. The Governors of the Hospital or Free School of King Charles II., near Dublin, commonly known as the Blue Coat School, having applied to the Master of the Rolls for permission, under the 16th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, to deposit their original charter here, His Honor issued his warrant of permission giving them the necessary authority to do so.

Appendix V

Carte Papers.

15. Upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls the Lords of the Treasury sanctioned the purchase by this Department of copies of the papers selected by the late Dr. Russell and Mr. Prendergast, Commissioners appointed by the Lords of the Treasury in 1865, from volumes 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 59, and a portion of volume 60 of the Carte Papers in the Bodleian Library. These copies were made by Mr. Harpur (since deceased) transcriber to the Commissioners, in the expectation that the suspension of the Commission would be only temporary, and comprise 579 documents, all of the "Ormonde" collection of the Carte papers, which, added to the copies (4,945) previously furnished to this Department, form a total of 5,524 papers, the complete list of papers selected by the Commissioners being 7,897. This addition has been bound and deposited in our library in sequence to the former volumes, and the titles of the additional papers have been added to the catalogue.

Probate Division.

16. No records were removed during the past year from the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, the President of that Division having certified that the records are required for the current business of the Division. There are at the present time nearly ten years accretion of Wills, copies of Wills, and other testamentary documents unremoved to this Department, notwithstanding that arrangements were made in 1881 by the then Master of the Rolls, in concert with the Lord Lieutenant in Council and the High Court of Judicature, by which certificates are issued by this Department, in cases where the records have been transferred, in order to obviate the necessity of searches being made in the Public Record Office by officers from the Principal Registry. During the past year twenty-seven certificates have been issued in compliance with requisitions received from the Probate Office.

17. Twenty-seven deeds affecting the rights of the Crown, including twenty-four conveyances of Quit and Crown Rents, have been received and deposited during the year. Crown Deeds

18. On the 5th of May Mr. John Lopdell, Senior Second Class Clerk, sent in his resignation on the ground of ill health. He had been in this Department from its foundation, having been transferred here from the Common Pleas Office in 1868. A pension in accordance with his services has been granted him by the Lords of the Treasury. Vacancies and Appointments

1 Report, s. 11.

Mr. A. J. Fetherstonhaugh, University Student and Scholar of Trinity College, Dublin, was appointed to fill the vacancy thus caused, on the 28th day of November, 1887, and entered upon his duties on the same day.

The vacancy caused by the retirement of the late Mr. Thomas M'Ghee in 1886 still remains unfilled.

The post of Sixth Workman Searcher was filled on the 9th day of June, 1887, by the appointment of Mr. Charles Wright, who was, however, unable to attend until the 20th of the same month.

19. A set of queries was received from the Royal Commission on Civil Establishments, and duly replied to. Royal Commission, Civil Establishments.

Intern.

20. Six bays have had galvanised iron shelving substituted for the old wooden fittings, and four of these, on the sixth floor, have been covered with corrugated galvanised iron sheeting to preserve the records from the dust and mortar which accumulate owing to the continued fall of the rendering from the roof. Six vaults C, D, E, F, G, and H have been fitted with iron racks to receive the Deeds Boxes of the late Incumbered and Landed Estates Courts. Galvanised iron drawers have been fitted to a portion of the fittings in Bay 4 R, to hold the "Usher's Box" collection of deeds and other instruments hitherto preserved in vault D in wooden drawers. Iron Fittings.

I annex a diagram showing the changes made in the deposits and the new work done during the year.

Sorting and arrangement of papers.

21. Much progress has been made in the work of sorting, bundling, and covering with paper the records of the late Incumbered and Landed Estates Courts, removed here during 1886. The affidavits have been arranged in bundles of uniform size and covered with paper, making 165 bundles. The Draft Conveyances from the collection of the late Judge Longfield (1850–1866) have been sorted under the initial letters of their titles into 25 bundles. The like has been done with the Draft Conveyances of Judge Hargreave (1850–1865), making 46 bundles, as well as to other Draft Conveyances, comprising 38 bundles. The Abstracts and Statements of Title of Judge Longfield and the Registrar have been flattened and arranged in dictionary order, making 48 bundles. Petitions and Copy Petitions have been arranged under their letters, and made into 94 bundles; Duplicate Rentals into 8 bundles; Consents and Claims arranged in order of date; Certificates of Appearances placed in numerical sequence; and Schedules of Incumbrances, Paymaster's Certificates and Declarations of Title wrapped in paper, these latter series forming 77 bundles.

Cause Papers, Probate Division. 19 Report, s. 20.

22. The Cause Papers of the Probate Division from letter E to end have been arranged in the dictionary order of their titles, comprising 1,194 causes.

Admiralty Records.

23. The miscellaneous papers removed in 1874 and 1876 from the Court of Admiralty are in process of being arranged in dictionary order of their titles, with a view of making them accessible by means of an exhaustive index.

Christ Church Deeds.

24. Four hundred and thirty-three of the Deeds, Leases, Papal Bulls, &c., of the Christ Church Collection have been separately covered with brown paper, labelled, and placed in tin boxes.

Dublin Marriage License Bonds.

25. The Dublin Marriage License Bonds (1840–1852) have been stamped, flattened, and arranged in bundles.

Church Papers.

26. Twenty-five bundles of Church Papers of the Diocese of Cloyne and 5 bundles of the Diocese of Limerick have been flattened, as also 10 bundles of Rural Deans' Reports and 17 bundles of Visitation Papers.

Bookbinding and Repairing.

27. In the bookbinding and repairing department 8 volumes of transcripts from the Carte Papers, 3 Parochial Registers, 14 Diocesan Registers, 8 Will and Grant Books, and 2 volumes of Landed Estates Rentals have been bound. Five Hundred sheets of Marriage License Bonds, 20 of Landed Estates Affidavits, and 15 of Chancery Reports have been repaired, as also 64 Membranes of Rolls and 7 Wills, besides other incidental work.

Indexing and Calendaring.

Fiants, Elizabeth. 19 Report, s. 37.

28. Considerable progress has been made in the compilation of the Index to the Fiants of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, which it was at one time hoped might have been completed in time to have been printed in this Report, but it has proved to be a work of greater magnitude and labour than was anticipated.

Receivers' and Guardians' Accounts. 19 Report, s. 32.

29. The combined Index to the volumes of Receivers' and Guardians' Accounts, Chancery, commencing in April, 1843, has been drafted down to the year 1856.

30. A copy has been made of the volume of the Index to Prerogative Wills and Grants for the years 1847, 1848, and 1849, with the intention of placing it in the Search-room for reference, in lieu of that removed here from the Probate Registry, which had become worn out and in parts almost indecipherable from constant use. Prerogative Wills.

31. The combined Index to the volumes of Chancery Petitions mentioned in my last Report, has been engrossed after having been carefully compared with the volumes from which the Index was compiled, and is now in the hands of the binder. Chancery Petitions. 19 Report, s 32

32. A very full and accurate Index Nominum to the Crown Rental for 1613 was made by Mr. George Battersby, late of the Quit Rent Office. This he was kind enough to present to the Department, and, after having been compared with the original and engrossed, it has been prefixed to the volume, the value of which, as a reference in respect to questions of title, is thereby much enhanced. Crown Rental, 1613.

33. The Index to Writs de lunatico inquirendo, transferred here from the Hanaper Office, has been completed to the year 1864, and the entire volume transcribed afresh. Writs in Lunacy. 10 Report, s. 25.

34. Draft Indexes have been formed to the Will and Grant Books of the Dioceses of Meath (1667–1731) and Ardagh (1762–1802 and 1839–1858), and where Wills are of record in these books that do not appear in the Indexes to the original Wills of those Dioceses, the Indexes have been amended by their insertion. These Indexes have been compared and are ready for engrossment. Meath and Ardagh Dioceses.

35. A volume of Grants of Administration, Diocese of Killala and Achonry (1800–1857) has also been indexed. Diocese of Killala and Achonry.

36. Of the Draft Indexes made to the Administration Bonds, those for the Dioceses of Cloyne, Connor, Down, Killala and Achonry, Tuam, and Waterford and Lismore have been compared, and those for Ardagh, Ardfert, Clogher, and Clonfert compared and engrossed. Administration Bonds Index. 19 Report, s. 33.

37. A consolidated detailed index has been prepared for the Records of the Incumbered and Landed Estates Courts to page 110, and the consolidated Index for the Queen's Bench has been extended to page 501, for the Common Pleas to page 407, for the Law Exchequer to page 403, and for the Equity Exchequer to page 211. The following detailed indexes have also been extended —Record Tower Collection to page 274, Custom House Collection to page 335, Testamentary to page 55, Chancery, volume 2, to page 413, and Miscellaneous General Collections to page 292. Detailed Indexes.

38. A Calendar to the ancient Bulls, Grants, Leases, and other muniments belonging to the collection deposited here in 1872 by the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church Cathedral was formed by Mr. M. J. M'Enery of this office under instructions from the Christ Church Collection.

16 Report, s. 27. late Deputy Keeper. A portion of it comprising the earlier documents, which are of more general historic interest, has been compared with the original deeds and printed. (Appendix VII.)

Appendix VII. The Deeds, the calendar of which is now printed, were copied into the "Novum Registrum" of Christ Church Cathedral in the last century by Dr. Lyon, who has also in many instances given copies of the seals then attached, many of which are not now in existence. It is proposed on some future occasion to print the remaining portion of the calendar of the Christ Church Collection comprising the leases together with the documents preserved with them.

Index to Reports.

39. An Index has been formed to the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, which will be found in Appendix VIII.

Reports of Custodians.

40. The reports for the year 1887 furnished by the parochial officers having charge of their parish registers under orders of retention from His Honor the Master of the Rolls, have been returned with great exactness. Out of 471 parishes the reports of none are wanting. In my last Report I mentioned that complaints were made of damp affecting the records, but it has been satisfactory to learn that the measures taken to obviate this evil proved completely successful in the cases reported last year, and that the number of complaints this year has been reduced to five, and those of a very slight nature.

St. Luke's, Cork.

41. St. Luke's Church, Cork, was destroyed by fire in the early part of the year, and as the parish registers were kept in the vestry, under His Honor's retention order, I communicated with the Incumbent, and in reply was informed that the records were quite uninjured, the portion of the building in which they were not having suffered from the fire.

Portarlington Registers.

42. Amongst the annual Warrants for the removal of parochial records to this Department, was one for the parish of St. Michael, Portarlington, on the resignation of the Very Rev. John Wolseley, Dean of Kildare. When executing it, the volume of Baptisms returned in the Inventory, dated 16 December, 1875, as comprising 1816–1819 and 1841–1848 was not forthcoming, and on application being made to the Dean he stated that he had not got it, and was therefore unable to forward it. An instance (one of many) of the unsatisfactory working of the Parochial Records Acts.

Collection of Parochial Records.

43. A practice has been adopted during the past year of obtaining the assistance of the parochial officers to forward to this Department per parcels post the registers of the parishes whose records became attachable by the Warrant of the Master of the Rolls, instead of sending an Officer to collect them. The latter practice was doubtless most advisable when the parishes whose records were to be transferred were numerous, but as they are now few and much scattered the cost per parish had become very considerable. Of course, the new practice depends largely for its success on the co-operation of the clergy concerned, but that has hitherto been afforded most ungrudgingly, and I have on behalf of the public to return them my most grateful thanks. This change in the mode of collection has resulted in a decided saving to the public funds, and has proved so far very satisfactory.

Changes in place of deposit of Parish Registers.

44. The registers of 25 parishes became attachable by His Honor's Warrant during the year. Of these 15 have been transferred to this custody, and 10 remain in local custody by virtue of His Honor's retention orders. The three tables subjoined show the changes in places of deposit and custody of Parochial Records during 1887.

J. J. DIGGES LA TOUCHE,

Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

A. M. PORTER.

Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX.

Appendix I.

Pursuant to the Public Record (Ireland) Act, sec. 14, I hereby request that the Records of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland for the years 1866 to 1876, both inclusive, may be removed to the Public Record Office forthwith.

Dated this 6th of September, 1887.

M. Morris, C. J.

To the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls.

Appendix II.

Warrant under sec. 14 of 30 & 31 Vic., cap. 70.

Warrant for the removal to the Public Record Office of Ireland of the Records of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Justice in Ireland for the years 1866 to 1876, both inclusive, and Records over twenty years.

Whereas the Right Honorable Sir Michael Morris, Baronet, Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in Ireland, has requested by letter dated the 6th day of September, 1887, that the Records of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Justice in Ireland for the years 1866 to 1876, both inclusive, may be removed to the Public Record Office of Ireland pursuant to the third proviso of the fourteenth section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867. And, whereas there would appear to be certain records, books, and documents of the aforesaid Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the age of twenty years, from the making thereof, still remaining unremoved to the Public Record Office. And, whereas it appears to me to be to the public advantage that the said records should be removed to the said Public Record Office. Now, I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland, do hereby, with the approbation of the Right Honorable the Lord Baron Ashbourne, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, testified by his countersigning these presents, under and by virtue of the provisions of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, appoint you John James Digges La Touche, Esquire, LL.D., the Deputy Keeper of the Records in Ireland, or in your stead some or one of the officers of the said Public Record Office, to attend the several offices of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, and in my name to receive and take charge of all the Records of the said Divisions of and for the years 1866 to 1876, both inclusive, and also of all the records, books, and documents of the aforesaid divisions of the age of twenty years from the making thereof, according to the specification and description of the same set out in the schedule hereunto annexed.

And for so doing this shall be your sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand this fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

A. M. Porter, M.R.

Approved and countersigned by me,

Ashbourne, C.

Appendix III.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland.

Londonderry—

Whereas by section 5 of the "Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867," it is provided that it should be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to order that Records belonging to Her Majesty deposited in any office, court, place, or custody in Ireland other than is thereinbefore mentioned should be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and thereupon the provisions of that Act should extend to all such Records, and to the persons then having the charge or custody of the same, as fully as if such office, court, place, or custody had been named and included in that Act. And, whereas, it has been represented unto Us by the Deputy Keeper of the Records that there are at present deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the County of Kildare, in the Courthouse at Naas, in the County of Kildare, Records belonging to Her Majesty which have accumulated since the year 1798; and that the said office does not afford due accommodation for the same, or for their proper arrangement and safe preservation, and that consequently the said Records are liable to suffer damage and loss. And, whereas, it appears to Us necessary and desirable to provide for the safe custody and proper arrangement of the aforesaid Records, and of other similar Records which may be from time to time deposited in the said Office of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the County of Kildare. Now We, Charles Stewart, Marquess of Londonderry, the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us as aforesaid, do hereby order that all Records, as defined by section 3 of the aforesaid Act, belonging to Her Majesty, and which have been for over twenty years deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the County of Kildare, shall be henceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls: and we do hereby further, by and with the advice aforesaid, order that all Records defined as aforesaid which have been deposited in the said office within the last twenty years or which shall hereafter be deposited therein, shall, so soon as same shall have been deposited for over twenty years, be from thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

Appendix IV.

To the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls.—The Twentieth Report of Sir Bernard Burke, C.B., Ulster King of Arms, Keeper of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, dated 2nd February, 1888.

Sir,—I have transferred during the past year nine volumes of Civil Books of Entries, being the remaining part of the Council Office collection of books, which will be found catalogued in the Supplement to the Eighth Report of the Public Record Commissioners (1819), pp. 227 and 228. They comprise :—

Shipping, ... 1630–1638, $\frac{A}{97}$

Kilkenny Confederation, 5 Volumes :—

1. Orders on Process, . . . 1644–1649, $\frac{A}{54}$
2. Arrears of Assessments, . . 1645–1649, $\frac{A}{99}$
3. Arrears of Assessments, . . 1645–1649, $\frac{A}{98}$
4. Assessments and Assignments, . 1647–1648, $\frac{A}{56}$
5. Assessments and Assignments, . 1648–1649, $\frac{A}{55}$

Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council, 1661–1663, $\frac{A}{94}$

Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council, 1663–1669, $\frac{A}{95}$

Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council, 1682–1688, $\frac{A}{107}$

These nine Volumes have been duly indexed by this Department, as stated under the heading "Work done." A minute description of their contents, with extracts therefrom, is added to this report.

Work done during the Year 1887.

I. The Index to the Unregistered Miscellaneous Papers, 1821–1876, alluded to in my last (19th) Report, pp. 39 and 40, has been sorted in dictionary order, and transcribed into three large volumes. The Papers to which this Index refers fill 705 Cartons, and the number of entries contained in the three volumes amounts to more than ten thousand.

II. Eight books of entries of the Council Office Collection have been indexed in slips (one Volume, $\frac{A}{51}$, was indexed in 1886), each index sorted in dictionary order, and duly transcribed into its respective volume. The following are the books :—

SHIPPING,	1630–1638
KILKENNY CONFEDERATION :—
ARREARS OF ASSESSMENTS,	1645–1649.	2 Vols
ASSESSMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS,	1647–1649.	2 Vols.
AFFIDAVITS OF SERVICE OF ORDERS OF COUNCIL,	1661–1688.	3 Vols.

III. There is a valuable and interesting collection of documents and letters, transferred to this office from the Chief Secretary's Office in 1859. A few are dated in the 17th century, but the series refers principally to the years intervening between 1701 and 1834. A general Index was formed to the collection in 1860, but it has been found insufficient. I have accordingly directed to be made a more minute description of the contents of the headings—"Miscellaneous Letters;" "Correspondence; Irish Miscellaneous;" "Letters to Mr. Pitt," and others, and similar references. This Index is in course of preparation; slips have been made up to 1787.

IV. Suitable Indexes have been made (and bound in one volume) to the following :—

BARRACK CORRESPONDENCE,	1703–1793.	5 bundles.
MILITARY COMMISSIONS,	1715–1763.	1 bundle.
MILITARY CONTRACTS,	1710–1760.	6 bundles.
MILITARY NOTIFICATIONS,	1702–1767.	15 bundles.
MILITARY CERTIFICATES, MISCELLANEOUS,	1684–1774.	4 bundles.
MILITARY—GENERAL and other OFFICERS' CORRESPONDENCE,	1686–1776.	5 bundles.

V. CHIEF SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Letters from 1760–1831, 50 bundles have been catalogued.

VI. A draft index has been also made to OFFICIAL PAPERS, 1854–1886, Carton 557 A.

I may add that the Papers of the Royal Commission (Irish Land Acts, 1886–7), contained in two large tin boxes, have, by order of the Government, been transmitted to this department.

TRANSFERS.

The following books of entries and papers have been transferred from this Department to the Public Record Office, 13th December, 1887 :—

I. The Nine Volumes of the COUNCIL OFFICE COLLECTION described in the first part of this report.

II. MILITARY CERTIFICATES, MISCELLANEOUS, 1681–1774, Cartons 43 and 44.

III. MILITARY COMMISSIONS, 1715–1763, Carton 44.

IV. MILITARY—GENERAL and other OFFICERS' CORRESPONDENCE, 1686–1776, Cartons 45, 46, and 47.

V. BARRACK CORRESPONDENCE, 1703–1793, 5 bundles. Tin box 5.

VI. Military Contracts, 1710–1760, 6 bundles. Tin box 5.
VII. Military Notifications, 1702–1767, 15 bundles. Tin box 6.
VIII. Chief Secretary's Office, Copies of Letters from, 1760–1831, 50 bundles.

The Searches required by the Chief Secretary's Office during the past year have been very frequent, and have occupied a considerable portion of time.

The Council Office Collection calls for a more complete description.

The nine volumes of the Council Office Collection already mentioned comprise three series or classes of MS. books.

The First Volume refers to "Shipping, 1630–1638."

The Second Series consists of five volumes of the period of the Civil War, being Books of the Kilkenny Confederation from 1644 to 1649. These records were briefly noticed in my Eighteenth Report, dated 1st of February, 1886. A further description of them is given in this my present report.

The Third Series consists of three volumes of the Reigns of King Charles II. and King James II. They comprise Affidavits of Service of Orders of the Council, and commence in 1661, and end in 1688.

The volume entitled "Shipping, 1630–1638," covers the period during which Sir Adam Loftus, and Richard Earl of Cork, were Lords Justices.

Then come the Letters and Orders of Wentworth, Lord Deputy, afterwards made Lord Lieutenant and Earl of Strafford.

The Orders and Letters concern principally the guarding of the coasts against pirates, Turkish and other sea rovers, with Instructions to the Commanders how to carry out the Orders of the State, with various Orders for furnishing the ships with stores.

Great alarm had spread through the whole of Ireland (and England too) by the sack of Baltimore by a pirate fleet from Algiers, in June, 1631. Since that time they had frequented the coast, and sounded the harbours.

On the 11th February, 1631–2, the Lords Justices and Council excuse themselves for the Turks' surprisal of Baltimore by saying it was in the night, and they were gone in the morning with all their prisoners, their stay not being beyond twelve hours. They had made prisoner at sea of a fisherman of Dungarvan, one Hacket, and employed him to steer them into Baltimore, and Hacket showed much disloyalty, as he might have steered them (if he would) into some other harbour where they might have been captured.*

The Lords Justices add that they have had intelligence from Sir Vincent Gookin (a settler, it may be stated, at Court-mac-Sherry, in the Munster plantation), who had his information from a captive lately escaped from the Turks, that the Turks intended another expedition the following summer with such a number of ships as would enable them, by dispersing their forces, to take different towns at once.

The planters (the Lords Justices continue) may by this terror be chased away, and the fishers of pilchards, who in some years have made £15,000, in some £20,000. Mr. Counter had his wife and seven sons captured by the Turks, and carried from Baltimore to Algiers, and was about to claim relief for his loss. Signed at the head, Adam Loftus, Canc., R. Corke. And by the following Privy Councillors :—Lord Primate, Ld. Wilmot, Ld. Moore, Ld. Claneboye, Ld. Kilmallock, Ld. Ranelagh, Ld. Dillon, Ld. Balfoure, Ld. Caulfeild, Ld. Esmonde, Ld. Ch. Justice, Mr. of the Wards, Ld. Ch. Baron, Sir Wm. Stewart, Sir J. Erskin. $\frac{A}{97}$, pp. 41–46.

On 20th July, 1636, Sir Adam Loftus, Canc., and Sir Christopher Wandesforde, Lords Justices, inform the President of Munster that the Turkish Fleet of eight ships had within these twelve days surprised some ships in the harbour of Bristol, and taken prisoners 200 men. And that the Turks had forty ships divided into squadrons of eight or ten dispersed into different parts. Signed at the head as above, and at foot by the following of the Council :—Ld. Primate, Ld. Chief Justice of Chief Plaee, Ld. Dillon, Ld. Bishop of Meath, Ld. Chief Baron, Sir Robt. Meredith. $\frac{A}{97}$, pp. 215, $\frac{A}{+}$ 18.

In May, 1632, the Lords Justices inform the Privy Council of a Biscay-ner pirate at the mouth of the Harbour, as it were in their very faces, who had chased two merchant ships. They impute it to the delay of the Commanders of the two King's pinnaces, the Fifth and Ninth Lion's Whelps, who linger over in England. And they have no hopes until the ships are in the hands of those resident in Ireland, when it would be otherwise. $\frac{A}{97}$, pp. 56–59.

On 24th July, 1632, Lord Chancellor Loftus and Richard Earl of Cork, Lords Justices, inform the Council at White Hall, that no sooner had the Biscay-ner departed than Nutt (who seems to have been a notorious pirate) took his place, by reason of the absence of the two pinnaces appointed to guard these coasts. Nutt last night chased two barques with passengers, who being near Howth Head thought to escape to land, but he reached them with his shot, and made prisoners of them in view of our very good lord the Lord Baron of Howth, and divers others, who also saw seventeen boat loads of plunder brought to Nutt's ship. Dated, Castle of Dublin, 23rd July, 1632, (and signed) Adam Loftus, Chancellor, and Richard Earl of Cork. $\frac{A}{97}$, pp. 64–66.

In 1638, in Wentworth's time, there is a letter of the Lord Deputy and Council, that the ship called the Zutphen, of Amsterdam, lately at Killybegs, broke bulk there contrary to law, endeavoured to bribe the Customs Officer, sold much merchandise there, broke into houses and took what they would at their own prices, and threatened to burn the town, and so terrified the Lady Coatch (Coach) and Mrs. Hamilton, both dwelling near Killybegs, that Lady Coatch in her terror crossed the mountains barefoot, and Mrs. Hamilton was so terrified that she miscarried of a child, and was in danger of her life. Dated, 20th January, 1637–8. (Signed), at head, Wentworth. At foot, R. Dillon, Wm. Parsons, Chr^r. Wandesforde, Geo. Radcliff. $\frac{A}{97}$ (p. 282).

I now proceed.

The Kilkenny Confederate Records.

The Books of the Kilkenny Confederation are only a fragment of the great body of records and papers of that celebrated body seized by Colonel Solomon Richards, in or about the month of February, 1654.

On 20th February in that year he was directed to make inquiry after all the records, books, papers, &c., of the late General Assembly of the Confederate Catholics in Ireland, and of all Courts established by them, and to send such as he could collect, by some trusty officer from garrison to garrison, to the Commissioners of the Commonwealth at Dublin ($\frac{A}{85}$, p. 30.) The Records thus seized were duly transmitted. They comprised all the nominations and appointments to the various public offices, created by the Confederate Catholics; but of all these valuable records the accompanying books of public accounts only remain. During the Cromwellian era they were used at the Court of Transplantation (called the Court of Claims and Qualifications of the Irish) at Athlone. They were sent to Athlone on 1st April, 1655 ($\frac{A}{5}$ 16), and the Court of Transplantation there having ended on 24th June, 1656, they were sent to the Court at Mallow for hearing the claims of the Old English (Catholic) inhabitants, who had been forcibly expelled from Cork, Kinsale, and Youghal in 1648 by the Earl of Inchiquin, then Commander of the English or Protestant forces for the safety of those garrisons, notwithstanding their constant loyalty. On 24th September, 1656, the Court at Mallow, being over, "Captain Edward Tomlins, comptrouling the Trayne was ordered to prepare a close wagon to send to Mallow for these records to be brought back to Dublin: And the Lord Henry Cromwell was to order a sufficient convoy for guarding the same on their way" ($\frac{A}{10}$ 170).

And by order of 10th of October, 1656, Mathew Doyle, wagon master, being appointed to convey the records of the late Courts of Athlone and Mallow to Dublin, the Governors of Kilmallock and Callan were to furnish four horse soldiers as a convoy between those towns, and none of the guard on the way to depart from his duty, but constantly to attend the guarding of the wagons (Ib. 189). And by order of 12th November, 1656 (the records being arrived), Mr. Enoch Golborne was to take charge of all the records, papers, &c., lately come from Athlone and Mallow to the Castle of Dublin (Ibid, 218).

At Dublin the books and papers were carefully indexed. Mr. Nicholas Coombes, Nicholas Browne, and Thos. Warren "being persons appointed to alphabelt the Bookes of the Supreame Council at Kilkenny," were on 29th of May, 1654, ordered respectively salaries of £100, £55, and £50 for the work ($\frac{A}{23}$ 7). And John Smith, for his pains in making catalogues of Books taken at Waterford and Kilkenny, was on the same date to be paid six pounds sterling out of the Treasury at Waterford. Signed, Chas. Fleetwood, Miles Corbett, and John Jones. (Order Book of Council Office. Vol. 10. Late Landed Estates Record Office.) Equal use was made of these Records at the Restoration by the Court of Claims, and it was a common order that the Books at the King's Inns be searched for proof of nocency. They hence got to be called THE BLACK BOOKS. Thus on the 16th June, 1670, William Cooper was ordered to be paid Fifty Pounds (£50) for having had "the keeping and had now delivered up as ordered the Books of Discrimination (commonly called the Black Books), with the Kilkenny Books, Rolls of Association, Proceedings of the Supreme Council, Books of Claims, and Decrees of Athlone, and Transplantation Books" (Auditor General's Records).

It is impossible to exaggerate the historical loss of all these records.

After the closing of the Court of Claims, 4th January, 1669–70, the muniments of Evidence used before the Court which sate in the Court of Wards at the King's Inns (where now the Four Courts stand) were sent to a Chamber in the New Custom House, then on the south bank of the Liffey, just east of Essex's Bridge, a large heavy-corniced brick building, pourtrayed in Brooking's Map of Dublin, 1728. From thence they were removed to the Elephant in Lower Essex-street. And there, on Sunday afternoon the 15th April, 1711, a great fire broke out, and did irreparable damage.

Dr. Richard Stone, Her Majesty's Surveyor-General of Lands, reports that the office contained the Strafford, the Down, the Civil, and Gross Surveys, with the Books of Distribution, Claims, Reports, Decrees, Final Settlements, Inquisitions, and Surveys taken upon the Dissolution of Abbeys and Monasteries in Ireland, all which (says Dr. Stone) are likewise consumed, excepting some Reports and Rough Books of Distribution, &c.

Strafford's Survey (he adds), which contained the admeasurement of the Province of Connaught, and some part of Munster, is altogether entirely lost, together with all other papers and books thereto belonging.

The Civil and Gross Surveys are also lost excepting some scraps which when put in order may be of use." He enumerates the Maps of Dr. Petty's Down Survey severally lost and saved or injured in part. (Pub. Record Office. Vol. I. E. 3, 73.)

Considering this great destruction of records, it is well to have even these books of public Accounts of the Kilkenny Confederate Catholics.

With this view I have made a few selections to indicate the nature of these Books.

Volume Endorsed "Orders on Process, 1644–1649." $\frac{A}{54}$

This book is long and narrow, over one foot in length, and only three inches wide.

The Kilkenny Confederates had their established Courts of Justice, and this book regards the processes served and some other proceedings in court.

The first page has three entries, which are given as a specimen.

Hence it appears that the Court was held at Grace's Court, where the Assize Court and Court of Jail Delivery is held to this day, every Commission stating that the Court is to be held "at Grace's Old Castle," though the present Courts and Borough Jail must have been built in comparatively modern times. This volume like the rest of the series contains loose scraps of paper verifying the service of process, some of them sworn before George Blancheville.

There is also a Ger. Blancheville whose name, jointly with Edmund Shee and Peter Roth, appears to many orders on these flying slips, all three being probably Resident Commissioners for the County of Kilkenny, spoken of above.

The next volume is a book of public accounts containing the sums assessed on each "Horseman's Bed," a well known measure of land in the seventeenth century. On the first page is the following as the first Entry:—

"July 10th, 1647. Bar-de-Gouran—

Mr. Edmund Archdeacon [Archdeken] of Cloghla, collector of £3 10*s.* per Bed imposed per order of this date and payable to the Threasury on or before 14th of July, 1647, oweth out of the said Barony, being 16½ Beds, the sum of £57 15*s.* 0*d.*"

On the opposite side seem to be credited payments :—

Deb. a	17th July, 1647, G. Shee,	40	0	0
Deb. ac	23rd July, 1647, G. Shee,	9	0	0
Deb.	29th July, 1647, G. Shee,	4	10	0

The next (and only other) entry on this page is as follows :—

"July 10th, 1647. Bar-de-Ida, &c.

Mr. Piers Butler of Annaghs, Collector of £3 10*s.* 0*d.* per Bed imposed by Order of this date and payable into the Threasury, oweth out of the said Barony, being ⅓ beds the sum of £42 10*s.* 0*d.*"

On the opposite page :—

"Deb. ac., 22 July, 1647, G. Shee, £39 0*s.* 0*d.*, Assigned by Order of 27th July, 1649, to Mr. Edmund Murphy, £2 18*s.* 5*d.*"

On a loose or flying slip of paper attached to the above entry by a red wafer is the following entry ;

"Delinquents of the Tax of £3 10*s.* 0*d.*, imposed per bed in the Barony of Ida, Igrin, and Ibercon. Inprimis Manneroe 2 acres, 3*s.* 4*d*, Richard Butler, proprietor, Ballinligge, 5 acres, 7*s.* 8*d*, Ellinor Baron, proprietor.

"Gillaghmore, 3 acres, 4*s.* 7*d.*, Patrick Den and Thos. Wailsh, proprietors.

Witness my hand, 22nd July, 1647.

"Piers Butler."

Among the many loose slips attached by red wafers or by pins now black with age, are the specifications of lands wasted by the Civil War. At p. 15 are two slips as follows :—

On a flying slip at p. 28 is the following:—

The humble peticon of the poore tenants of the Abbey of Kells and Blacke Rothe. } To the Right worshipful the resident Commissioners for the county of Kilkenny.

Humbly sheweth unto your worships that your poore petitioners are tenants unto James Butler of Dangin from yeare to yeare, at the fourth sheafe and other casualties, and that they have paid their last yeare's rent thereout, and that now they are charged with the fourth parte, which they humbly conceive is due of the said James, who utterly refuseth to pay the same, by means whereof the Collectors of the fourth parte have cessed troopers on yor. peticoners as delinquents, to their utter undoinge, if not by your wisdoms soone relieved.

The premises considered and forasmuch as they are liable to all the cess and presse, without anie contribution from their said landlord. That yor· worships may be pleased to compell their said landlord to pay the same, or if you thinke [fit] to direct yor· warrant unto the Collectors to cesse the said troopers on him, as hereby yor· peticoners may not be further molested. AFFIDAVITS of the SERVICE of ORDERS of COUNCIL.

From these Kilkenny Confederate Public Accounts I pass to the Books of Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council.

This series contains a body of Evidence shewing the great unsettlement of Ireland at the Restoration, the parties out of possession (the old proprietors) hoping and striving to recover possession.

First comes the petition of Lady Grace Talbot (otherwise Lady Grace Calvert, daughter of Calvert, Lord Baltimore), wife of Sir Robert Talbot, eldest brother of Colonel Richard Talbot, afterwards made Duke of Tyrconnell and Lord Lieutenant of Ireland by King James II., concerning the Tythes of Larabrien, not then finally restored to the Established Church, being an inducement to the Bench of Bishops in the Peers House in Ireland to pass the Act of Settlement. Sir Robert himself was at this time in prison for debt incurred for his fellow-sufferers and fellow-claimants before the King and Council.

30th Nov., 1661.

The Lady Grace Talbott in ye behalfe of her husband, Sir Robert Talbott, Pltffs.; Wm. Brereton, Clke, Deft. } James Ford made faith that on the 16th day of July last hee repaired to ye Deft.'s dwelling house or usuall place of aboade in Maynoothe, in the Co. of Kildare, purpossing to shew him the Lords Justices' Order dated 15th July, 1661, and not meeting him, shewed the said Order to the Deft.'s wife, and delivered a coppy thereof, and Deponent did then see the Deft.'s wife deliver the coppy to one of the servants, and heard her tell the said servant to deliver it to the Deft., by which order the Deft. was desired to permitt the said Sir Robert Talbott, or the Pltff. in his absence, to receive and enjoy the tythes mentioned in the said Order. Provided that if His Majesty should think fitt to restore the said Tythes to the Church in such case the said Sir Robert Talbott should be answerable to the Incumbent of the Parish of Laraghbrien for such profitts as he should receive out of the said Tythes in the meantime, and leave the possession thereof to the Incumbent.

Yet the said Deft. doth not permitt the Pltffs. to enjoy the Tythes aforesaid, for that severall of the persons to whom the said Pltffs. sett part of the said Tythes tould Deponent that the Defendant would not suffer them to pay the money due by them for the said Tythes to the Pltffs., and Deponent was tould that the said Deft. did take some parte of the Tythe-hay belonging to the said parish into his owne possession.—Jur., M. B.*

Then follows the petition of Thomas Preston, third Viscount Tara, and of his aunt, Miss Mary Warren, daughter of Anthony Warren, of the King's County. The grandfather, General Thomas Preston, second son of Christopher, fourth Viscount Gormanston, was made General in command of the Leinster forces of the Confederate Catholics from 1642 to 1650, and was created by King Charles II. Viscount Tara by patent dated at Ennis in 1650.

He retired in 1650 to France, and was ordered by the King of France to command some French forces in Catalonia. He died in 1654, and was succeeded by Antony, second Viscount Tara. After his father's death Antony, Lord Tara, retired to Bruges, and must there have died, leaving his widow, Lady Tara, surviving, and his son Thomas, third Viscount, a minor.

At the Restoration (as appears by the "coppie of a letter writt with the King's owne hand," in the Carte collection) the King addressed the following to the Earl of Orrery, one of the Lords Justices :—

"White Hall, 4th of August, 1662.

"My Lord Orrery,—

"When I came first to Bruges, in Flanders, and was far from being in a good condition, I found my Lord Taragh there who invited me to his house, where I lodged near a month, till I could provide another place for myself, and during the whole time of my aboad in those parts he gave me frequent evidence of his good affection and dutie to me, which I resolved to have requited if he had lived.

"And therefore since hee and his wife are dead, I must particularly recommend his children to you, and likewise their aunt, Miss Warren, who was there likewise at Bruges, to your care that they may be out of hand put into the possession of ye severall lands which belong to them; of which you are to advertise the other Lords Justices, to the end that you may all give effectual orders to the Commissioners to that purpose, and let them know I expect a good account of this business.

"Yor. very affectionate frend,

"CHARLES, R."†

On 28th of April, 1663, Thomas Lord Viscount Tarragh, son of Antony Preston by Margret Warren, recovered with Mary Warren by Decree of Innocence in the Court of Claimes 1,923 acres, Irish plantation measure, in the King's County. Before this Decree, on 29th of November, 1661, the Lords Justices endeavoured to restore Viscount Tarragh and his aunt to their lands, "but the Adventurers or Souldiers in possession were not to be disposed of so easily, as appears by the following :—

" 29th Nov., 1661.

" Lord Viscount Tarragh and Mary Warren, . . Pltffs.
" Captan Richard Dene and others, ... Dfts.

George Arthur made faith that on 20th November, inst., hee shewed Colonell Edward Warren, holding Ballybrittar, in the King's County, the Lord Justices' Order of 14th Novr., 1661. Also to George Sankey, holding BallymacWilliam, and on 23rd of the sd month to Captain Richard Dene, holding Tubberdaly (and deponent enumerates other tenants of the lands of the Estate of the Lord Viscount Tarragh and Mary Warren), by which Order they were not to disturb the tenants of the said Lord Viscount and Mary Warren. But they forced the said tenants to pay notwithstanding the said Order.

"On 4th March, 1661-2 (in the same suit) Edmond Bourke made faith that by warrant of the Lords Justices of 18th of February, 1661-2, he attached the Deft., and desired him to come along with him, which hee refused to doe, but took the Deponent by the shoulder and violently thrust him downe a payre of stone staires, and but that the Deponent saved himself with his hands hee had fallen down, and would have been in danger of his life."

"Jur: M. B."

But nothing could avail; and in compassion to "the wants and sad condition of Miss Warren, and the orphans of the late Lord Tarragh," the King ordered her a weekly allowance till they should be restored to their Estate. On 13th of January 1663 (when they had only re-received twenty-four weeks allowance) he again interfered, probably with no better success. For in 1682 it was again in arrear, and Ormonde "hoped it would be paid in consideration of the reception she gave the King and all of us" at Bruges, in her sister's house.*

On 5th June, 1649, Ormonde assumed the command of the Confederate Catholic forces, and with them were united for a short space of time Inchiquin's Protestant Regiments.

But in 1650, owing to the opposition of the Catholic Hierarchy, Ormonde was forced to dismiss his Protestant forces, and in December, 1650, he and Inchiquin embarked for France. But already in July, 1647, when Ormonde surrendered Dublin and its adjacent garrisons to the Parliament, the King's forces for the greater part turned over to the Parliament, Ormonde after the Restoration excusing them as being the only means they then had of living. Others, however, remained faithful to the Royal cause, and as Cromwell had divided all the lands of the Transplanted Catholic Irish among his own forces, the Protestant Royalists found that the only things left for them was the house property of the Irish in cities and borough towns, and the four Counties of Leitrim, Donegal, Wicklow, and Longford, which had been set aside for those Regiments that had betrayed the Munster garrisons to Cromwell. But the betrayers of the Munster garrisons not having actually received possession of the four counties, these and the city and borough house property of the Irish were seized by the Protestant Officers who served the King before 5th June, 1649, called shortly, the "49 Officers."

In the following extract appears the first motion for obtaining possession of this house property ;—

7 June, 1662

Alexander Pigott, Esq., made faith that on the 6th of this inst. June hee demanded of Edmund Goddericke, Under Sheeriff of the County of Dublin, by the Order of the Lords Justices of the 4th of February of this year, the severall forfeited houses in the Borough of Swords allotted by H.M. Declaration and Instructions to the Officers who served H.M. in Ireland before the 5th of June, 1649, in payment of the said Officers' Arrears.

* C. P. ccxix., 239. Ormonde to Arran, London, 26th September, 1682.

But the said Under Sheriffe refused.

The following petition of the Antient Inhabitants of Galway against the New Corporation gives a good instance of the unsettlement of affairs at the Restoration, and shews the violence and contempt of the Cromwellians in possession against even so high a body as the Lords Justices and Council of Ireland ;—

The 17th of February, 1661.

Sir Thomas Blake and others of the ould Inhabitants of the Towne of Gallway, in the behalfe of themselves and others of the said Towne, . . Pltffs. ;
John Eyre, Mayor, and Edward Eyre, Recorder, on the behalfe of themselves and others of the Protestant Inhabitants of the towne of Gallway, . Defendts.

Martin French made faith that on or about the 8th day of February Inst. he shewed to Gabriel King, of the Towne of Gallway, Alderman, and John Warde, an attested coppy of an Order of the Rt. Honble. the Lords Justices and Council, dated the 24th day of February Inst., and delivered unto each of them coppies thereof: And that thereuppon the said Warde in a contemptuous manner threw the coppy of the said Order soe delivered unto him into the gutter.

That on or about the same day hee repaired to the dwelling-house of Paul Dodd, Alderman, situate in the said Towne of Galway, purposeing to shew him the attested coppy of the said Order, but that not meeting him hee left a coppy thereof with his wife, who upon delivery thereof threw it from her, and bade him wipe it to his taile, and cuffed the deponent about the face. And the deponent verily believes were it not that hee immediately rann away from her, she had further abused him.

The deponent above deposeth that on or about the same day hee repaired to the respective dwelling-houses of John Murry and Robert Breck, Sherriffes of the said towne, and to the respective dwelling-houses of George Cashier, Wm. Jones, John Strain, and Henry Blood wick, purposeing to shewe them respectively the attested coppy of the Order aforesaid, but that not meeting them, nor any of them, he shewed the same at their houses, and left coppies thereof with their wives or servants to bee delivered to them. By which said Order the Mayor, Recorder, and Sherriffs, and the other persons complained of in the paper annexed to the Plaintiffs' petition, Intitled 'The particulars of the oppressions done to the ould Natives of Gallway by the present Magistrates and Inhabitants of the said towne,' required foorthwith by themselves or their Agents sufficiently instructed and authorized to appeare and answer the said Petition and the said paper annexed ; And he further deposeth that soone after that hee had left a coppy of the said Order at the house of the aforesaid John Murry, with one of his maid-servants, hee the said Murry mett the deponent departing the said towne of Gallway in the streetes of the said towne. And that then and there hee gave the deponent on his head two blowes with his rodd of office, in that the deponent did not give him (as hee said) the said attested coppy of the Order, which said coppy was sealed upp in a cover with other papers to bee sent to Dublin, and threw his (deponent's) hat into the gutters, and committed him to the dungeon, where hee was kept for two houres or thereabouts, stripped naked to his shirt and drawers. And that all his cloathes, shoes, and stockens were searched by the jailer and constable, and the said cover wherein the said attested coppy was sealed upp, togeather with other papers, was taken from him by direction of the said Murry, but the said papers were afterwards delivered to the deponent by the said Constable and Gaoler, after that the cover soe sealed upp was broken open by Anthony French, and the said attested coppy shewed to the said John Murry by the said Anthony French. The following is a similar instance of contempt of the Order of Council :—

7 October, 1673.

James Tenant of Athenry made faith that he delivered the Order of the Lords Justices and Council, on 28th September last to Joseph Ormsby, late Portreeve of Athenry, whereby the Burgesses were ordered not to swear the said Joseph Ormsby into the Office of Portreeve for the ensuing year, but to swear in John Eyre of Eyre Court, Esq. 'And deponent deposeth that when he showed the said Order to the said Ormsby, and delivered him a coppy thereof, the said Joseph Ormsby answered slightingly That "he would doe by the coppy of the said Order as he had done with other papers." Book of Affidavits, 1668–1682, p. 120.

Affidavits of Service of Orders of Council, 1661–1663.

In the Volume thus endorsed appears the following :—

9 Novr. 1661.

Edmund Prendergast made faith that since the Proclamation of the 9th January, 1660, prohibiting the destruction of woods, there hath been great waste and destruction committed on the woods of Curraghnemoney and Glenbreedy, in the County of Tipperary, formerly belonging to this Deponent's father, by the hands of Philip Gibbon, John Hogan, Phillipp Daly, Thomas Dean, Thomas Mullaly, and David Mahery, with divers others, and [they] do still continue destroying the said wood, contrary to the said Proclamation.

And the deponent deposeth that about the 7th of March last hee shewed the said Proclamation to Thos. Morgan, of New Castle, in the said Countie, Tobias Smith of Frehans in the said County, which two are the persons who doe from time to time employ the former persons and others to cutt the said woods. And who upon shewing them the Proclamation aforesaid, tould this Deponent that they did not value the said Proclamation but would still continue the cutting of the said woods and that they would not leave one tree thereof but one whereon hee thee Deponent should bee hanged.

And he Deponent deposeth that in the month of March last this Deponent shewed the said Proclamation to Richard Homerton, who also doth from time to time employ carpenters and others in cutting the said woods . . . . And they and the said other persons aforesaid doe still continue cutting and destroying the said woods, and have made more destruction thereon since the said proclamacion than hath been done since the beginning of the Rebellion, as this deponent truly believeth.

Jur.: M. B.

Attachmt. Dated the 16th day of Novr. 1661, Signed by the Lords Justices issued against the persons above named.

13th Decr. 1662.

Edmund Prendergast again made faith that six men (all named) by appointment of Valentine Greatrakes and Alexander Deane, had been cutting the woods of Rossmore, &c., in the barony of Iffay and Offay, in the County of Tipperary, and deponent meeting the said six men on 4th and 5th of November last carrying barrel staves, hoopes, and other ware made of the said woods, asked of them by what authority they presumed to cutt and carry away the said woods. They made answer that Valentine Greatrakes, their employer, would beare them out and therefore would continue cutting.

On 22nd of October last deponent caused the Subsheriff at the Sheriff's Court held at Knockennaneny, in the barony of Iffay and Offay, publiquely to read the proclamation against cutting timber woods, all the said six persons being present, whereupon the said Thos. Morgan and Stephen Batsman said they did not care for the said Proclamation, and if the deponent would inform against them for cutting the said woods they would cropp off his ears.

The Council records of Ireland are in point of fact of such historical interest that I have been induced to enter thus fully into the nature of the portion of them transferred on this occasion.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your very faithful servant,
J. Bernard Burke, Ulster,
Keeper of the State Papers.

Calendar to Christ Church Deeds.

The following Calendar is portion of one made under instructions from the late Deputy Keeper of the Records in 1883, to the Original Bulls, Grants, Deeds, Leases, and other documents transferred to the Public Record Office from Christ Church Cathedral in 1872. It comprises the documents, both numbered and unnumbered, entered in the three volumes of the "Novum Registrum," now in the custody of the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church. Of these documents, Nos. 9, 11, 12, 13, 28, 45, 61, 81[a], 91, 218, 283, 351[b], 355, 372, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, and 379 were not transferred, and are calendared from the copies extant in the "Novum Registrum." Except those cases noted at foot as being in French or English the original documents are in Latin. It is difficult to ascertain the exact dates of many. The probable dates given by Dr. Lyon in the "Novum Registrum," have been adhered to, save where it is plain that a mistake has occurred.

The numbers prefixed to each article and enclosed thus ( ), are those found on the originals and on the copies in Novum Registrum. The preceding current numbers are added for reference.

1. (2.) Earl Richard, son of Earl Gillibert, on behalf of the King, grants to Hamund son of Torkill, Censale and adjacent lands held by him before the arrival of the English in Ireland; to hold of the King, at a rent of two marks, payable to the Canons of Holy Trinity Church, to supply light before the Holy Cross.

Witnesses—Hervey de Montmorres, Maurice fitzGerald, Gilbert de Bosco Roh', Meiler fitzHenry, Adam de Hereford, Hugh de Clahell, John the bishop, Walter the goldsmith, Aylred the palmer, Roger, brother of Hern, Augustine, Marcus Judeus, Nicholas the clerk, and Richard Gogan.—Circa 1174.

from the upper part of the altar to the ground in front; the chalice to be made of gold or silver in the richer churches, and of tin in the poorer; the host to be delicate, pure, and white, and the wine so tempered with water as not to lose its natural taste and colour; the lavatory of stone or wood to be hollow, so that the post communion washings may pass to the earth. A Baptismal font to be kept in every church with a channel in the same manner through which the ash of old vestments and altar coverings burned is to be passed; vessels used in Baptism are not to be converted to human purposes; no person to be buried unless in a church consecrated by a bishop, and in the presence of a priest; divine service not to be celebrated in chapels built by laymen to the injury of mother churches, without licence of the bishop; no priest, deacon, or sub-deacon to keep a woman in his house, except a mother, own sister, or person without suspicion through age; Simony to be punished by loss of office and benefice. Then follow regulations with regard to Holy Orders and the punishments directed against fornicators, persons refusing to pay tithes, and plunderers.

Dated at Verona, Non. Mar. (7 Mar.) 1186.

6. (5.) Pope Urban III. confirms to Holy Trinity Church the Rule of its foundation, and the churches of Holy Trinity, St. John the Baptist, St. Michael, St. Michen, the mill and garden near the bridge, the garden near St. Patrick's, the garden near the new ditch, the lands near the church of St. Brigid, Rechen, Port Rechran, Rathchillin, Censali, Trianchochair, Triancillidaria, Lesluan, Cellestra, Duncuanach, Glaisnoiden with its church, Magimma, Cilldulig, Ferann Amleim, Cluaincaim with its church, Kalgach, Telachain, Cellengini Lenin with its church, Celltucca, Raithsalchan, Telachneepscop with its church, Dromming, Feranmochagan, Lechtigmahi, Tirodran, Ferannucharan, and Ferannuroulb; freedom from tithes of crops, and nourishment for its beasts; free asylum for refugees; no brother to depart without licence; power to elect priests to their churches and present the same to the bishop, divine offices to be celebrated during a general interdict with closed doors and without ringing the bells, those excommunicated or under interdict being excluded, burial to be permitted in the church except to persons under same condition, no arrest, murder, or theft, to be committed in the close of the church. Priors to be elected by the brethren or the majority thereof, and to have first voice in the election of Archbishop of Dublin.

20. (18.) The Archbishop of Tuam and his suffragans testify that J. Papiron, the Roman Legate, coming to Ireland, found a Bishop in Dublin, and another Church in the mountains called a city and having a chore-episcopus, and considering that Dublin should be Metropolitan, gave a pall to the Bishop there, and divided the diocese so that one part should belong to the metropolis, and the other to him who ruled in the mountains, intending that at the decease of the latter his portion should revert to the metropolitan; this intention would have been put into effect at once but for the insolence of the Irish who had power in that land: King Henry having heard of the Legate's intention, granted the mountainous portion to the metropolitan, and so did King John, to John, archbishop of Dublin. The church in the mountains was held in great reverence from the earliest times on account of St. Keywvyn, who lived as hermit there, but for nearly forty years it has become so deserted and desolate as to be used as a den for robbers, and more homicides are committed there than in any part of Ireland.—Circa 1214.

21. (19.) Pope Innocent III. takes into his protection the Prior and Canons of Holy Trinity, Dublin, and their possessions, especially the church and house of Holy Trinity, St. John the Baptist, within the walls of Dublin, St. Michean and Kilcolin.

Dated at the Lateran, xiv. Kal. [.] 19° Innocent III. (1216.)

22. (30.) Philip de Portbich, grants to Holy Trinity Church, his land in Oxmantown, lying between the land of Jordan the artisan, and the land of Farend, the son of Cristin, after his decease. He leaves his body to be buried with that of his wife in the church, should he die in Ireland, and, with his body, his horse and arms; ten shillings and ten sheep towards the building of the church; also one cow and one heifer, and during his life a sheep at the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

Witnesses.—Master Philip de Bray, then official, W., archdeacon of Dublin, Master R. de Gnoufsal, G. de Livet, R. de Plutun, H. Le Noble, Ingilbricht, Turkill de Oxmantown, Fintan.—Circa 1216.

23. (20.) Aud. Brun and Richard de Bedeford grant to Holy Trinity Church, land near the water-course of Auenelich, on the north side of Oxmantown Bridge, Dublin, as a site for St. Saviour's Church.

Witnesses.—Wm., archdeacon of Dublin, Peter Malvusin, Elias de Muha, Bartholomew de Camera, Gilbert de Lyvet, Gilbert Burel, Robt., the money changer, Wm., the money changer, Bartholomew fitz Archdeacon, Wm. le Bas, Alan de Bedeford, Adam his brother, Richard Black, Wm. de Barri, William Benedict, Henry de Stanford.—Circa 1218.

24. (21.) William de Hestam grants to Gillefintan, land, with common of pasture, lying between the bounds of Holy Trinity land and William's domain, on the north of Killicassach grove; rent, 2*s.* 4*d.*

Witnesses.—R., prior of Holy Trinity, W., archdeacon of Dublin, Audoen Brun, Helias de Mua, Peter Mauvesin, Hugh de Chernesfend, Adam de Chernesfend, Nicolas Cumin, Peter Costard, Robert de Crauford, Walter Wrench, Nicholas Kauchun, Ralph Heyrun.—Circa 1218.

25. (22.) William de Eastam grants to Holy Trinity Church, land, held in fee of the Archbishop of Dublin.

Witnesses.—Roger, son of Sir W. de Estam, Nicholas Comin, William Tysun, Fintan, Malbride, Sir Gilbert de Valle, Wm. de Valle, Hyngelbricht, Walter Wrench.—Circa 1218.

26. (24.) Robert de Grendun grants to Thomas, chaplain of Kildare, the church of Galmor's town, for his life.

Witnesses.—Robert de la Berei, Henry Mansell, Benedict de Kildare, William de Aleshepe, Thomas de Bosco, Peter, then chaplain of the Castle of Kildare.—Circa 1218.

27. (23.) Robert de Grendun grants to Holy Trinity Church, the advowson of his chapel of Galmor's town after the decease of Thomas, the chaplain.

Witnesses.—H., archbishop of Dublin and Apostolic Legate, C., bishop of Kildare, Augustine, then archdeacon, Richard Kadel, Peter and Thomas, chaplains.—Circa 1219.

28. (24[b] bis.) Robert de Grendun having contested the right of presentation to the chapel of Galmor's town alleged by the Prior and Convent of Holy Trinity Church to belong to the mother church of Kylkoli, it is agreed that during the said Robert's life they shall present a proper parson whom the Archbishop shall receive, and who shall pay half a mark yearly to Kilcoly Church by way of pension, and the right of both parties after Robert's decease to be reserved.

Dated at the Lateran, v. Kal. Apr. 6° Boniface VIII. (28 Mar., 1300).

164. (142*b.*) Roll of proceedings setting out that John de Braybrok, on the feast of S. Francis of the Friar's Minor (16 Jul.), 1300, brought from Rome the bull No. 163, supra.

The Dean and Chapter of St. Patrick's submitted that on the vacancy of the see, royal license should be sought by both Chapters (of Holy Trinity and S. Patrick's) to elect; the former to arrange and conduct the election; the Archbishop to be enthroned in Holy Trinity; and the decree of election to be sealed by both Chapters.

The Prior and Convent of Holy Trinity claimed that the grant of Archbishop Luke be confirmed; restitution of the Church of Rathfernan, exemption from the Archdeacon's jurisdiction, restoration of the chapels of Archbishops Fulk, Luke, and John de Saunford, and of certain bulls in their favour; also the cope taken from brothers Hugh le Mareschal and Rich. de Notingham, in S. Patrick's, in which W[alter] Calf, bishop of Kildare, was consecrated; they claimed power to elect their Prior; as mother church, an annual payment of 3 ounces of gold from S. Patrick's; the see being vacant, officials to be appointed and account in Holy Trinity, and their seal kept there; synods to be held in that church; and canons and prebendaries of S. Patrick's to swear to observe these privileges.

The Dean and Chapter of S. Patrick's consented to admit these claims if, as formerly, equal rights in the election were conceded to them. The Convent refusing, the Dean threatened, as Vicar-General, to visit the Convent. The latter thereupon appealed to Rome, 11 August, 1300, in presence of Sir Hugh the chaplain, dean of Christianity, Nicholas the clerk, provost of Dublin, Master John de Kerdyf, and Master Adam de Stratton, official of the Archdeacon; and their proctors (Master Peter de Lando and Audoen de Ymer), left for Rome on the Sunday after the feast of S. Luke the Evangelist (18 Oct.)

* For confirmation of ordinance of Pope Nicholas III. by Richard, Archbishop of Dublin, 2 Mar, 1300, see No. 364, infra.

The Dean and Chapter, through Sir J. Wogan, the justiciary, compelled the Prior to agree to the compromise directed by R[ichard de Ferings], the Archbishop, 2 March, 1300, to the following effect:—

That the ordinance of Pope Nicholas stand firm; the consecration and enthronisation of Archbishops to take place in Holy Trinity as the Mother Church; that S. Patrick's be called Cathedral, though admitting the precedence of the other; the cross, mitre, and ring of deceased archbishops to belong to Holy Trinity, and their bodies to be buried there unless willed otherwise; the consecration of chrism and oil to belong to Holy Trinity, and its chapter to have equal power in rural churches during vacancy of the see.

The Convent of Holy Trinity having refused to seal this ordinance or revoke their appeal, the prior (Adam de Balscham) deposed the sub-prior, seneschal, sacrist, and precentor, and instituted brother Philip de Braybrok as sacrist. The Convent revoke the institution.

Brothers Gilbert de Winchester, sub-prior, Walter de Clontarf, Henry de Kork, Nicholas de Medlers, precentor, William de Cari, John de Forneys, Philip de Braybrok, John de Balscham, Richard de Nottingham, Elias Was, and Hugh de Sutton, canons of Holy Trinity, accuse the prior of apostasy, simony, perjury, incontinence, and waste, and appeal to Rome, 21 Oct., 1300.

The same day William Canne put to sea from Dublin, and brother Audoen from Ross. Brothers Philip de Braybrok and John de Balscham renounce the accusation and appeal.

The dean visited the convent as vicar-general, and pronounced excommunication against those opposing him; he required the convent to revoke their appeals, called on the prior to account, and directed that Gilbert de Winchester, sub-prior, John Pecok, master of the building of the church, and Nicholas de Medlers, precentor, be sent for penance to the monasteries of S. John, Kilkenny, Inistyok and Kells in Ossory, the first to abstain from fish on the sixth day of the week, the others on the fourth, and to receive only bread and water on the sixth day, and all to sit last in choir and at table.

The penitents appealed to Rome in presence of the prior, Baron de Signe, diocese of Florence, notary public, Sir Hugh, dean of Christianity, John de Horton, chaplain, Sir Hugh de Asseford, Sir John de Bothestrete, Gerard Chimberd, merchant, Adam de Cromelyn, sheriff of Dublin, Richard le Blund, J. de Chichester, and the canons—Henry de Kork, William de Cari, John de Furneys, Philip de Braybrok.

Finally the vicar-general, having found the prior's accounts unsatisfactory, deprived him of his office for simony, and excommunicated him; restored the brethren, relieved them from the excommunication of the prior, and appointed officers during vacancy of the prior.

The treasurer (Rich. de Bireford) and barons of the Exchequer appointed as custodian of the priory, Nich. de Campeden, who removed the officer of the vicar. The canons and vicar obtained a writ from the justiciary (23 Nov., 1300) for Campeden's removal, and the vicar again appointed a custodian. The vicar to prevent the oblations, being used to maintain the cause at Rome, came on the feast of S. Stephen (26 Dec.) and took the key of the oblations from the sacrist. He found £8 in the chest, the oblations being valued at £40 yearly. Having obtained permission of the vicar, the convent on 31 Jan. elected Henry de Bristoll, prior, who was confirmed by the vicar.—Circa 1301.

165. (150.) Pope Boniface VIII. confirms the award in No. 161 supra. Dated at the Lateran, xv. Kal. Mar., 7° Boniface VIII. (15 Feb., 1301).

166. (143.) Huguicio de Vercellis, canon of Bruges, sub-deacon and chaplain of the Pope, announces that Adam de Strachon, proctor of Nicholas de Clere, archdeacon of Dublin, obtained a Bull dated at the Lateran, ii. Kal. November, 7° Boniface VIII., directing the Archdeacon of Armagh to determine the complaint of the Archdeacon of Dublin, that the Dean of St. Patrick's installed brother Henry de Bristole as Prior of Holy Trinity contrary to the right of the Archdeacon of Dublin to install priors into monasteries governed by priors in his Archdeaconate, on the understanding that it should not prejudice the Prior and Convent of Holy Trinity.

Dated at the Lateran [ii.] Kal. Nov., 7° Boniface VIII. ([31] Oct., 1301).

167. (147.) Pope Boniface VIII. directs the Archbishop of Armagh to protect for three years the Holy Trinity Church from being injured by robbers and plunderers, saving the rights of litigants; no sentence of excommunication to be promulgated against Bishops, the higher Prelates, or Universities.

Dated at the Lateran, vi. Id. Nov., 7° Boniface VIII. (8 Nov., 1301).

168. (148 bis.) Pope Boniface VIII. directs the Archbishop of Armagh to publish in the Churches that those who detain the tithes and other goods of Holy Trinity Church should produce them and render satisfaction therefor, and having warned them, to publish general excommunication against them.

Dated at the Lateran, iv. Id. Nov., 7° Boniface VIII. (10 Nov., 1301).

169. (149.) Pope Boniface VIII. prohibits all persons from attacking or detaining the Canons, lay brethren, or goods of Holy Trinity for the purpose of obtaining satisfaction in any matter of dispute.

228. (204.) Pope Benedict XII. directs the Archbishop of Armagh to hear the appeal of the Prior and Chapter of Holy Trinity, Dublin, against the declaration of the Archbishop of Dublin, that the tithes of the rents of the mill in the Brigge-street, Dublin, belong to William de Burgo, as rector of St. Audoen's.

Dated at Avignon, vii. Kal. Jul., 3° Benedict XII. (25 June, 1337).

229. (206.) Memorandum that the Escheator has returned nothing for the rents and issues of the Priory of Holy Trinity, Dublin, in the King's hands by the deposition of Roger Goioun, the late Prior, from the 6° July to the 3rd October, 11 Edward III., because the Prior who now is and his brethren, having no respect for the Royal seisin, converted the same to their own use.—Circa 1337.

230. (205 bis.) The Prior and Convent of Holy Trinity Church, Dublin, reciting that they had always held their lands in free alms, and that the King or his ancestors had never caused them to answer in the Exchequer for the temporalities, petition the Council for relief from being required to account for the temporalities taken into the hands of Edward II. on the resignation of Hugh de Suttoun, late Prior, and into the hands of the King on the deprivation of Roger Goioun, the late Prior.—Circa 1337. (French).

231. (207.) Inquisition taken before John Gernon and John de Grauntceste, commissioners of the King at Dublin, on the feast of St. Laurence O'Tothill, 12 Edward III., by Wolfram de Bernevall, John Cristofer, Thos. Lumbard, clerk, tester of measures, master Hervey Bagot, for proxies of Kilcolyn, the Chancery clerks for writs, the private clerk of the lord justiciary for a bill to the Chancery clerks, Stephen de Gascoyne for wine, Wm. Petyt, John Gernoun, and Hugh Broun, narrators, Henry Abbot, merchant, for cloth.

Account of issues of the Autumn grain of the Haggard of Gorman to the feast of All Saints, 17° Edw. III. (1343), amounting to 104 crannocs of wheat (at 7 heaped pecks for one crannoc). This is accurately accounted for by quantities given to brother Stephen the cellarer, used for seed, used for bread in the kitchen at Gorman, and given to the different servants. The produce of oats, &c., is similarly accounted for.

Account of John Chamburleyn, bailiff of Clonkeyn, for one year, beginning feast of S. Peter ad Vincula, 1344. Receipts include pleas of court, wool, wheat, oxen, and hides sold, also clay to make earthen ware. Payments include wood and iron for ploughs; hemp, traces, wheels, clouts, and nails, for carts; various building materials for the house; wages to bailiff for a year (6*s.* 8*d.*), carter and ploughmen (5*s.*), plough drivers (4*s.*) (they also received quantities of corn, &c).; two men watching for two nights on the mountain top for fear of the Irish, 4*d.* The account for harvesting gives the numbers of men employed on each day, on one as many as 88 (at 1*d.*) ; costs of bringing in tithes ; daily account of amount of corn used for baking or brewing, with cost of herrings (16*d.* for 200), chickens, candles, beef, mutton, wine, geese, salt.

Account of the issues of the Haggard of Clonken, Autumn, 18° Ed. III. (1344). 211 crannocs of wheat, besides barley, oats, beans, and peas, are accounted for minutely as in the account of the Haggard of Gorman above.

Expenses of brother John Comyn, seneschal, from the Nativity, 1344. For fur for the prior's cape, and for his esquires ; fur, robes, gloves, dishes and pewter plates, tunics, and a table for the prior; various small payments to messengers and servants, to Roger de Pulesdon, kinsman of the prior ; expenses of the Seneschal and other officers on business journeys, in detail ; sent to Archbishop for Easter, a carcase of beef (9*s.*), two muttons (2*s.* 8*d.*), two capons, besides pigeons and kids ; gratuities to Archbishop's servants ; small expenses, include hammer for breaking stones, lock and key, straw chairs, &c. for prior's chamber ; bolts and hooks for glass windows at Glasnevin ; brother John Savage for carving and painting 18 images for the pyx (17*s.*) Special articles for prior's table include stockfish, capons (2*d.* each), hens, bread, wine, pepper, salmon, &c. Account of wine supplied to refectory on feast days. Payments of different sums due.

Account of brother Thomas de Beuley, seneschal and treasurer of the Cathedral Church of Holy Trinity, Dublin, of all receipts and expenses from Wednesday before the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 1346, to the feast of All Saints following. The receipts include money received from the prior, from Sir Wm. Watur, chaplain, for the tithes of Kilcolyn ; from John Dolphin, sub-prior, for tithes of Kildenhall ; from the Archbishop, and from Robert de Hoghton, in repayment of loans, besides smaller sums from the bailiff of Clonken, Nicholas Chamburleyn, bailiff of Glasnevyn, Philip, chaplain of Rathogell, Sir John Dendredeby, the prior of Instyok, and others. The payments include disbursements to messengers despatched for various purposes, chiefly to collect money due and to procure writs, for example, to obtain the above payment from Wm. Watur at Kilcolyn, a brother rode down attended by a horseboy, and his expenses for three days amount to 9 pence. There are presents of wine sent by command of the prior ; the expenses of the prior and suite to the parliament at Kilkenny, 22*s.* 8*d.* There are also items for paint sent to the Archbishop at Balymor and Tauelach, for wine sent to him, or provided on occasions of his visits to the church. Rose water and sugar were provided for prior Simon de Ludegate during his illness, and the materials for his coffin amount to 4*s.* Breakfasts and dinners for the new prior form some items, followed by a long list of meals to the prior's guests, who are usually entertained in the sacristy, with geese (3*d.* each), larks, baked rabbit, pigeons and fowl, roast meat, bread, wine, white wine (6*d.* a gallon), and ale. The guests include master John Petyt, Sir Adam de Kingeston, master Thomas of Kylemore, John of Evesham, Edm. de Byrford, Sir John Dendredby, the dean of S. Patrick's, master Wm. de Notyngham, master Simon Lichefield, master John Dolfyn, John Haket, Wm. Present at the delivery of seisin—John Herman, clerk, Matthew Hamlen, clerk, Richard Dillon, husbandman, Richard Cowgan.

[Indorso] Grantor declares that the premises were granted to him by Richard Freman, to the use of the prior and convent of Christ Church, and the feoffees are to be seised thereof to the same use.

451 (369.) Thomas Leverouse, dean, and the chapter of St. Patrick's, release to the dean and chapter of Holy Trinity church, their goods, chattels, musical instruments, &c., in the possession of the latter.

Dated 27 April, 1558.

452. The Dean and chapter of Holy Trinity, by William Magrane their attorney, having presented their bill to the Right Honorable William Gerrard, lord chancellor, against Thomas Heiwarde of Malahide, John Husborne of Rogerston, Thomas Terrell, Patrick Carre, Thomas Carre of Houth, and Patrick Managhan of Clontarfe, fishermen, to recover tithes of fish, especially herrings, taken in the river Lyffy between Isold fonte and the Barrefoote, Dublin, Thomas Heward answered that the common custom of Ireland was to give half of such tithes to the parish church where they land the fish, and the other half to the parish where the fishers dwell. The lord chancellor decreed in favour of complainants. (English.)

Dated 23 June, 19 Elizabeth. 1577.

453. The Lord Deputy and Council, at the instance of the Dean and chapter of Christ Church, Dublin, declare that the town and land of Glasnevyn should be exempt from cesses of subsidy and carriage. Signed by H. Sydney, lord deputy, T. Armagh, Adam Dublin, H. Meath, W. Darcy, H. Bagnal, John Challonor, Lucas Dillon. (English).

Dated 18 June, 20 Elizabeth (1578).

Enrolled in Chancery by Robert Bysse, 22° Elizabeth.

Entered in the Book of Acts, 8 Sep., 1645.

454 (370.) John Garvey, dean, and the chapter of Holy Trinity church, appeal for aid to repair the church, and request offerings to James Walsh, precentor, or to Peter Calf, his substitute.

Dated 1583.

455. John Garvey, bishop of Kylmore and dean of Holy Trinity, appoints Henry Whyte, clerk, or in his absence William Taffe, to be seneschal of Balscadden, county Dublin, on the condition that they shall find horsemeat and man's meat for the dean and his company when they keep court there, and yearly present a dish to the dean as the custom hath been. (English.)

Dated 12 December, 1586.

456. Jonas Wheler, dean, and the chapter of Holy Trinity appoint John Hamnett, of Dublin, yeoman, their attorney, to take possession of the parsonage of Kilkullen, co. Dublin, the messuages and lands in Mynstowne, in the possession of widow Hamlyn, those in Roganston in the possession of Patrick Saunders, "Gyfford's" farm in Cromlyn in the possession of Thomas Chambers, and the wood in Cromlyn called Gifford's Grove, in the tenure of the widow Malone. (English.)

Dated 17 May, 38° Elizabeth (1596.)

457 (371.) Rents due to the house of the Petie canons of St. Patrick's, Dublin, amounting to £6 6*s.* 3*d* (English.)
17 Oct., 1609.

458 (372.) A clause from the will of Nicholas Weston of Dublin, alderman, directing his body to be buried in Christ Church, and leaving to it 6*s.* 8*d.* yearly out of Mr. Brice's house in the corn market, for a lamp to hang in the body of the church, his son, William Weston, to be executor, and Sir John King, knight, Walter Sedgrave, Matthew Handcoke, and Edward Ball of Dublin, alderman, overseers. (English.)
Dated 8 Jan., 1617.
(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

459 (373.) Pope Urban VIII. directs the Bishops of Ossory, Ferns, and Cork, or their vicar-generals, to hear the complaint of Patrick Cahil, priest of the diocese of Meath, rector of the parish church of St. Michael, Dublin, and master in theology, against the Archbishop of Dublin, who had ordered him to depart from the city and diocese within 15 days, and suspended him under the pretence that he was author of certain perverse publications concerning the office of the Holy Inquisition.
Dated at St. Mary major, Rome, v. Kal. Sep. 9 Urban VIII. (28 Aug., 1631.)

460 (374.) Order in Council, that, in the cause of the Dean and chapter of Christ Church, and the inhabitants within its precincts, against the Mayor and citizens of Dublin, in the chief place, the parties not being able to agree on an indifferent jury to determine whether the Liberty within the precincts was within the city or not, the Lord Chancellor shall name 48 knights and gentlemen of note in the county, or strangers sojourning in the city, from whom a jury may be impannelled. The premises meanwhile to pay cess, but the prebendal houses to have exemption. (English.)
7 Nov., 1633.
(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

461 (377.) Order of Council that no cellar or vault under Christ Church or house adjoining be used as tavern, tippling house, or tobacco shop; the Archbishops of Armagh, Dublin, and Tuam, to view all erections against the walls which stop up light, disgrace or darken the church, and all encroachments; and removal of same to be ordered on their certificate. No person to put on his hat until the preacher have read his text; none but the Lord Deputy and his lady to use curtains before their seats; none to commit nuisance against the walls, or to walk and talk in the aisles during Divine service. (English.)
28th Nov., 1633.
(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

462 (376.) Orders as to the Vicars choral in the performance of Divine service, as to their not talking, their kneeling, sitting, standing, &c., and especially as to the order of the service: any vicar transgressing to forfeit 40*s.*, for a second offence £4, and for a third, to be deprived of his place.
As in K. Edward VI. time, the vicars should be presbyters. John

Jewet is directed by next ordination to take deacon's orders, and Wm. Ballard and Wm. Betney within six months. (English.)

Dated at the Chapter House, 10 Jan., 1634.

(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

463 (375.) A clause in the will of Arthur Champen, of Christ Church yard, Dublin, merchant, bequeathing £40 to the Dean and chapter of Christ Church for maintaining morning prayer in Christ Church for ever, they entering into good security for performing the trust.

Also £200 to the same, to provide 2*d.* worth of bread, 1 lb. of beef, and 1*d.* to be given every sabbath day to twenty poor and aged Protestants, the poor of each parish to be relieved in turn; security to be given, and if not, then said sum to be left with the Mayor and sheriffs of Dublin for the like purpose: if they refuse, then to be bestowed for such pious purposes as the Provost of Trinity College and his overseers should think fit.

Appoints Stephen Stephens, gent., and Wm. Bladen, stationer, both of Dublin, and Edward Aldrich, of Clonnis, co. Monaghan, gent., overseers, and his wife Alice, executrix. (English.)

(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

464 (379.) Heads of a bill to incorporate the Dean and chapter of the Holy Trinity, Dublin, proposing that they shall be one body corporate, shall have all the possessions belonging or granted to the late Prior and convent, shall make laws to govern themselves, shall distribute their possessions amongst their members, shall maintain the choir and repair the church, and shall grant leases of their houses and lands. The clerk of parliament states that he could not find that it had passed into law. (English.)

Transmitted 29 Sep., 16 Charles I. (1640.)

(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

465 (378). Petition of the Dean and chapter of Christ Church to the Lord Lieutenant and Council, presenting two drafts of Acts of Parliament for confirming the translation of the Prior and convent into a Dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity, and confirming tenants in their legal estates, with order of council referring it to the judges. (English.)

Dated 19 March, 1644.

(Calendared from Novum Registrum.)

466 (380). Pope Innocent X. directs the Archbishop of Dublin, and the Bishops of Leighlin and Ferns, or their vicars general, to admit Patrick Chaell, vicar of St. Michael's, Dublin, to the office of Dean of Holy Trinity church, vacant by the death of William Beorrex.

Dated at St. Peter's, Rome, iii. Non., Nov., 1° Innocent X. (3 Nov. 1644.)

467. Sir Joshua Allen disclaims all intention of passing letters patents for any lands belonging to the Dean and chapter of Holy Trinity, in Stillorgan, particularly the ruinous church, and land commonly called "church land," now in their possession.

Witnesses.—Gilbert Nicholson, notary public, Maurice Watson. (English).

Dated 3 Sep., 1684.
